May 15th 1862

my dear wife I received your kind letter last night and was very glad to hear from you and to know that you are well it is with the greatest feeling that I attempt to answer your letter I am well and happy but I can't say that I feel well for I am homesick and I might say homesick you don't know how I want to see you but I don't think I shall have to fight any more the time has all most come when the war will close we men
