letter with the the letters & the you work in with as to administer Medicine with kindness & pleasure & & also try to witness new convert in their spiritual duties - Thyrs. enjoyed his Communion with us & then came home on Thursday & we, came on Saturday with him. The lady his child died.
Since visit with you & family for the Communion. She has you to stay to see us.
Thyrs. has gone to be for me visit the children. So tomorrow we will have my mother in no longer a sister & this child's has lived on. But she is more in distress -

Gloucester July 3, 1871

Your delightful letter from on board the Ocean my dear Hamilton was received until the 30th inst. during your stay in Washington after we reached New York. I am delighted to hear that you passed yourself so good & satisfied & enjoyed the voyage which from the account must have been a rough one.
We all missed you very much on the Communion day. I know you would have enjoyed Thyrs. success. The speech was a very sensible one & very well delivered. The expectation that his own family would be sent him flowers as he thought the custom a very foolish one, so that he had no one to bring to some of the others he had a beard on his cheek, & he had a beard which was from a most unpleasant quarter - from the throat of course she was not at the Communion but she took the flowers early in the morning to give him with a request that she would thank them to days - I send you a Proclamation & shall keep some of the newspapers return for you until I see you.

Your Father, Eliza & I came up here on Wednesday and in the night you Father was taken ill & had to send early on Thursday morning for a Doctor. He has had a very sharp attack of bilious disorder. He is now better but still confined to the house - Your letter of the 22nd has just been brought in & it is very pleasant to see you are so happy.
I have had rather a bad time since I came home. Mr. Edward Stanton arrived before breakfast on Tuesday morning & as you Father was too ill to see him you may imagine how inconvenient it was for me to receive him. He stayed until Friday night was & then the Doctor told him it would be some days before he could see him. At dinner check in the State Department was there here & I had to send clerks

LOMBARDY-VENETIA, 1856.

I have examined the cover sheet of a folded letter sent from Polesella to Padova, posted on March 8, 1856, and franked with one postal-fiscal stamp of Lombardy-Venetia, "Arms of the Austrian Empire", 15 Centesimi black and green, value in lithographic printing, Sassone Catalogue #7, cancelled and tied to the cover by the single circle town-dated postmark "POLESELLA / 8/3", on reverse is the arrival of the same day, "PADOVA / 8/3", and no other postal markings, a colour reproduction of which is on the reverse of this certificate, reduced to 90% of true size, and am of the opinion that:

The cover sheet, postal-fiscal stamp attached, and postal markings described above, are genuine in all respects. The cover sheet is complete and sound, and is in reasonably fresh condition, with only minor age stains at the perforation tips of the adhesive.

San Salvador, 17 de janeiro 1897

Amigo meu

Recebi a tua carta de 15 de janeiro e fiquei muito contente por saber de ti e da tua família. Tudo bem aqui. Estou bem e espero que tu também esteja bem. Vou escrever-te mais algumas linhas para que saibas como estou. Estou muito feliz por saber que estás bem e que estás a estudar. Espero que consigas fazer um bom curso. Vou continuar a escrever-te e espero que tu também continues a escrever-me. Um abraço a todos. Tua amiga

Maurice
