CHICAGO PAPER MONEY EXPO

Rosemont, Illinois

February 23–25, 1996

The 1996 Chicago Paper Money Expo proudly issues this official limited edition souvenir card to commemorate their second anniversary.

The eagle and $500 denomination counter vignettes reproduced on this card are intaglio printed from engraved steel dies.

These two engravings illustrate the timeless art and beauty of the intaglio craft which is used to produce security fiduciary documents throughout the world.

THIRTEENTH BIENNIAL BANQUET OF THE

International Association of Siderographers

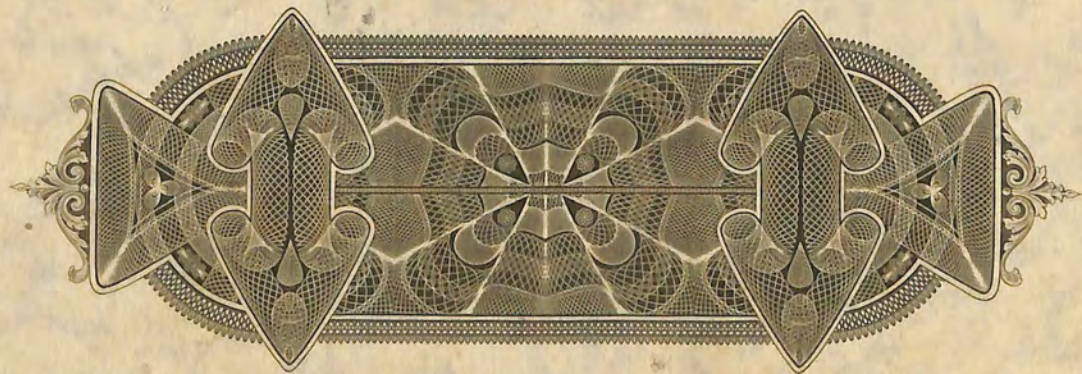

TO THE

NATIONAL OFFICERS, DELEGATES AND MEMBERSHIP AT LARGE

ELMER ALPIN NEW YORK CITY, N.Y.

SEPTEMBER 5TH 1931

Whereas, there has been exhibited by thought, word and deed, an intense and abiding interest, affection and devotion for the Brooklyn Bridge.

And Whereas, the Brooklyn Bridge dramatically serves to remind the world of the vitality, boldness, ingenuity and practicality of the American people in general and the people of the City of New York in particular.

And Whereas, the Brooklyn Bridge shall be better able to continue, through the generous consideration of our special friends, to serve the communities and people of Brooklyn and Manhattan in particular and the Nation in general.

Be It Known Therefore, that on this, the 100th

Anniversary of the opening of the

BROOKLYN BRIDGE

heretofore and for all time to be known as Rededication Day, this twenty-fourth day of May, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-three, there has been caused to be executed, for and by The 1983 Brooklyn Bridge Centennial Commission, Inc., this Commemorative, one of a limited series of one thousand, as a symbol of appreciation to
