Table from the Scott Specialized Catalogue of United States Stamps & Covers, ©2020 Amos Media

Grading and Condition

Superb	Extraordinary item in the finest condition
Extremely Fine (XF)	A stamp or cover of outstanding and exceptional quality.
Very Fine (VF)	Scott Catalog's standard. Stamps will present a nice, balanced appearance. Covers appear new or show only minimal wear.
Fine-Very Fine (F-VF)	Stamp and/or covers are sound. Stamps are fully margined but noticeably off-center. Covers show normal travel wear
Fine (F)	Sound in all aspects. Perforated stamps will have the perforations clear of the design; imperforate stamps will not be cut into to any significant degree. Covers show extensive wear.
Very Good (VG)	Stamps with imperfect centering, stamps or covers with poor general appearance.

Covers

Minor imperfections are normal for 19th-century envelopes that have been postally transmitted. These include, but are not limited to, nicks, edge or flap tears, or slight reductions; folded letters will often have at least one file fold. Further, covers may have an ordinary stamp with a minor defect. Acceptable forms of conservation include light cleaning and edge mending. These conditions, even if not described, are not grounds for return.

Catalog Values

Unless otherwise noted, the currently available (2023 edition) Scott Catalogue values are quoted in U.S. dollars and rounded to the nearest dollar. Other catalogues are often used for foreign countries or specialized areas as required.

Collection Lots

Please note that all collection lots are sold on an "as-is" basis and therefore not returnable for any reason. Every attempt has been made to provide an accurate description, and extensive imaging is available on our website. Most collection lots will contain stamps and/or covers with varying imperfections or faults. We strongly suggest that all lots of interest be viewed in advance of the sale.

Please note that late payment for purchases may, at Daniel F. Kelleher's option, be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.

Sale 2016, Lot 6501, Item No. 977318

Sale 2016, Lot 6502, Item No. 988509

John Quincy Adams, free frank on folded cover, undated, addressed to "John Marston Esq. Taunton" (Mass.) in Adams' hand, Extremely Fine.

John Quincy Adams had free franking privileges from his days as Secretary of State in 1817 through his death in 1848. The recipient is most likely John Marston Jr. (1756-1846) who died in Taunton in 1846 at the age of 90, and there are letters from him to Adams online. There is a remote chance this could be John Marston III (1795-1885) who served as a messenger during the War of 1812 and carried the first news of the capture of HMS Guerriere to former President John Adams at Quincy, Mass., So there were relationships between fathers and sons.
Estimate $350 - 500

A HISTORY OF
THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION
HELD IN CHICAGO IN 1893

