My Dearest Carrie

So beautiful has this day been that it is beyond my power to describe it to you. Only to say it has been the finest one of the season and indeed grand of beautiful Spring how dearly I do love it for it is then you see nature in its grandest form all nice and green and then beautiful flowers, then the sweet warble of the birds, all this combined make every thing indeed sublime. I hope you appreciate the splendor of this day as much as I do, then I know you are happy. But not as much as if we were together and then we would admire 2003, 50c Ailsa Mountains, New Zealand Post limited 1st printing silver fern leaf (Scott 1861 var), includes 2nd printing for comparison and letter of explanation from the publisher of the Campbell Paterson Specialized New Zealand catalog., o.g., never hinged, Very Fine to Extremely Fine.

for, that they had made an error and that the solid overprint was not up to the standards which they required for the souvenir silver overprinting.

- * New Zealand Post then telephoned the recipients of these "original" overprinted 50c sheets and explained that the overprint that they had received was not up to the standard required by New Zealand Post and requested them to return their sheet for replacement with a sheet overprinted with the "segmented" silver fern.

We have publicised our knowledge of the existence of this variety over the past several months in CP Newsletter and have requested further information from clients who may have received the original overprint 50c sheet and either kept it or returned it. None has been forthcoming.

Clearly, the "original" overprint sheet is very rare indeed. Its existence has been fully acknowledged by New Zealand Post and we enclose a copy of letter in confirmation.

We have been fortunate to have purchased from one of our clients one of the original sheets and have the greatest pleasure in enclosing for your approval an example of this significant error/rarity. We also enclose a copy – with the recipient's permission – of the invoice which was sent with the original sheet and on which our client made full payment.

In terms of provenance New Zealand Post's openness about the events, and expertisation and guarantees which we are able to add to this error, this is one of the most "gold plated" – or should we say "silver plated" – varieties in New Zealand stamp history. It is seldom that the issuance of such an item is so fully documented by the Postal Authority itself and it is seldom that evidence of purchase and payment and the full background of information is available to reassure buyers of its genuineness.

This variety has already been illustrated and written up in CP Newsletter (October 20003) and will be similarly illustrated and described in the CP Catalogue Revision for 2004.

It will therefore become one of the "classic" varieties for collectors to own and with what may well be a maximum of 100 available examples can only gain in rarity and value in the years ahead. It will receive a catalogue value in our next revision of not less than $1,500.

We are privileged to be able to make this offer to you as one of our most valued clients. It bears our unconditional guarantee of expertisation and genuineness.

With regards.

Yours sincerely

WARWICK PATERSON
