Dear Sir :

I return to you herewith, along with my opinion, the stamps you sent for review by your letter of the 26th inst. My opinion; three forgeries.

My credit for fees and postage $2.50

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Tony and Fred:

I purchased four revenue stamps and enclose herewith a check for $1.00. Among seven stamps there is only one genuine, which unfortunately is damaged (large thin). The four stamps in upper row are "Sanko" which means reference and the two in lower row are "Mozo" which means imitation. Needless to say, these are not genuine stamps but were made as souvenir items many years ago. If you look under a magnifying glass, you can see the characters as shown below.
