Dear M.
I suppose you will think I don't write often enough but I never seem to have time for anything. I will send you some pretty P.C.'s soon do you like views best or would you like some others as well. I will soon have a nice little collection of views. Hoping you are all well as it has been so hot here charming and very hot weather here.

Many thanks for the very pretty card you sent me you must have taken pretty good care of it have stitched a bit longer up at the Richmond farm thinking about taking a trip up the river shortly but not while the grass is so rough but your letter has been so interesting I'll send it to you when you are coming home I have not seen your card
