INSIDE BASEBALL

Billy played the entire '52 Series with a bad knee injury.

In the 6th game—7th inning the Brooks had 3 on. A tricky pop up looked like a hit!

But Billy used his last bit of strength, made a great catch, saving the game and series for the Yanks!

Of the 3,000-plus games in which Stan Musial played, some stand out above the others. There was the day he pumped out five hits in a game for the fourth time in one season, the afternoon when he socked a record five home runs in a double-header and the day in Chicago when he joined the elite 3,000-hit class. The box scores of these and other memorable games in The Man's fabulous baseball career follow:
