U.S. Marine in Peking

1938 (Aug 12) to San Diego, CA

With the attack of the Japanese Army on Shanghai in July 1932, the U.S. dispatched the Marines to Peking, Tientsin and Shanghai to protect Americans and the U.S. Embassy. They had their own postal service and postal markings.

CUBA

U.S. Naval Base in Guantanamo Bay

1939 (Dec 1) to West Roxbury, MA

U.S. Naval Base Guantanamo Bay, located on the southeast corner of Cuba, is the oldest U.S. base overseas and the only base in a communist country.
In 1903, Cuba leased Guantanamo Bay to the U.S. Two nations signed a treaty giving the U.S. the right to establish a naval base on the bay. Today the naval base is still active.
