Roy Meminger

Roy Wright Menninger – physician, community leader, chief executive and lifelong stamp collector – passed away in the fall of 2024, three days shy of his 98th birthday. He was a native of Topeka, Kansas, and grandson of a horse-and-buggy prairie doctor who, with his own two sons, established the world-renown Menninger Foundation for psychiatric care in 1919.

Dr. Roy graduated from Swarthmore College in 1947 and earned a medical degree from Cornell Medical School in 1951 before serving two years in the U.S. Army. While stationed in Saltzberg, Austria, Dr. Roy developed an abiding interest in Austrian stamps.

He assumed leadership of the Menninger Foundation in 1967 following the death of his father and ran the organization for the next quarter-century. During Dr. Roy's tenure, the Foundation solidified its reputation as a world leader in behavioral health research, education and treatment.

Thanks to his father, William, a lifelong collector, Dr. Roy took an interest in stamp collecting at age seven. The dozens of albums Dr. Roy assembled throughout his life reflected his diverse interests in history, geography and technology. Many volumes included detailed narratives and journal entries that offered context around the stamp or set in question. As a boy, Dr. Roy aspired to be a locomotive engineer and railroad stamps consequently became a particular favorite.

John Witek

A lifelong collector of stamps, post cards, WW2 militaria, movie memorabilia, and comic books, John Witek was also a prolific writer, artist, scientist, and Emmy Award winning television producer.

Born in Jackson Heights, Queens, he graduated from the prestigious Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, received a BA in Literature from Hofstra University and an MA from Hunter College.

"Witek," as he was known to his best friends, was a brilliant writer. After graduation, he entered the advertising industry, where he pioneered the field of television direct marketing, writing the first book on the subject. In the 1980s, he got the entire nation exercising with his clever commercials for the "Gut Buster," "EZ Glider," "Abdominizer," and Jane Fonda's Step Aerobics, among hundreds of other commercials.

In the 1990s, Witek teamed with Deborah Novak to create Emmy award-winning documentaries for public television, including Hearts of Glass: The Story of Blenko Glass.

Witek's collecting interests ran from stamps to Cinderellas to covers to post cards (don't miss his vast collection of RPPCs). In the coming months, look for his militaria collection, movie memorabilia, lobby cards, coins, and comic books.

Witek will be remembered for being "the smartest guy in the room," but one who had great compassion for his fellow human beings. He will be missed by all who knew him and we hope you enjoy his vast collections.

THE PLACING OF A BID SHALL CONSTITUTE ACCEPTANCE OF THESE CONDITIONS OF SALE BETWEEN BIDDER AND DANIEL F. KELLEHER AUCTIONS, LLC (“KELLEHER”) BIDDING

1. Unless announced otherwise by the auctioneer, all bids are per lot, as numbered in the printed Catalogue. Kelleher, as agent for the consignor or vendor, shall regulate the bidding and shall determine the manner in which the bidding shall be conducted. Kelleher reserves the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale (without liability to any potential purchaser or agent), to re-offer any withdrawn lot, to divide a lot or to group two or more lots belonging to the same consignor or vendor, and to refuse any bid believed not made in good faith. Estimates of sales prices contained in the printed Catalogue reflect the best judgment of Kelleher and are not minimum or upset prices.

2. (a) Bids shall be made in the steps set forth on the bidding page for increments. (b) The highest bid acknowledged by the auctioneer shall prevail. Should a dispute arise between bidders (including a dispute between a floor or internet bidder and the auctioneer acting on behalf of a mail bidder, consignor or vendor, the auctioneer alone shall determine who the successful bidder is and whether to reoffer the lot in dispute. Should a dispute arise after the sale, the auctioneer's sale records shall be conclusive. On all lots sold, a commission of 20% * on the hammer price is payable by the buyer to the auctioneer together with any sales and use tax or customs duties. (c) Lots may be re-opened as necessary to accommodate connectivity issues or incorrect bids.

(b) Lots are offered subject to a reserve price. The auctioneer will implement such reserve price by bidding on behalf of the consignor/ vendor. (c) It may also be assumed that all consignors have been advanced monies against the sale of their consigned material and Kelleher therefore has a security interest in the consigned material over and above the normal auction commission.

(d) Purchases made by a consignor or vendor or his agent on his own lots shall be considered as a sale subject to commissions and sales tax as applicable.

(e) Agents are responsible for the payment of the purchase price for all purchases made on behalf of their clients, unless other arrangements with the auctioneer have been confirmed in writing prior to the auction.

(b) In the event that a bidder shall fail to comply with these Conditions of Sale (“Non-Complying Bidder”), then, as to any lot with respect to which such failure to comply occurs, Kelleher, may, in its sole discretion, re-offer such lot during the same auction or at an auction at a later time, or by private treaty sale at such time as Kelleher Auctions, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate and the Non-Complying Bidder shall be liable for the deficiency, if any, between the hammer price and the net proceeds of a sale to a subsequent purchaser, whether at auction or by private treaty, as well as for all costs and expenses of both sales, including all other charges due thereunder, including commissions with respect to both sales, whether payable to Kelleher or to a third party and all incidental damages. It shall be in Kelleher's sole discretion to determine whether to re-offer the lot theretofore hammered-down to a Non-Complying Bidder at the same auction, or by private treaty in due course, or at a subsequent auction conducted by Kelleher. In no event shall any surplus arising from the sale of a re-offered lot be payable to a Non-Complying Bidder.

(c) A defaulting purchaser shall be deemed to have granted Kelleher a security interest in property in Kelleher's possession owned by such purchaser. Kelleher shall have all of the rights afforded a purchase money secured party under the Connecticut Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) with respect to such property and may apply against such obligations all monies held or received by it for the account of, or due from Kelleher to such purchaser. Kelleher is authorized to file a Financing Statement in order to perfect its rights as a secured party.

(d) If Kelleher takes any legal steps to secure payment of a delinquent account, the defaulting purchaser shall be liable for all legal and other expenses incurred by Kelleher to secure such payment, including but not limited to a reasonable allowance for attorneys' fees. For purposes of this paragraph, the term legal steps shall be deemed to include any and all consultation by Kelleher with its attorneys with respect to all matters arising out of a delinquent account.
