Some facts about
Wedgwood

VERVALSING 2nd Class (Type:QUESTA)

Wellicht heeft u over deze zegels gelezen, maar nooit gezien.
In Juni 1994 werden ze voor het eerst aangeboden aan enkele
Londense handelaren. Uitsluitend in boekjes van 10 zegels.
Verzamelaars en handelaren konden ze nergens anders vinden.
Na een maand of twee bleek dat het om vervalsingen ging.
Verkoop door postzegelhandelaren werd door Royal Mail verboden en rest voorraden in beslag genomen.
De vraag naar deze zegels is groot want in 1994 waren ze amper twee maanden te koop.

The foundation of Sydney was marked by the issue, in 1789, of the Sydney Cove medallion. This included some Australian clay brought back from Botany Bay by Captain James Cook in the Endeavour.

Early Jasper vases were often made in sets, to form a gariture de cheminée. Such vases were particularly admired by late 19th century

The Royal Mint and America

Although some British coin found its way across the Atlantic, only one special coinage was undertaken by the Royal Mint for the American colonies during the eighteenth century. This was an issue of copper halfpennies for the Colony of Virginia in 1773, shortly before

Maundy Money

Each year the Royal Mint strikes small silver 1p, 2p, 5p, and 1p pieces for the Royal Maundy. The 1p is the smallest coin made by the Royal Mint.

The purses containing the coins are distributed by the Queen on Maundy Thursday to as many elderly men and as many elderly women as there are years in her age.

The Ceremony is based on Our Lord's act of humility when, after the Last Supper he washed the feet of His Disciples. The striking of special coins for the ceremony continues a tradition which began more than 500 years ago, and Maundy Money is eagerly sought by collectors throughout the world.
