Dear M.
I suppose you will think I don't write often enough but I never seem to have time for anything. I will send you some pretty P.C.'s soon do you like views best or would you like some others as well. I will soon have a nice little collection of views. Hoping you are all well as it has been so hot here lately. Yours truly

Many thanks for the very pretty card you sent me you must have taken pretty good care of it. I have slipped a bit longer up at the Richmond Sanatorium about taking a bit of the long shilly but not while the sun is bright. But your letter has been in the "shilly" and you will be in the "shilly" when you are coming home. I have not seen your card lately. I hope you are well.
