

Previously Unrecorded Alexandria (B) Civil Cancellation
Used In Conjunction With Forces Mail

Black retta.

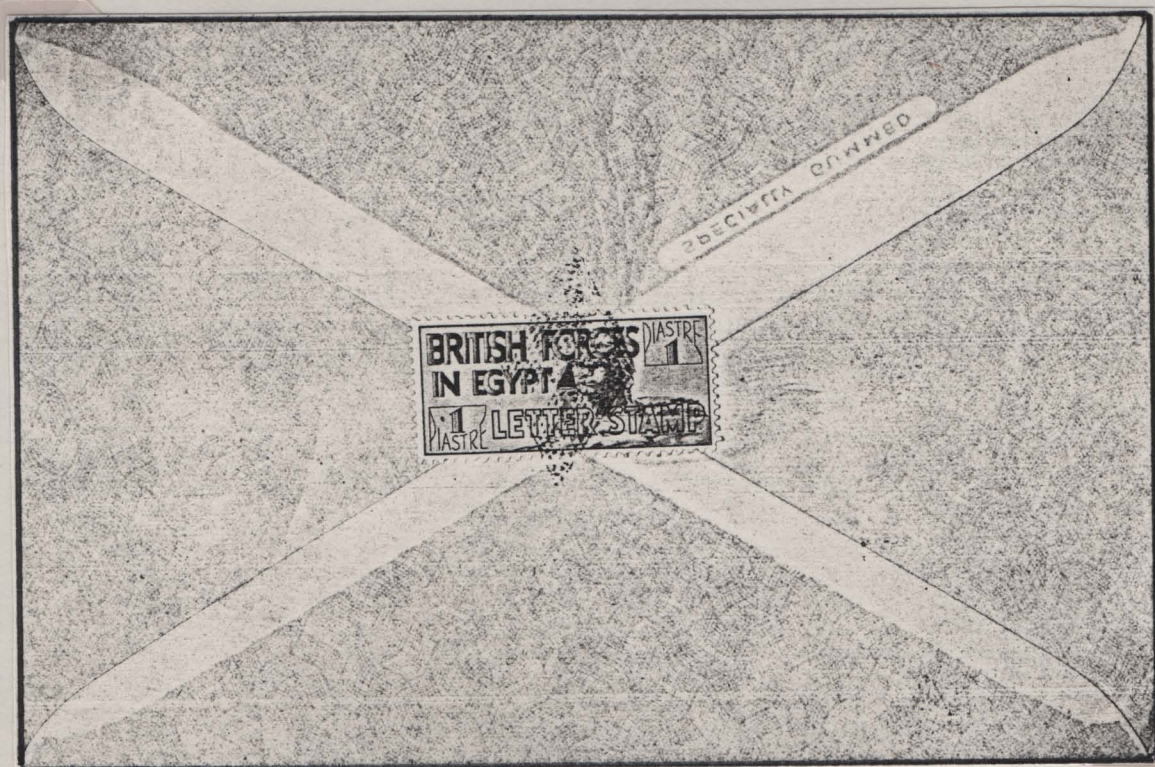

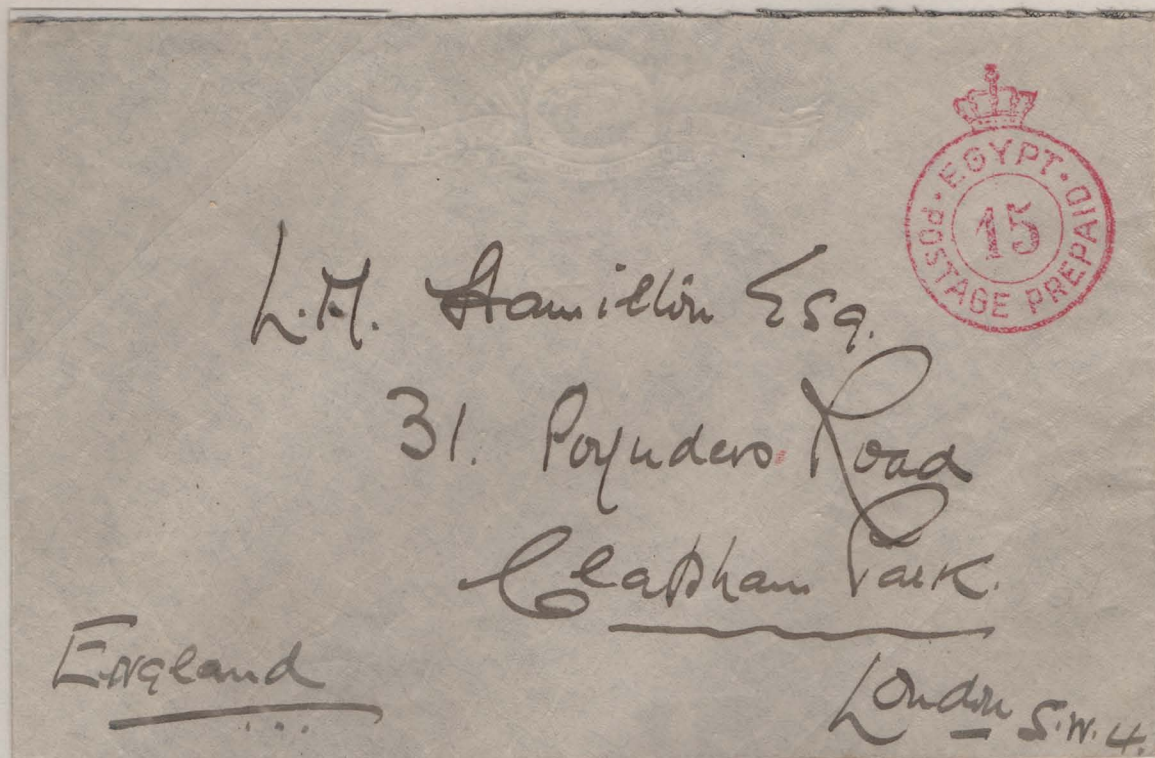

On front, red Numeral 13 frank and black civil post office cancellation at Abu Qir dated February 27, 1936.

The upper Alexandria civil cancellation on back is known used on British Forces mail; however, the lower Alexandria (B) cancellation has not been seen previously on this type of postal history.

The adhesive is of the perforation variety shown earlier in the exhibit.

Absence Of Military Post Office Cancellation

Unusual Military Post Office Cancellation
The Alexandria Barrel

Exceptionally clear strike of retta.
On front, clear strikes of Numeral 18 frank and the unusual
Alexandria Barrel military post office cancellation dated November 11, 1935.

The Alexandria Barrel cancellation is very uncommonly found on military mail of this period, the cancellation being more typically found used during World War I.

Perforation Variety

Stamp shows extra perforation at top resulting from inversion of sheet when the printed sheet was perforated.

Exceptionally uncommon perforation variety. <sup>No</sup><sub>1</sub>

For comparative purposes, a stamp showing the normal perforation has been mounted near the variety.
