FORGERIES

UNLISTED FORGERY cont'd

The overprint "FAUX" on this forgery, of course, classifies it directly, but a few details are here given in case it exists without the overprint. The profile of the face runs into the background like the genuine. There are four distinct lines on the forehead and a broken fifth at the top. Of the lines on the neck, the thirteenth is the first that touches the folds of the head-dress; the under part, where the neck is cut off, is invisible, and the point is cut off by the outline of the shield, as in the genuine; there is no faint line across the top of the shield. The white, and a large pupil of the eye can be seen. The top cannon-ball of the right heap is shaded by a thick dash; the others by thick, well shaped crescents. The two outside balls of the other heap, (bottom row) are shaded by large dots, the others, by crescents. The numerals are exactly four-mm. high. The paper is thin and pale buff.

IMPRESSION OF FORGED CANCELLATION.

MY THIRD FORGERY - UNLISTED BY LARÉE

Lithographed on thick, smooth surfaced cream, wove paper, imperf. and perf. 14. Like countless others, this last robbed the Govt., as intended. The point of neck is far from the circle.

Perf. 14.
Postmark: Genuine.
