POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT 1930 ANNOUNCEMENT

SULLIVAN EXPEDITION COMMEMORATIVE STAMP

THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL,
Washington, May 29, 1929.

Postmasters and employees of the Postal Service are notified that the department is preparing to issue a special 2-cent postage stamp to commemorate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Sullivan expedition in New York State during the Revolutionary War. The new stamp is the same size as the regular issue, $7\frac{1}{100}$ by $8\frac{7}{100}$ inch, and is printed in red ink.

The central design is a three-fourths length portrait of Major General Sullivan in continental uniform over which in a semicircular panel appear the words "United States Postage" in white Roman letters, on a dark background with white edges. This panel is supported on either side by brackets of scroll work forming the upper part of a narrow panel and ending at the base in dark circles with white borders. Within the circles in each lower corner appears the numeral 2 in white Roman letters. Across the top of the stamp is a ribbon bearing the title "Sullivan Expedition" in dark architectural Roman letters. Below, in similar lettering, on either side on extensions of the ribbon panel are the dates 1779 at the left and 1929 at the right. A dark panel with white edges bearing the word "Cents" in white Roman letters connects the circles inclosing the denomination numerals. Above this base in a ribbon panel appears the wording "Maj. Gen. Sullivan" in dark Gothic letters. The entire stamp is inclosed in a narrow white border.

The new Sullivan expedition commemorative stamp will first be placed on sale June 17, 1929, at the post offices of Auburn, N. Y.; Binghamton, N. Y.; Canandaigua, N. Y.; Canajoharie, N. Y.; Elmira, N. Y.; Geneseo, N. Y.; Geneva, N. Y.; Horseheads, N. Y.; Owego, N. Y.; Penn Yan, N. Y.; Perry, N. Y.; Seneca Falls, N. Y.; Waterloo, N. Y.; Watkins Glen, N. Y.; Waverly, N. Y. The stamp will be placed on sale at other post offices and the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., as soon thereafter as production permits.

Postmasters at direct and central accounting post offices may submit requisition to the department for a limited supply of this stamp, using Form 3201 indorsed across the face "Sullivan Expedition Stamps." Postmasters at district post offices may submit requisition on Form 3338 to their central accounting postmasters for a small quantity as required to meet the local demand.

R. S. REGAR,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL

Washington February 21, 1930.

Mr. Henry S. Parsons,
30 Elm Street,
Great Neck, L. I., N. Y.

My dear Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of February 15,
relative to the Sullivan Expedition commemorative stamp.

The portrait of Major General Sullivan in continental uniform, used as the subject for this stamp, was engraved from a photograph of a picture in possession of his family.
The photograph shows he is holding a spear in his right hand,
the head of which could not be reproduced in the limited space available on the stamp.

A printed circular containing a further description of the Sullivan commemorative stamp is inclosed, herewith, for your information.

Very truly yours,

F. A. Tilton,
Third Assistant Postmaster General

MODEL FOR STAMP VIGNETTE

The central design, or vignette, of the Sullivan commemorative portrays Major General Sullivan in Continental uniform and was engraved from a photograph, shown below, of a painting in possession of his family. The faintly legible printing below the figure of Gen. Sullivan states:

Maj. Gen. John Sullivan

From painting in possession of his family

The tip of the spear in Gen Sullivan's right hand is also faintly visible in the photograph.
