"MINYANS" FOR RUSSIA

Our synagogue is joining synagogues across the nation in a program of direct help to Russian Jews and their families left destitute by Soviet authorities for asking permission to emigrate to Israel. Some are punished with lengthy sentences in slave and criminal labor camps for "crimes" of teaching Hebrew or possessing a Russian-Hebrew dictionary!

Not too long ago personal contact with a Russian Jew was considered a dangerous exposure to retaliation by the authorities. Now, the opposite is true. Thousands of courageous Russian Jews have openly declared their Jewishness by filing for emigration visas. Direct personal contact, by letter-writing, indicates to Russian authorities that their treatment of Russian Jews is no longer hidden from the outside world -- and those who have already arrived in Israel tell us this one-to-one contact is considered "protection" and gives hope and courage to those who wait.

I will join a "Minyan" with ten Beth Jacob families and will send $10 every two months to the synagogue's Minyan Fund for Russian Jews.*

I will accept the responsibility of writing a personal letter to a Russian family every two months. I understand that I will be given the name of my "adopted" family and guidelines for correspondence. I will especially send greetings at holiday-times, particularly Rosh Hashonah, Chanukah, Purim, Pesach.

I will send $10 every two months to the Minyan Fund and I will accept the responsibility of writing a personal letter to a Russian family every two months.

*Every $100 received from each Beth Jacob "Minyan" will be exchanged for 43 coupons costing $2.35 each, by arrangement with a Swiss bank. Coupons are redeemable by the recipient for merchandise in "Dollar" stores (long established in major Russian cities for tourist convenience.) Coupons are redeemed at five times their value in rubles. The family receives $1.87 clear on every $2.35 coupon, (with $.48 deducted for handling charges and entry tax.) The entire transaction is completely legitimate in the Soviet Union. The coupons are insured and are received in good order.
