Star-spangled Banner

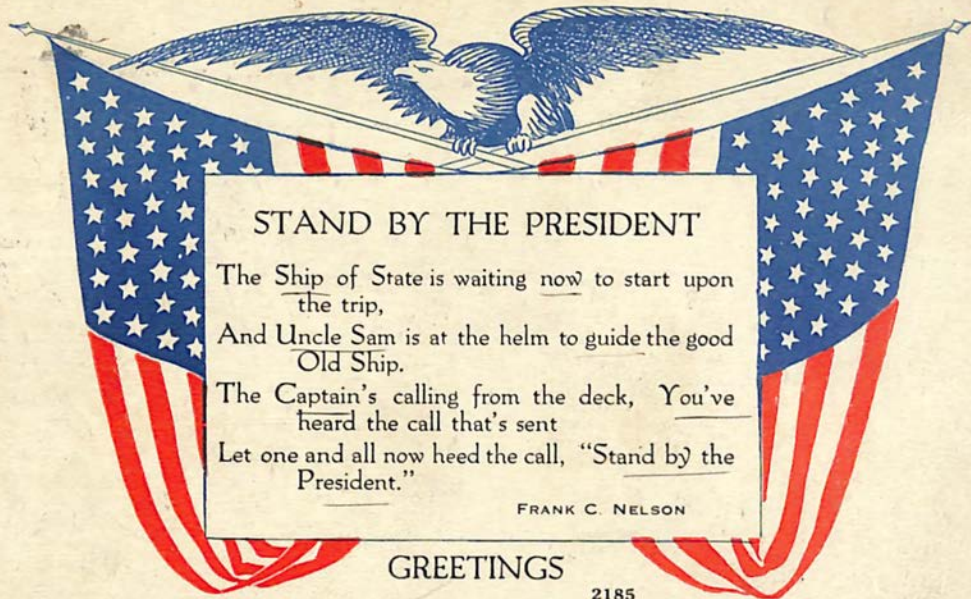

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
Where so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming!
Whose broad Stripes and bright Stars thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, the shells bursting in air!
Gave proof thro' the night that our Flag still was there.
Oh! say does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

PLEASANT MEMORIES

Here's to the one that holds me true
 While Duty calls
 and wrongs are righted,
 For Liberty and Love shall win
 And in the end we'll be united.

Dear flag of our country, whose stars and whose bars
 Call all her sons to defend her;
 God help us to be true to the red, white and blue,
 Her principles never surrender.

Victory Greetings

LIGHT THE WAY HOME

To serve these Flags you marched away,
 To fight for truth and
 liberty:
 So may they light the victor's
 way,
 And bring my Soldier
 back to me.

THINKING OF YOU

LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US,
 FOOTSTEPS ON THE SANDS OF TIME,
 HELLO CENTRAL, GIVE ME HEAVEN, SHOOT A NICKEL, SHOOT A DIME,
 THE FLOWERS MUST FADE--THE LEAVES MUST FALL, OH, SWEET VERBENA DIPPED IN DEW;
 BUT WOTHAHELL AND DAMMITALL--HOW ARE YOU?

Thoughts of love
and memory dear
Keep our hearts
full of cheer.

We never know how dear friends are
 Until they're far away,
 And we recall with memory clear
 Some happy by-gone day.

Round the camp-fire's
 ruddy glow
 Scenes of Home-life
 come and go.

In the quiet of the night,
Home, Sweet Home
gleams clear and bright.

Off at night I fancy I can see A dear form walking close beside
And whispering love to me.

I'll go over the top
for him any old time.

If dreams would only
just come true,
Then, sweetheart dear,
I'd be with you.

There is a face I seem to see
Through all our Duty's call,
And that is yours,
my dearest one,
Just yours and that is all.

1362

A letter from you
with good news and cheer
Makes Duty seem lighter and home-coming near.

A letter from one so far away
Makes the outlook Brighter,
Clears the way and cheers the day
And makes our Tasks the lighter.