This edition is bound in Five Handma Copies, of which this is No. 244

Richard H. Johnson

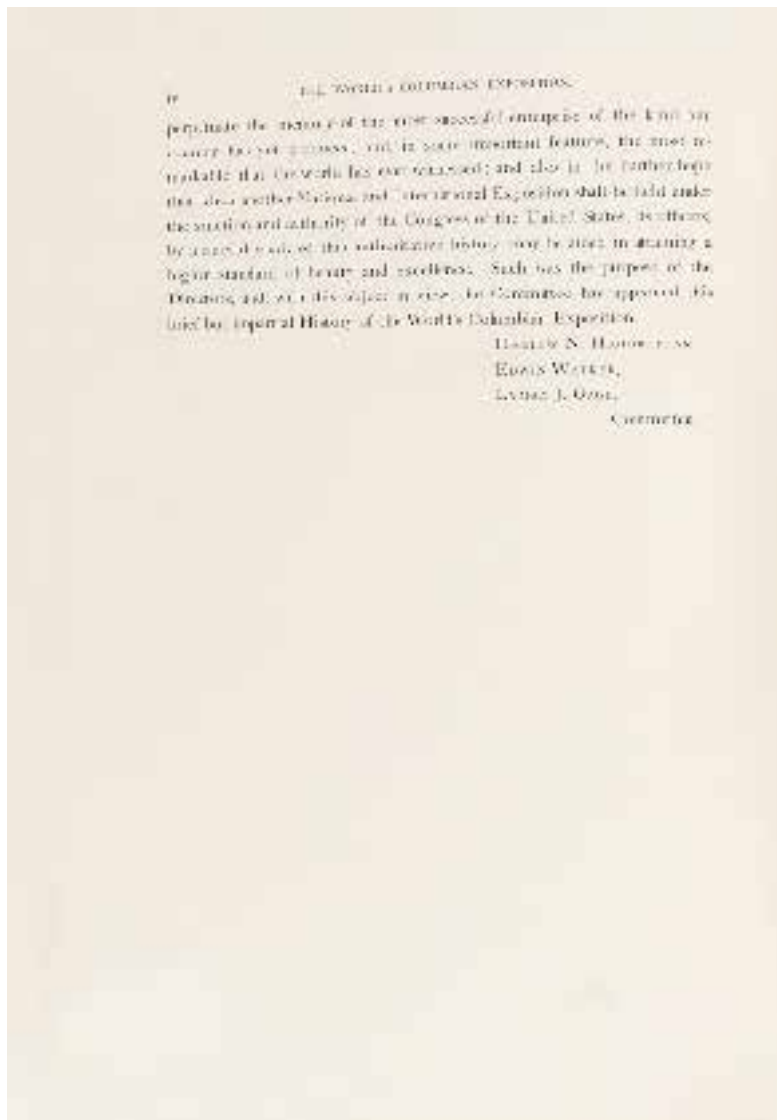

PREFACE.

For the purpose of preserving a record of the principal features and important events connected with the inception, development, and administration of the World's Columbian Exposition together with a brief account of the magnitude of the various departments, of the principal exhibits and of the World's Congresses, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted January 26, 1893, authorized the publication of this History by Messrs. D. Appleton & Co., under the editing of Roswell Johnson, Esq., and appointed the undersigned a committee charged with the duty of supervising the publication.

Invaluable as are the reports of the chief officers of the Exposition, especially to those who may hereafter undertake a similar enterprise, so thick volumes would make a full publication would be impracticable, and therefore nothing more than a condensed synopsis of these reports can be given.

The materials from which the History has been compiled are: the records of the proceedings of the Board of Directors and documents on file in the general office; the reports of Charles N. Hightbloom, President of the Company; George R. Davis, Director General; Daniel H. Brinham, Director of Works; Mrs. Anne Palmer, President of the Board of Lady Managers; and other reports by subordinate officers.

It has been the endeavor of the Editor and the Committee to select from this material so much as might be of interest to the general reader, or as valuable to those who may hereafter undertake a similar enterprise. It has been our purpose to preserve a true record of every important feature and function of the enterprise and to offer it as a contribution to the literature of expositions in the hope that its text and illustrations may serve as

On September 15, 1892, Charles W. Girsh and Charles F. Roehslev, of Brooklyn, New York were issued a patent for their design of a fair card. On November 1, 1892, they were issued a second patent for a second fair card. These were the first cards issued for the fair. Unlike Goldsmith, Girsch-Roehsler chose not to coat the cards with a white ink, thus leaving the black and white image dull and lifeless. This was the primary reason they were not given the contract for the fair. Even without the contract, the company decided to issue the cards. They contracted with Joseph Koehler, a stationer in New York City to market the cards, thus the cards came to be known as the Koehler cards. Estimate $350 - 500

Errors, Freaks and Oddities
United States Government Postal Cards

Two examples of obsolete cigarette stamps on the 1900 (first design) postal card, both Type 1 and Type 2. These cards were printed at the Allen Daggett factory in Shelton, Connecticut and were used during the early years of the war. The design on the left is shifted upward revealing the partial design of the new card on the left while the card on the right is shifted to the right revealing the frame line of the new card on the right.
