COMMEMORATING
THE CAPTURE OF JERUSALEM

B.W. Kumler
19 W. Washington St.
Kensington, Md.
U.S.A.

The above arrangements were put into operation. Stocks of K.K.L. stamps were taken to the main post offices in Haifa and Tel Aviv and by means of rubber stamps (16 rubber stamps were used in Tel Aviv, two in Haifa and one in Kiryat Motzkin) distinctive overprints were applied from different colour inking pads (red, violet and black—the Haifa and Kiryat Motzkin overprints were in black only) by post office officials, aided in many cases by juvenile labour, mostly school pupils. The employment of this juvenile and inexperienced labour, who were mostly youngsters below the services' calling-up age, resulted in large numbers of varieties being found in the overprints.

These overprints are illustrated in Figs. (1) and (2). In addition, a slightly larger version of the Haifa overprint (the circle measures 20 mm. in diameter instead of the normal Haifa circle of 17.5 mm.) was used in Kiryat Motzkin, a limited number of stamps (Fig. 2a).

Owing to the isolation of Jerusalem it was not possible to deliver stamps as used in Haifa and Tel Aviv. Instead the local K.K.L. office supplied stocks of the latest issue of propaganda stamps, depicting the map of Israel with boundaries as approved by U.N.O. These were printed in various colours and had the overprints typographed. These stamps were on sale till as late as 20th June, 1948, until the new Doar Ivri stamps were brought into the town. The demand for them was so great that three distinctive issues were made.

Various other localities, also cut off from the rest of the country, improvised with the facilities available, and hence enriched the philatelic history of the Holy Land with stamps as described later on in the text.

Regarding the provisional postmark, this appears to have been generally used, and in all, 80 post offices have been listed as having been provided with this Minhelet Ha'am postmark (Fig. 3).

The story of the postal history of the Holy Land cannot be completely reference is not made to other means and methods of postal conveyance that were used prior to the issue of the first Israel stamp.

Months before the Mandate was terminated disturbances were breaking out in various parts of the country. Communications were often disrupted and letters were sent by various means other than those normally recognised and used. Reference will be made in the text to armoured cars, a taxi-mail services were operated, and private messengers were used.

At the close of 1947, the Hagana had organised their own postal service and various types of cachets were used until the time the Hagana was merged into the Israel Army proper.

The following cachets are known :

Chief of Staff	...	Haifa
Town Commander	...	Haifa
"	"	Tel Aviv
"	"	Jerusalem
"	"	Safad
"	"	Negev

Some mail was also despatched when the appropriate stamps were not available with unoverprinted J.N.F. stamps. These were postmarked by the postal authorities prior to despatch.

Other J.N.F. stamps were overprinted "Doar" but were issued for postal use without charge. The stamps so used are known as "Favours".

In addition to J.N.F. stamps, the Jewish Agency's revenue stamps (Kofei Hayishuv) and mandatory stamps were used until the 3rd of May, when the Jewish National Authority ordered the use of J.N.F. propaganda stamps overprinted "Post" in Hebrew.

It was estimated that the total value of the Tel Aviv overprinted stamps was 8,000 Israeli pounds, and of the Haifa overprint about 2,500 Israeli pounds.

1940 construction and defense series imperfectorated.

UNITED STATES ARMY POST OFFICES IN PALESTINE DURING WORLD WAR II

During World War II, there were in operation more than 1,200 U.S. Army Post Offices located in all parts of the world, all of them engaged in but one purpose - to help in winning the war.

general area for protection against enemy craft who might want to knock out those air fields. The bomber squadrons, of course, were used for long range offensive operations.

Postally some of the covers from that area were quite easy to obtain shortly after the war ended. But there have been a few APO's which have always been elusive and difficult to find. Amongst the latter group are the APO's which were mailed from Palestine, which are classed as gems by APO collectors. The reason for the scarcity of these covers is that there was a small force of service men located in these APO's. Therefore, very few such covers have showed up or have been found by collectors.

