LONDON EXHIBITION SHEET

October 28th, 1943, was the 25th anniversary of the Czechoslovak Republic. In connection with this celebration an exhibition of Czechoslovak stamps was held in London the week of November 8th. The Czech government (in exile) had a miniature sheet printed by Waterlow & Sons for the exhibition and anniversary. The five stamps in the miniature sheet were not valid for postage, being issued primarily in connection with the Republic's silver anniversary.
