BRITISH COLUMBIA
CENTENNIAL
1858 1958
25¢ LAW STAMP 25¢

The rarest of the good British Columbia Centenary stamps, the 25¢ value.

Only 5,500 were issued, as due to changes in fees charged, the 25¢ value was no longer needed. Few have come on the market and retail for mint or used can be anything up to $50.00 for a single stamp, except it can take years now to run down a single!

Multiples are rare, a complete sheet is unheard of now. I got the enclosed from Dr. Pearce.

A fine item to put away.

B.C. 23. The 25¢ complete sheet.

All early B.C. are most rare unused and very few indeed would also have gum. Here we have a 1912 complete sheet!

Incidentally this 5th issue has a most interesting situation. There apparently are 2 sets to this issue; the first as printed from the original die and the second as printed from a retouched die.

This die on the original drawing has the vertical lines behind the justice figure open at the bottom. For later printings the drawing was retouched by drawing a line along the entire bottom of the upper section (the value tablet is the other section). Main effect is that in Die II printings there are 2 lines under the pedestal. Enclosed sheet is from the Die II printings.
