1907, 75c black on red Saskatchewan Law stamp, single, Very elusive error stamp (Ccnts instead of Cents) that was discovered 80 years after issue was issued see supplement information with this lot., Fine to Very Fine.

Van Dam SL17b; C$750 ($560).

Suggested Bid $400

The CCNTS ERROR
position #23 on sheet of 25

What is most remarkable about this error, it was not discovered until almost 80 years had passed. Senator Calder, who checked all stamps, writing up all type variations in great detail in the 1924 collectors Club magazine, failed to notice this. I had the sheets some 50 years but did not check them out, depending on the Calder notes.

Legions of other collectors did not spot this until a New York collector of revenues brought this to my attention.

One reason why it escaped notice is that only 2,000 of this value were printed. This would mean 80 possible errors. However only some 10% of all Saskatchewan first three issues have survived, which meant only eight to be discovered.

Kasimir Bileski

Good second sample of the error
