"Light Sky" Variety of the PHEASANT Booklet Stamps

1988

The "Ring-necked Pheasant" booklet was the first one made by a security printer other than the BEP, viz: the ABNC (American Bank Note Company).

The stamps were released April 29, 1988, with the sky being a blend of blue and red photogravure color dots, resulting in a somewhat deep blue sky (Plates A 1111). The USPS suggested that, when printing further batches, ABNC rather "back off a little on the blue". ABNC followed suit and entirely eliminated the red in the sky of the stamp.

That created the "Light Sky" variety (Plates A 3111 & A 3222), with October 31, 1988, as the earliest known date of use.

1989.11.27 - Classic Mail Transportation Souvenir Sheet

20th Universal Postal Congress

A review of historical methods of delivering the mail in the United States is the theme of these four stamps issued in commemoration of the convening of the 20th Universal Postal Congress in Washington, D.C. from November 13 through December 14, 1989. The United States, as host nation to the Congress for the first time in ninety-two years, welcomed more than 1,000 delegates from most of the member nations of the Universal Postal Union to the major international event.

1994.5.5 — Definitive Stamp — SVS printed

Based upon John Trumbull's 1824 painting "The Surrender of (British) Gen. John BURGOYNE to (American) Gen. Horatio GATES, north of SARATOGA Springs on Oct. 17, 1777".

The original design had been engraved in 1869 as a 30c value, but was not used. For actual uses of the design see the 2c issue (Sc. 644/SG 647/Mi. 308), 13c (Sc. 1728/SG 1702/Mi. 1314) and now $1 (Sc. 2590/SG 2900/Mi. 2455).

1994.11.3: Honoring 100 years of U.S. stamp printing at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP)
The selvage area of the souvenir sheet features an engraved image of the original home of the BEP, a red brick building at the corner of the 14th Street and Independence Avenue in Washington, D.C.

James Madison (1751-1836), fourth U.S. President 1809-1817, based on the design of the $2 definitive stamp issued on Dec. 10, 1894 (see Sc. 262 / SG 265 / Mi. 100)

First U.S. President 1789-1797

Andrew Jackson (1767-1845)
Seventh U.S. President 1829-1837

It is speculated that the original design, a 3-cent stamp, was prepared by one of the security printing firms interested in bidding on the 1869 U.S. stamp printing contract.