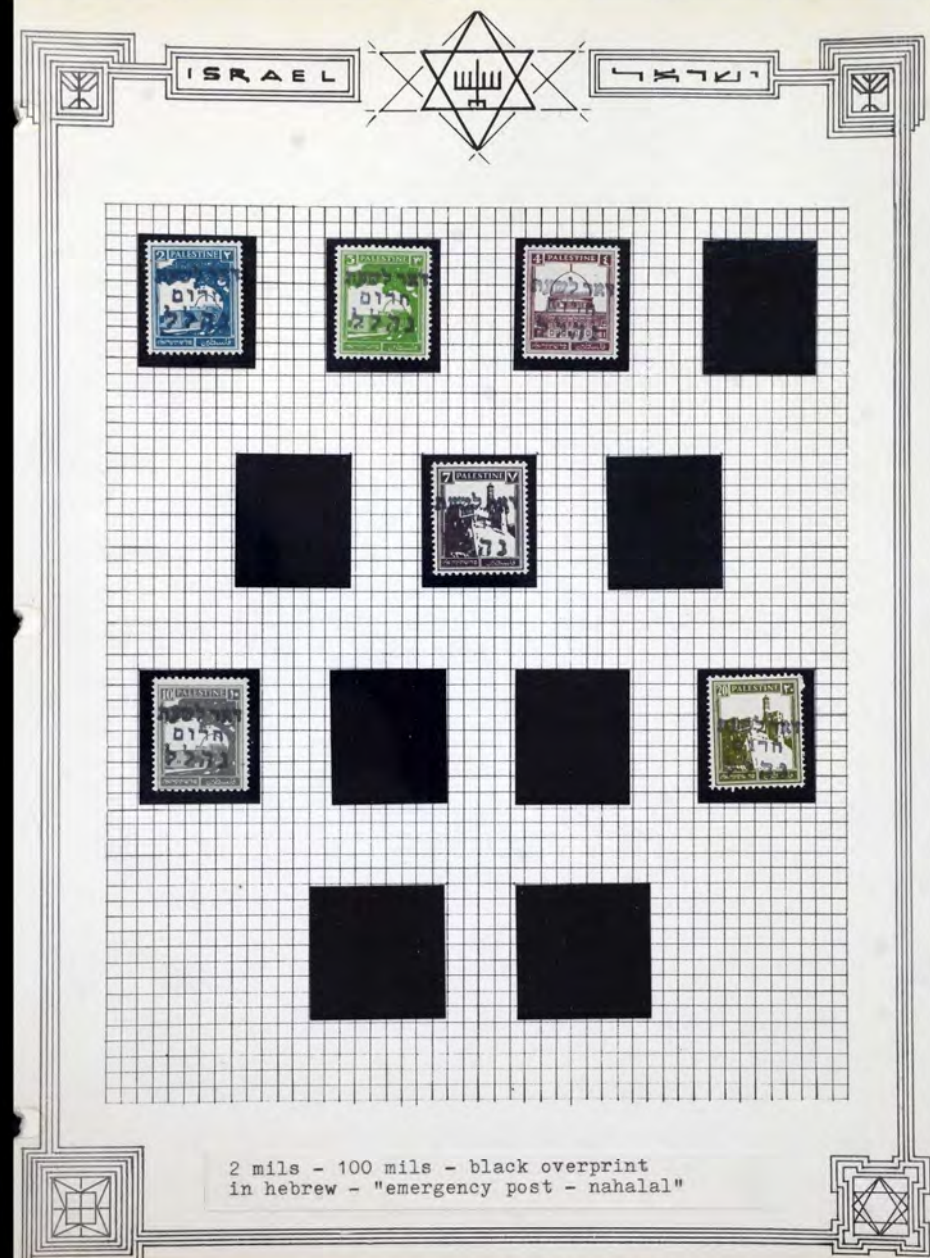

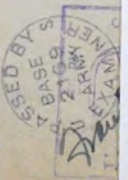

Cover collectors during the war would send their covers to the different APO's for the individual APO postmark. The War Department however, frowned on this practice. Security precautions were
