Stamp Auction Sales

I expect to hold Stamp Auctions every once and a while this winter, and if you are interested, better send for a Catalogue. But don't expect them unless you have sent me a request.

If you have sent for them before, don't pay any attention to this.

Yours truly,

E. H. GAMMANS, Jr.

Back in 1929, many postmasters started a vogue of fancy cancels, mostly to get collectors to send in covers for postmarking so that they could increase their business done. The Post Office soon stopped it. This is an example of it. A book has been written on these with illustrations but I don't have a copy but I believe it does list this one with the name of the town which used it.

On registered covers, they are very popular and worth up to several dollars each but off cover their value is relatively little.

Glad to oblige.
