Highlights of the Sale

- 61 Haiti, 1798 (Jan. 10), Headed auto-graphed letter from General Toussaint L'Ouverture, letter (185 x 234 mm) with printed heading "Au Cap le 21 Nivos l'an sixième de la République française, une et indivisible. Toussaint Louverture, Général en chef de l'Armée de Saint-Domingue", written order concerning the transfer of a soldier in the artillery, signed "Toussaint L'ouverture", Fine state of conservation, rare surviving document from the most important personage of the Haitian Revolution against the French.

Hammer Price $3,000

François-Dominique Toussaint L'Ouverture was born of African slave parents in Haiti and became a free man in 1777. In 1791, he joined the rebellion against the French and was made Commander-in-Chief of the Haitian insurgents. Although Saint-Domingue had become the most prosperous French slave colony during the late 18th century, it then was transformed into the first free colonial society to reject race as a social factor, with Toussaint L'Ouverture's push for independence in 1800. He was taken prisoner by the French in 1802, sent to France, and died there the following year. He is universally known as the "Father of Haiti".

- 216 P Honduras, 1925, Proof strike of "AERO CORREO" overprint on 1c Morazan Statue issue (Sanabria 1), a nicely centered example of this major Honduran Airmail rarity, T.C. Pound's Provisional Airmail—created April 29 in anticipation of the first Honduran Airmail flight on May 1; with original gum, though possessing some faults—notably a small pin-hole and creasing, etc.—all of which are largely irrelevant as this represents one of only four examples of this proof extant, as noted in the accompanying 1980 Friedl Expert Committee certificate (though we could find just two prior examples recorded); this item is listed in the 1972 Sanabria catalogue as "#1" with a catalogue value—then—of $6,500, Very Fine.

Highlights of the Sale

- 237 ★田 Honduras, 1932, 15c on 10c blue, on horizontally overprinted "OFICIAL" stamp of 1921 (Sanabria 117B), full pane of 25, a remarkable, wonderfully fresh pane offering full, clean original gum along with wonderfully fresh overall appearance; additionally, the second row of five shows the unrecorded variety with "1932" inverted; perforation separations along bottom row subsequent to the accompanying certificates, F.-V.F. and choice; with 1983 Friedl and Enzo Diena certificates.
Hammer Price $4,000

The only sheet extant, and one of the true showpiece items from a country that arguably boasts some of the world's premier Airmail items. The 1972 Sanabria catalogue values the sheet at $50,000, but that lofty figure does not include the five rare inverted "1932" errors, which undoubtedly are the only examples in existence.

- 274 ○ Peru, Postage Due, 1899, "Liberty", 10s dull violet (J35), fresh with neat, unobtrusive datestamp, Very Fine and choice, a splendid example of one of Peru's great rarities, Scott $1,700.
Hammer Price $2,100

- 340 ★田 Salvador, 1929, 20c deep green, red "Servicio Aéreo" overprint (C1a), block of 4, a simply magnificent example of this classic Airmail rarity, fresh and nicely centered with full, clean o.g.; just a suggestion of a single tiny perforation tip thin at bottom mentioned solely for accuracy, F.-V.F.+; with 1956 P.F. certificate, Scott $3,400.
Hammer Price $1,600

A major Airmail rarity, with only 100 examples printed and only a couple multiples recorded.
