and the subsequent death of his Uncle have deprived of the aid either or both would have given to him in his entrance upon the trials of life. His education has been carefully directed by his very estimable Mother, and he will offer evidence of his attainments and good character from the principal of the Pa. Cal. Institute.

Assured that he will make a valuable officer I earnestly commend him to the consideration of the Executive. Very truly y^{rs}.

Lot #77: Jefferson Davis- Letter of Recommendation for the Marines

Dear Valued Collector,

One Of A Kind Collectibles Letter Of Authenticity:

Jefferson Davis (1808-1889). Sole President of the Confederate States of America (1861-1865). ALS as US Senator from Mississippi (1857-1861). 2pp. Dated January 20, 1858, from the Senate Chamber, signed Jeffn. Davis. Addressed to Hon. I. Toucey, Secretary of the Navy. A letter in which Davis introduces A.S. Worth and recommends the young man as an applicant for a lieutenancy in the US Marines. Davis identifies Worth as the son of US Naval Officer Algernon S. Worth and nephew to famed General William J. Worth.
