- 2091 ★○ Cuba, Large Mint and Used Post Revolution Stock, impressive duplicated stock of thousands neatly assembled in 5 like new Leuchtturm spring back binders between mid 1960's to late 1990's. Clean, fresh and overall VF, with owners Scott catalog value of between $25,000 and $30,000, many useful topicals, seldom offered material that has great potential, well worth a quick review and bid. Estimate $5,000 - 7,500
- 2092 ★○ Czechoslovakia, A Magnificent Specialized Holding, an incredible, wide-ranging holding of many hundreds of specialty pieces running the gamut from straight forward, listed rarities, with many of these key items signed Gilbert, Mikulski and others, or with BPP certificates, to proofs, listed or unlisted varieties, covers, multiples, essays and printers waste. This holding is perfectly presented in 5 Safe binders making viewing a pleasure, and begins with an amazing assemblage of the first issue Hradany Castles, which is astounding in its scope, and continues on through the 1920 Pres. Masaryk issues, the 1920 definitive series, the 1925 Masaryk issue, 1st and 2nd issue airmails, with unlisted values, multiples, inverts, Michel-listed Local Revolution issues with varieties, E. Silesia, Bohemia and Moravia, etc. The elusive 1919 posta Ceskoslovenska semipostals are by far the best we have ever offered, including individual rarities such as B33, strip of 3, a tremendous rarity, signed Mikulski, B19a(2), multiples, double overprints, Michel-listed varieties, and much more. Coverage extends by issue to the 1960's, which includes some rare modern material as well. Many covers accent this holding, generally F-VF or better viewing to fully appreciate. Estimate $35,000 - 40,000
- 2093 ★○ Czechoslovakia, Extraordinary Archival Selection, 1920-1937, an amazing selection comprised of many hundreds of scarce items, not the usual assemblage of printers waste items (though a small amount of those present), but comprised of scarce-to-rare footnote-listed imperfs, rare essays and proofs, unadopted designs, etc. Many issues are represented spanning the above mentioned years, from the first issue castles through a wide range of President Masaryk types, to airmails, semi-postals and newspaper stamps. All the items are already broken down into 80 individual lots and this lot is well-suited for either the advanced specialist or the trader. An incredible lot to duplicate, largely Very Fine, inspection invited. Estimate $7,500 - 10,000
- 2094 ★○☒ Czechoslovakia, Attractive Collection, extensive group of material with mint & used stamps, covers, cards, S/Ss and ephemera in three cartons, in twelve binders and loose, lots of better items with many useful items, excellent write ups for much of the collection, some non-Scott items., the perfect lot for the Czechoslovakia enthusiast and includes several specialized catalogs and blank albums to which the collector never mounted, excellent for expansion, o.g., hinged or never hinged, generally F.-V.F. Estimate $2,000 - 3,000
- 2095 ★★ Denmark, Delightful Booklet Collection, composed of 53 booklets running to 1990 with many better including Facit H8, H9, H12, H14b plus much more with a total owners catalog value of SK44,000 = $9,000++. An overall clean and F-VF lot and one that will be a great addition to an expanding specialists collection or for breakdown. Well worth a careful review. ex Amberly. Estimate $2,500 - 3,500

- 2096 ★○ Denmark & Faroe Islands, Mint & Used Collection, 1854-1984, with many of the early issues both mint and used, parallel, a few certificates, unused includes 2, 3-6, 7-8, 9, 11-5, many of the numerals and regular issues, 82, 85-96, 97-137, 138 onwards appears complete, plus a few S/Ss, Semi Postals B1-65 complete, Airmails C1-10 (purchased as NH), J1-24, also includes 27 var inverted frame, used includes a nice array of classics, many VF and useful including duplication of the high values, also includes a set purchased as 11b, 12b & 15b, Plus Faroe Islands #1 mint and tied to piece as well as #2-5 used plus a few S/Ss, a valuable holding and worthy of examination, generally F.-V.F., ex-Amberley. - 2097 ★○ Dominican Republic, Mint and Used Extensive Dealers Stock, 1879//2006, housed in over 60 binders/stockbooks, Mostly 20th Century, STRONG BACK-OF-BOOK, including Semi Postal, Airmail, Airmail Semi-Postal, Special Delivery, Insured Letter, Postage Due, Official, Postal Tax and Postal Tax airmail issues neatly organized and arranged by Scott numbers, including varieties (we noticed some earlier SPECIMEN overprints which looked quite good). Also includes overflow/ backup to the stock housed in 20+ sheets files and a small box plus 10 books of FDCs. A really comprehensive holding of this seldom encountered but popular country, quantities ranging from a few to around 25 of each, with some higher quantities in the sheets and overflow backup stock, but nicely balanced. Loaded with Topicals and the more modern issue period which everyone seemed to miss for inventory. This is by far the largest holding of this country we have offered and comprises of tens of thousands of stamps, souvenir sheets, varieties and even a few collections that did not get integrated into the stock. The amount of time to try and set up this sort of inventory would be massive if you could find the stamps-many are genuinely scarce. Definitely a gold mine for breakdown/retail and internet sales. Condition is mostly F-VF (as it was from a source in the western US) so it is not plagued by the tropical gum/staining that is prevalent from stocks stored locally in the DR. There will certainly be a few problems here or there, but generally quite a clean stock and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Huge retail potential please take a look for yourself. Estimate $3,000 - 4,000
- 2098 ☒ Egypt, Accumulation of about 400 Censored Covers, late 1930's to mid 1950's, composed of mostly censored, including registered, to India (about 100 are local usages).
