Table from the Scott Specialized Catalogue of United States Stamps & Covers, ©2020 Amos Media

Grading and Condition

Superb	Extraordinary item in the finest condition
Extremely Fine (XF)	A stamp or cover of outstanding and exceptional quality.
Very Fine (VF)	Scott Catalog's standard. Stamps will present a nice, balanced appearance. Covers appear new or show only minimal wear.
Fine-Very Fine (F-VF)	Stamp and/or covers are sound. Stamps are fully margined but noticeably off-center. Covers show normal travel wear
Fine (F)	Sound in all aspects. Perforated stamps will have the perforations clear of the design; imperforate stamps will not be cut into to any significant degree. Covers show extensive wear.
Very Good (VG)	Stamps with imperfect centering, stamps or covers with poor general appearance.

Covers

Minor imperfections are normal for 19th-century envelopes that have been postally transmitted. These include, but are not limited to, nicks, edge or flap tears, or slight reductions; folded letters will often have at least one file fold. Further, covers may have an ordinary stamp with a minor defect. Acceptable forms of conservation include light cleaning and edge mending. These conditions, even if not described, are not grounds for return.

Catalog Values

Unless otherwise noted, the currently available (2021 edition) Scott Catalogue values are quoted in U.S. dollars and rounded to the nearest dollar. Other catalogues are often used for foreign countries or specialized areas as required.

Collection Lots

Please note that all collection lots are sold on an "as-is" basis and therefore not returnable for any reason. Every attempt has been made to provide an accurate description, and extensive imaging is available on our website. Most collection lots will contain stamps and/or covers with varying imperfections or faults. We strongly suggest that all lots of interest be viewed in advance of the sale.

