West Point June the 30th

Dear Ma

I it is with great pleasure that I inform you of our safe arrival at Irene for we found the family and Mary Brothers all enjoying that inestimable blessing good health Jemmies not I is broke out with sores but not very bad I went with Ned yesterday he went Jones one he a delightfull ride on ole pap her family is quite well there is a great deal of sickness here now Mrs Walker was buried this morning and Mrs Carrier is sick one Mr Goorich one of her Children the Child died with the flux and her with the cholera Mrs Latherey is very low they donot think she can possibly last more than five days longer if she is still alive I have not heard since 1 oclock to day there is a lady at Mrs Mosbys very sick she sent to Louisville to day for Dr Jackson she is Mrs Bruce I am very much pleased We have caught some fine fish to day we got here at 10 oclock saturday night Mr Young took us off at his house and sent us out here on a horse Mrs King from Cloverport is here again she intends spending the sickly season our relation are all well uncle Hugh and aunt Nancy was here last week they were well I will close my letter with Mrs Tabors remark

I seek the fairest shadowy dell
The blue eyed violets bow
And the bye path in the green old wood
Where once you love to roam.

I wander to the cliffs so dear
For up the mountains side
Where thy eyes first the vows of love
And won the for a bride

Sa write to me soon I will look for a letter for me and I will be very much disappointed if you do not write Tell Pa and Sally is no letter round is well and Toby was here yesterday
I Love devotee Son Thomas Pilbrook

NEW PENSION LAW.

DISABILITY AND DEPENDENT PENSIO

NO FEE UNLESS SUCCESSFUL!

J. B CRALLÉ & CO.,

U. S. Pension Attorneys,

CRALLÉ BUILDING,

108 C Street, N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C.

PENSIONS.—All soldiers and sailors of the late war who served 90 days or more and were honorably discharged and who are disabled to any extent for the performance of manual labor whether their disabilities were incurred in the service or since discharge are now entitled to pension under the act of June 1890.

WIDOWS.—Under the New Law the widow of any deceased soldier or sailor of the late war of the rebellion is entitled to pension regardless of the cause of death of husband provided she is dependent upon her own labor for support

MOTHERS AND FATHERS need only show present dependence under the new law to be entitled to pension.

☞ We have successfully prosecuted thousands of pension claims and our long and successful experience as practitioners before the Government Bureaus, and location at the Capital gives us unsurpassed facilities for the speedy and successful prosecution of soldiers claims.

References Furnished to all who Desire them.

NO FEE UNLESS SUCCESSFUL.

☞ Thousands entitled under the New Law. Do not Delay in Applying. Delays are Dangerous!
