THEY WILL NEVER BE CATALOGUED

These stamps were ordered by the Ecuador Government from Barcelona, Spain in 1936. They could not be delivered because of the Civil War in Spain. In 1939, when they could be delivered, another Government was in power and they said they would take them if 1939 was overprinted on the 1936. By the time this was done, there were two changes in the Government, and those in power said they would not have them, so the poor printer was left in 1960, his estate who bought the entire philatelic example of issue of postage stamps. When the printer died he had a man on the spot so preserved them as a collection can alter even an