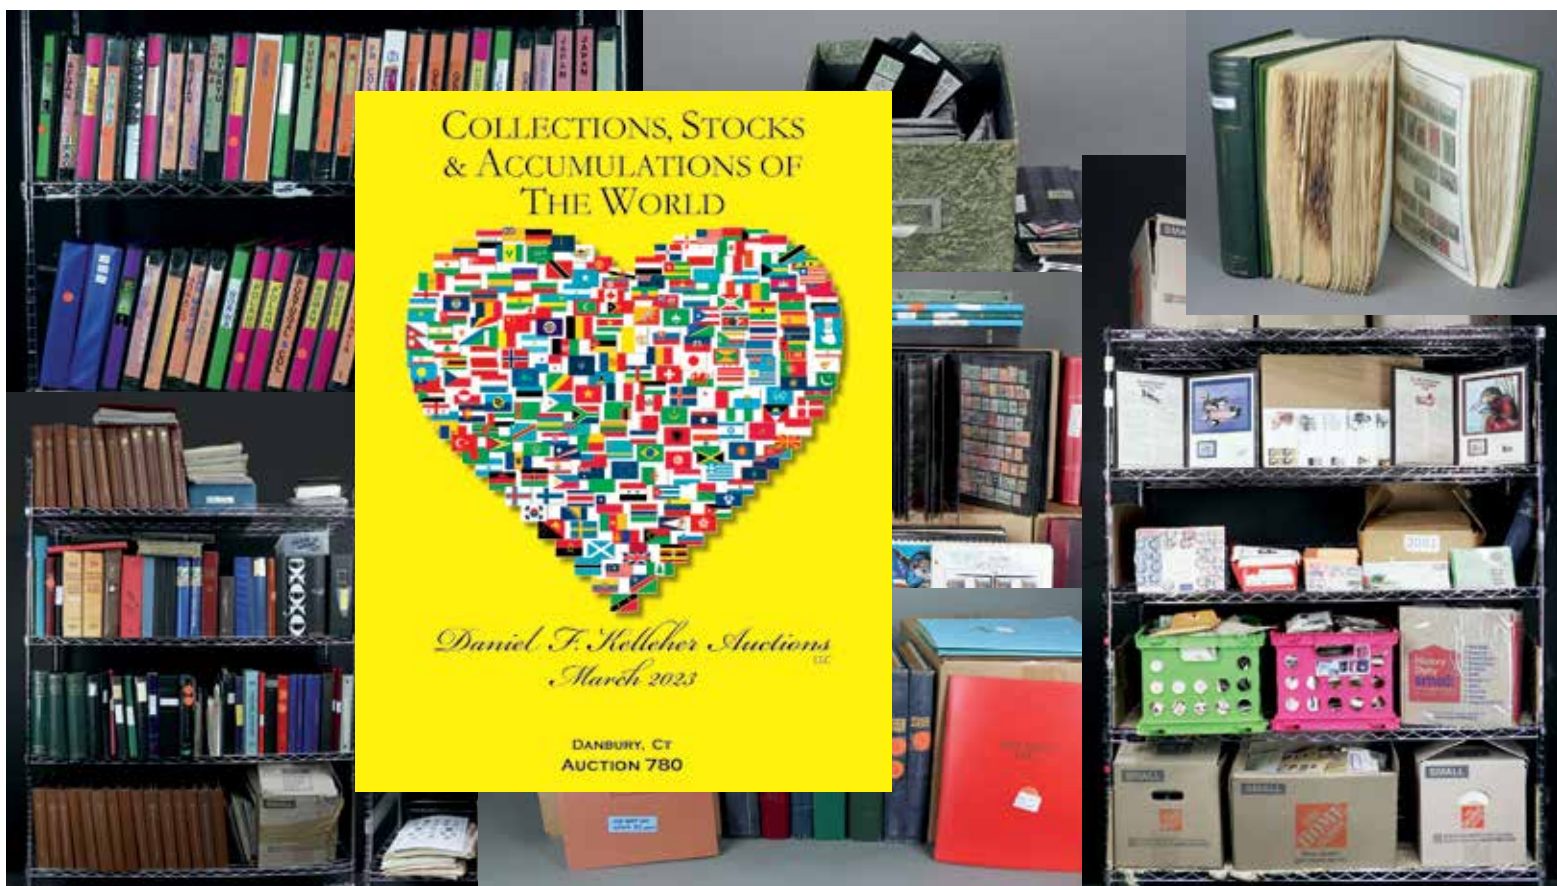

Please note that late payment for purchases may, at Daniel F. Kelleher's option, be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.

Description of the 1849 New Orleans Cholera Epidemic, long 3+ page letter datelined Sept. 9th 1849 that reads in part "The last winter & spring has been one that will not be soon forgotten by the inhabitants of New Orleans, I can assure you. The ravages of the cholera has been dreadful beyond description. The first case of the cholera that was reported here was a merchant that lived nearly opposite of us at Annunciation Street. He was taken in the night and died before morning. From that day, it spread in all directions and parts of the city. It was very uncertain if you went to bed well whether you would ever leave the bed without help or not. Ellen took it in the afternoon and was half dead before dark but the Doctor stayed with me all night about midnight was able to bring about a reaction and then she (was able) to recover. But (she) has not fairly got over it yet & I fear never will. By the time she was able to sit up in the bed, Josephine took it. She soon got relief & soon got well and then Isabella was taken with the ship fever & was for about eight days that I saw that we expected her to die any moment. But thank God she recovered and it is now one of the finest and smartest girls of her age in N.O. at least I think so. The Coley raged here for about one month and then it appeared to disappear for about one month and then it (came back) again. (It) was then the nigger man that I had was taken Saturday about 4 o'clock & died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. He was a strong healthy man. He could not have died much sooner if his throat had been cut. Mr. Steward lost five valuable niggers in one week. He got frightened & left the city and took the rest of his niggers with him or I believe he would have lost the whole of them", Very Fine, ex-Lippman. Estimate $200 - 300

1836 folded letter written and signed by Governor Thomas Buchanan, datelined "Bassa Cove 23 April 1836", written and signed by Governor Thomas Buchanan to his sister Juliet in Fort Covington New York, red "New-York Ship Jun. 14" circular datestamp and red manuscript "20" rate at top right and "pr. Rev. H. Teage" (?) at bottom left, interesting content incl. "I arrived at Monrovia, which was the first African soil my foot touched (?) on the first day of January and after spending a few days, sailed for this place where I arrived on the 9th of that month. My feelings you may well imagine were very peculiar on finding myself in the scene of my future labours five thousand miles from home surrounded by the sea on one side and a boundless forest on the other; in the midst of strangers who were hereafter to regard me as their guardian, friend and governor. The day after my landing being Sunday, we had a meeting beneath the spreading branches of some large trees, and an interesting one it was. The mighty ocean rolled its own restless waves at our feet while on and around us the thick foliage spread its ever green, covering while the eternal silence of the savage wild for the first time reached the gospels hallowed sound. In eleven days after my arrival here, I was attacked by the African fever and for four weeks endured great suffering. When I arrived this place was covered entirely with woods. The old scite (sic) where the massacre took place having been abandoned, I selected this on account of its advantage for fortification and immediately commenced laying out a village and securing against (a possible attack) of the savages. now a very neat village which in short time I expect to be able to (begin building and) making preparations for (the arrival of) an expedition of immigrants which I expect in the summer. We have five or six cannons and out little handful of people consider ourselves perfectly secure from attack. the neighboring kings and headmen show me great respect and a great desire for our friendship and protection. There are hundreds of the savages in our immediate vicinity and scores of them are in our employ constantly. They are very peaceably inclined but have a great propensity to steal. One of them who had been arrested and brought before me bound on examination could not be proved guilty. Of course I ordered him to be unbound and released. The poor fellow before had been in great fear fell upon his knees and crawling most humbly to my chair took hold of one of my feet and embraced it rubbing the bottom of it with his hand", small piece of letter removed and some reinforced splitting along folds and wear, otherwise very fine, the massacre described in the letter refers to the June 1835 destruction by Bassa tribal members of the Americo-Liberian colony of Port Cresson, which was founded in December 1832 by black Quakers of the New York and Pennsylvania Colonization Societies. A month after the massacre, a new colony called Bassa Cove was founded by black Quakers of the Young Men's Colonization Society of Pennsylvania. The Bassa Cove colony was incorporated into Liberia on April 1, 1839, and on the same day, Buchanan, a cousin of President James Buchanan, was appointed as the first governor of the colony, serving until his death on September 3, 1841 from yellow fever. This was the first letter of many Buchanan had written to his sister., ex-Lippman.

