

UNITED STATES

1938

This series of 32 ordinary postage stamps, ranging in value from 1/2-cent to $5, replaces that known as the issue of 1922-23. Featured in the simple, effective designs are likenesses of all presidents from George Washington to Calvin Coolidge. They are arranged in order of tenure, interrupted by three non-presidential personalities: Benjamin Franklin on the 1/2-cent value, Martha Washington on the 1-1/2-cent and a view of the White House on the 4-1/2-cent stamp. The artwork for each of the presidential portraits is based on a bust, statue or relief likeness on a medal.
