FIRST TWO TIME WINNER

1986 WATERFOWL STAMP

by

Tom M. Crain

The HOODED MERGANSER

Free as the wind, this trio certainly is the king and queen of their own domain, whether in flight or under the water. Crowned with such splendor, in all their glory, they are truly another magnificent heritage of our great land.

This print, on 100% acid-free paper, in edition series of 1,000, is available with artist's proof.

TOM CRAIN'S imagination and skill is demonstrated in his acrylic paintings, unique in style and rich in realism. Today, TOM CRAIN is one of the nation's top award-winning wildlife artists. Some of his most prestigious awards include: the 1981-82 Missouri Waterfowl Stamp; the 1983 Delaware Trout Stamp; the 1984 Indiana Trout Stamp; and the 1986 Missouri Waterfowl Stamp. Since 1979, the Missouri Waterfowl Stamp has been a collector's item. TOM CRAIN is the first TWO TIME WINNER of the waterfowl competition in the State of Missouri, which makes ALL of his winning prints more notable and in much higher demand.

TOM'S crisp, yet subtle style, with careful attention to detail, adds much to the realism which wildlife enthusiasts highly esteem. This reverent man says he feels it is a privilege to paint what God has created. Tom adds, "I am truly grateful for the talent He has given me."

RON FERKOL

ABOUT THE PRINT AND PROGRAM: Ron Ferkol was selected the winner of the 1987 Missouri Waterfowl Hunting Stamp Design Competition. His winning design was an impressive original acrylic painting of two pintails at rest on one of Missouri's numerous lakes. The 1987 Missouri Duck Stamp Print will be a signed and numbered limited edition of 1000 prints. Revenues raised by the sale of the stamp will be used to manage Missouri's waterfowl resources. The State Conservation Dept. reports that last year's Mingo Refuge project is complete for the most part. Work on habitat development in conjunction with D.U. and MARSH funds will include work on the Grand Passage Wildlife areas along the Missouri.

ABOUT THE ARTIST: Ron Ferkol, wildlife artist with a lot of natural talent has won both state contests. Besides winning the 1987 Missouri Duck Stamp Contest, he has just won the 1988 Missouri Trout Contest. Ron spent his youth in the beautiful Missouri Ozarks. His love of the outdoors enables him to study nature and also to hunt and fish when time permits. He attributes his success to many hours of research and hard work as well as natural talent. A self-taught artist, Ron's ability for detail and color contrast, enhances the realism of his artwork. Ron's involvement in the Missouri competitions has won him Honorable Mention in 1983, 1984 and 1986. He lives in Gerald, Missouri with his wife, Karen.

SPECIAL COLLECTORS SET: Matching number sets of the 1987 Missouri Duck Stamp Print and the 1988 Missouri Trout Stamp Print will be available to customers after Oct. '87. Quantity will be limited to approximately 50 sets.