Our distance from the nearest post office is 160 miles which is at New Orleans Banks is doing a great work above here. He has taken over 100,000 bales of cotton (he says 300,000). He is universally liked by all loyal men and the copperheads are universally afraid of him. There are two steamers fitting up at N.O. to carry the 15th & 16th N.H. Reg. home, but when nobody. A boat has just come down the Bayou which brings a rumor that 900 of Grant's cavalry came down the Jackson R.R. (may be true) and arrived in Baton Rouge. The Union Army commenced an advance the 3rd of May. (New letter) May 12th/63. Port Hudson has fallen; Alexandria is ours and that rumor spoken of on the other page is true and more too. Letter regarding the Gunboat Diana battle Pattersonville LA, written by Col. Charles C. Dwight on "Office of Provost Marshal General of Louisiana" stationery datelined "New Orleans April 4th 1863" and reads in part "You have heard of the capture of the Diana and the loss of Capt. Jewitt's company. It was a wretched affair, caused by the recklessness of the Captain of the Gun Boat, who expiated his offence with his life. All of the enlisted men captured were paroled. The officers are retained as prisoners. An expedition on a large scale is on foot to go up the Teche again, and if my Regt. goes, I shall accompany it, if I can be relieved from this duty, even temporarily" with original cover with imprint matching the stationery and faulty #65 canceled by target and pen drawn "frame", paperclip rust stain on cover and page 4 of letter also proves they belong together., Very Fine, refers to the engagement at Pattersonville LA on Mar. 28 1863, in which the Gunboat Diana, with detachments of the 160th NY & the 12th CT on board, with four killed, 14 wounded and 99 missing, ex-Lippman.

