ERITREA, 1903.

I have examined the Postage Due stamp issued by the Colonial Administration of Eritrea on April 1st of 1903, "Numerals" 10 Lire blue and lake, perforated 14, on medium white wove paper with watermark "Crown", overprinted in black at top of stamp "Colonia Eritrea", Scott Classic Specialized Catalogue #J11; Sassone Catalogue Segnatasse #11, used, with indistinct black cancellation, a colour reproduction of which is below, magnified to 125% of true size, and am of the opinion that:

The stamp submitted is genuine, used. There are a few irregular perforations, as often with this issue, and the stamp is otherwise in sound condition, being free from hidden faults or repairs at the time of examination.

ERITREA, 1893.

I have examined the postage stamp issued by the Colonial Administration of Eritrea on January 1st of 1893, "King Umberto I" 5 lire carmine and blue, perforated 14, on medium white wove paper with watermark "Crown", overprinted in black "Colonia Eritrea", in curved line, Scott Classic Specialized Catalogue #11; Sassone Catalogue #11, used, with a very light circular datestamp cancellation (illegible), a colour reproduction of which is below, magnified to 125% of true size, and am of the opinion that:

The stamp submitted is genuine in all respects, postally used, with fresh colours, and is free from faults or repairs at the time of examination. I have signed it.
