C. Y. Thomas Esq
Attorney at Law

Inv-6661 Nottoway C.H. Va July 3 1861 Chg (box) W H M (no rate), all in manuscript, addressed to "C. Y. Thomas, Esq., Richmond, Va." C. Y. Thomas was a man of more than ordinary distinction in Virginia, an attorney of ability who served in the Virginia senate before the War and struggled in vain against secession. Despite this, he held the office of commonwealth attorney during the War and was appointed by the Confederacy to distribute supplies to the needy families of Confederate soldiers. Ex-Tobias. $150.