We are very pleasantly situated on a large plantation (the owner) has lost all his negros but about a dozen. He has some stock though, sheep, cows, pigs and fowls, all of which we help ourselves to when we need We are about 14 miles from Lafourche, the Rail-Road and Head-Quarters of the regiment I go there to draw rations and clothing to ro report to the adjutant or Colonel General Banks has been striking quite a blow on the rebels up the 'Teche'. Recently he marched about 300 or 400 miles, driving the rebels all out and capturing 3000 prisoners I wish we had been in that expedition, but we were obliged to stay behind guarding the railroad and stopping smuggling through our lines. The rebels have all run to Texas and probably will not show themselves until they have reinforcements from Texas. The next strike will be at Vicksburg or Port Hudson third is two pages datelined "Brashear City La. June 1st 1864" to Capt. R.P. Twist, Commanding 16th Ohio Bat'y in Springfield Ohio and reads in part, "We have about four regiments on this side of the Bay & two on the otherside. General McNeil, formerly of Missouri, called the Guerilla Killer, is in command of all forces, having his headquarters at Thibodaux (Lafourche). The Rebels made few attempts to capture Berwick Fort with the two Regts. of Cold troops, but have everytime being repulsed by our Gun Boats. 213 ☒ Two Union Soldier's Letters regarding Confederate Capture of Brashear City LA, first is Soldier's Letter from Camp at Brashear City (near New Orleans) Sept. 22nd 1863 reads in part "Brashear City is situated on Berwick Bay. It is a small place with a very large name. The buildings are all old and have a dilapidated appearance. Yet it is a place of considerable military note. When Banks went to Port Hudson, he left all his army baggage here, and the rebels captured the place with all the baggage. But they soon had to evacuate in double quick time. We now hold the place and intend to unless we are driven out of it. That would be a nice little job for the rebels to do? Perhaps I am bragging some, but no matter we haven't been whipped yet. It is said that Taylor is across the bay with 15,000 troops, but I do not believe it. We have crossed troops over and shelled the woods, but "nary a rebel" but perhaps they do as they generally do, retreat as we advance. That suits me. We may see some fighting before long, but I don't anticipate much. I think we will fetch up before long in Texas."; second is four page letter from Joel C. Hakes, 2nd Sgt., Co. H, 160th Regt. NY Vols, datelined "U.S.A. Gen. Hosp" Elmira NY March 15, 1864 to his Colonel, Charles C. Dwight which reads in part, "I will state my case to you. You know when our Reg. was at Port Hudson last summer, Brashear City was taken by the rebels, we had our clothing all boxed there and it was burnt up by the rebels. I went to the quartermaster to see if I could draw the clothing and he told me I would have to get a sworn certificate from the Commandant of the Regt Liet Col. Van Patten was in command at the time. You was at New Orleans but you will know what to do. I was in the fight with the Gun Boat Cotton, you was in command then. 214 ✉ Letter regarding the guerrilla attack on the Steamboat Louisiana Belle, Letter datelined "Post Hospital No. 2 Berwick City LA May 22nd 1863" written by the hospitalized Assistant Surgeon of the 53rd Mass regiment "The 26th of April I was wounded Contrabands during one of the past weeks came in by thousands - the able bodied are immediately made soldiers while those(?) that are not fit for this branch of business are to be first to work on fortifications and plantations. Since we came into possession of the territory between here and Alexandria, our steamboats have daily run up and down the Bayou loaded with cotton, sugar and molasses, unmolested until last night as the steamer Louisiana Belle was coming down with a load of cotton or rather she had run up to the shore a few miles above here to wait til daylight and she was attacked by a lot of guerrilla's and ordered to surrender. She did not obey, but pushed off from the shore when the villians fired into her killing the Captain and wounding fourteen men. She arrived here this morning with her flag a half-mast. These murderers I trust will be caught and as an example to sit before all who follow this cowardly warfare. I hope they will be hung until they are dead. I hear that our forces have left Alexandria and are about crossing the river to make an attack on Port Hudson. This place without doubt will be in our possession in a very few days. Banks thus far has met with great success and if he takes this Rebel stronghold, it will crown all his other victories. I have perfect confidence in him and since his order for all registered enemies to go outside our lines or take the oath of allegiance this confidence has been strengthened and I think he is the right man in the right place." with original stampless cover endorsed "soldier's letter WM Barrett Asst. 1307 Pallet Load Accumulation, 1850s-1980s, arriving to us on a pallet packed full of stamps in albums, Ziploc bags, stock cards, glassines and loose album pages and filling up an entire rolling rack by the time we started sorting it, from the very heart of America's heartland, right outside of Kansas City, a salt of the earth farmer spent his weekends picking up any stamps he could find and over several decades finally gave in to the ravages of time and decided to sell. Who knows what may be here among the many hundreds of thousands of stamps? We saw some pockets of U.S. face value postage along with a few worldwide albums that could easily be broken down for individual resale. ARGENTINA

1428 Argentina, Old-Time Postal Stationery Wrapper Horde, 1870s-96, over 1,300 vintage wrappers, 95% from the 1870s' Juan de Arenales Issue to the 1896 first embossed Liberty Head issue. Not sure where this lot has been over the past 120 years, but it appears mostly untouched except for the addition of a handful of more recent items. As is typical for most Argentina lots many are postmarked Buenos Aires, but closer examination reveals many smaller towns and items are mostly domestically used, but there is a sizeable proportion of uprated items sent to Brazil, France, Germany, Italy, and others part of the world—even to Dorpat, Russia. In addition to the originating cancel there are numerous with numbered 'CARTERO', BUZON', 'EXPEDICION', 'DOMICILIO LISTAS', 'OFICINA DE LISTAS', 'OC/CS' as well as boxed 'DEVUELTO OFICINA DE IMPRESOS'. There are many numbered individual town name cancels (it appears that the Argentine Post Office had its own special cancels for items sent with wrappers), as well as 'T' markings on Postage Due and returned items. There is one example of H&G #20b with misspelt 'REPULBCA' (this alone catalogues $300 in the specialized Argentinian Catalogue). This lot is worthy of detailed examination by a specialist as there are many different color and printing varieties not referenced by Higgins & Gage. A detailed examination of the addressees may also be fruitful. There is one item sent to the former Argentinian President Carlos Pellegrini. Condition, given the age of the horde, is very good with the occasional edge creases and a very few with small edge tears. As is typical, some items are not cancelled on the stamp but are usually cancelled on the back. This is an excellent lot for somebody to research and break down with the aim of creating a specialized collection or for a dealer to sell the better items on eBay and wholesale the others as small bulk lots. An excellent opportunity at the low estimate. Shipping charges apply - weight 9.2 lbs. (photo on web site) Estimate $750 - 1,000
