1990 FIRST OF STATE COLORADO

DUCK STAMP PRINT & GOVERNOR'S WETLANDS RELIEF STAMP

BY ROBERT STEINER

COLORADO FIRST OF STATE * COLORADO FIRST OF STATE

THE ARTIST

Robert Steiner is one of the foremost wildlife artists in America. He has designed 15 state duck stamps – more than any other artist: 1990 Colorado “First of State”, 1990

Rhode Island, 1990 New Hampshire, 1990 Rhode Island “First of State”, 1989 New Hampshire, 1989 Arizona, 1989 California, 1988 New Hampshire, 1988 California, 1987 New Hampshire, 1987 California, 1986 Florida, 1985 Michigan, 1984 Nevada and 1981 California.

Mr. Steiner has exhibited at major museums, galleries and shows across the nation. He was chosen as the first “Artist of the Year” for the San Bernardino County Museum’s prestigious “Wildlife West Festival” and he was honored to be chosen as the artist for California Ducks Unlimited’s first sponsor print. His work has recently been featured in the new book Duck Stamps – Art in the Service of Conservation by Scott Weidensaul.

Due to his large and ever-growing following, all of Mr. Steiner’s previous duck stamp prints have appreciated considerably, as listed below for insurance purposes:

Tom Hirata's companion print features three Canada Geese coming into the scenic Colorado Platte River with the front range Colorado mountains in the background.

ABOUT THE ARTIST...Hirata received his art training from the Art Students League of New York. Tom decided to leave commercial art to paint full-time in 1983. Within a year his dramatic painting of a pair of canvasbacks was selected as the 1984 New Jersey First of State Duck Stamp. In a short time his impressive record of successes has earned him recognition and respect across the country. Two time winner of the North Carolina State Duck Stamp and the 1987 Tennessee State Duck Stamp; Ducks unlimited Artist of the Year for New Jersey and New York, he has recently been named Ducks Unlimited Artist of the year representing the North Atlantic Flyway. His work has been shown in several museums including the Smithsonian, the Denver Museum of Natural History, The Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum and the Philadelphia Academy of Art and Science. Deeply committed to maintaining and improving the environment, Tom is New Jersey's first Ducks Unlimited Grand Slam Life Sponsor. "I hope my involvement will help insure that future generations can share the limitless beauty of the wild, a resource that is so important and valuable to everyone".

Sarah Woods

Sarah Woods' colorful painting of Wood Ducks has been chosen by Colorado Ducks Unlimited as the winning design for the 1994 Colorado Duck Stamp and print. Revenues derived from the sale of these prints and stamps will be used to acquire and enhance wetlands for waterfowl habitat.

Enjoying Your Colorado Collection

Duck stamp and print collecting is a fascinating and rewarding hobby enjoyed by millions. Collecting waterfowl stamps and prints allows you to specialize, appreciate wonderful waterfowl art and contribute to the perpetuation of waterfowl populations - all at the same time. A fine collection of stamps and prints, when framed and hung on a wall, is a handsome conversation piece.

In general, stamp and print values have increased with time. Collectors especially value the Colorado stamps and prints due to fine quality designs. Because of the large number of Colorado waterfowlers, it is likely that Colorado stamps and prints will continue to be a sound investment. Collecting duck stamps and prints is inexpensive, educational, and rewarding, especially knowing that you have helped fund a waterfowl habitat project.

For more information on becoming a duck stamp and print collector, or to check the availability of past Colorado stamps and prints, please call or write your local dealer.
