

— No. 211 —

LEWIS (HACK) WILSON

BROOKLYN DODGERS

One of the hardest hitters in the National League. In 1930 lead the league in home run hitting, with 36 round trippers. His batting average for that year was .356 in 155 games.

Wilson was born in Elwood City, Pa., in 1900. He began his professional career with Martinsburg in the Blue Ridge League in 1921, batting .356. Two years later, he led the Virginia League in batting. Joined the Cubs in 1926 and in 1932 was traded to Brooklyn. Last year, playing with Brooklyn, hit .297 in 155 games.

He is 5 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs 185 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 49 —

FRANK FRISCH

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Called the Fordham Flash because of his speed. Plays second base for the St. Louis Cardinals. A great fielder, a fine batter and one of the leading base runners.

He played 8 years with the Giants and is now in his seventh season with the Cardinals. Frisch took part in seven world series.

He was born in New York City, September 9, 1898. Is five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. He bats right and left-handed, but throws right-handed. Batted last year .292 in 115 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 56 —

CHARLIE RUFFING

NEW YORK YANKEES

The strike out king of the American League last year, sending back 190 batters. Has plenty of speed and knows how to use it. Won 18 games and lost 7 with the World Champions in 1932. Also captured one game in the world series that Fall.

Ruffing was born in Granville, Ill., in 1904. Is a right-handed pitcher, 6 ft. tall and weighs 210 lbs.

Joined the professional ranks with Danville in the 3 I League in 1923. Was bought by Boston the next year. Was traded to the Yankees in 1930.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 38 —

FRANK HOGAN

BOSTON BRAVES

Here's big Frank Hogan, catcher of the Boston Braves. He's a hard hitter, when he lands on the ball.

"Shanty" got his first baseball uniform when he was 10 years old. He was pitching for a school team in Cambridge, Mass. He started in baseball and football at Somerville, Mass. High School and was signed by the Braves in 1925. He was traded to New York in 1928, but went back to the Braves last Winter. He's 27 years old, a six-footer and moves the weights at 220 pounds. He hails from Somerville, Mass. He hit .287 last year.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 37 —

JIMMY WILSON

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

The St. Louis Cardinals gave two players, Virgil Davis and Homer Peel, to get Jimmy Wilson from the Phillies five years ago. He had caught five years with the Phils before that time.

He was a soccer football star even before he won a place in the big league as a ball player. Used to play with the Bethlehem Steel soccer eleven.

Jimmy Wilson is 32, five feet, 11 inches tall and moves the weights at 185 pounds. He bats and throws right-handed. Last year he batted .248 in 92 games and fielded .982.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 158 —

MORRIS (MOE) BERG

WASHINGTON SENATORS

Became a catcher by accident. Was an infielder with the Chicago White Sox in 1927 when injuries to the catching staff caused manager Ray Schalk to look around for assistance. Berg stepped in and filled the bill. He has been working behind the bat ever since.

He is a graduate of Princeton and has also studied law at Columbia University.

Born in New York City, March 2, 1902.

White Sox bought Berg from Reading Club in 1926. Joined Washington last year.

6 feet, 170 lbs. Bats right handed. Last year batted .236 in 75 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

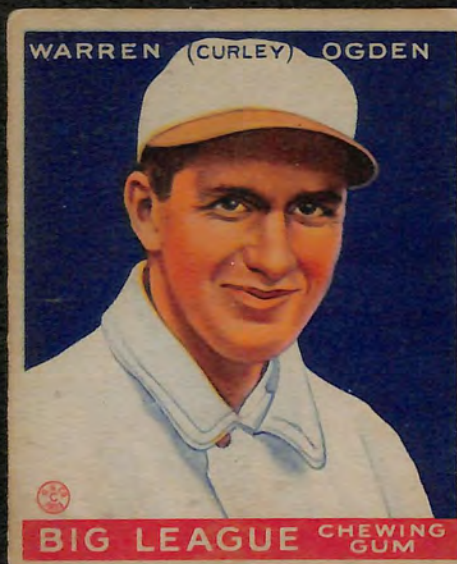

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 4 —

HENRY (HEINIE) SCHUBLE

DETROIT TIGERS

One of the fastest runners on the Detroit Tigers is Heinie Schuble. He appeared in 101 games last year for the Tigers and batted .271. He played 76 games at third base, fielding .941, and 15 as shortstop, fielding .949.

Schuble had a try-out with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1927, but failed to make the grade and he went to the Texas league, where he played so sensationally that he was grabbed by Detroit.

Heinie bats from Houston, Texas, where he was born in 1906. He is 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds, bats and throws right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 204 —

JACKSON RIGGS STEPHENSON

CHICAGO CUBS

Stepped right from the college campus of Alabama University to the Cleveland Club in 1921 when the Indians were in need of infield material. Hit .330 in 65 games in his first year with the big league. Was sent to the American Association in 1925, but came back to the big show as a member of the Cubs the next year, and has been with them ever since, hitting better than .300 every year.

Last year slugged .325 in 147 games.

Stephenson was born in Akron, Ala., in 1899. Is a right-hander, 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 180 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 34 —

BOB O'FARRELL

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

One of the smartest catchers in the big league. Has been in the big show 15 years and in 1927 managed the St. Louis Cardinals.

A timely batter and frequently pinch hits for other men when not playing regularly.

Was born in Waukegan, Ill., in 1896 and broke into the big league in 1918 with Chicago Cubs—since then played with Cardinals and Giants. Is five feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed. Last season hit .239 in 50 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 102 —

TRAVIS JACKSON

NEW YORK GIANTS

Great shortstop and strong batter. Bothered by a bad knee for several years and not able to play regularly.

Came to Giants from Little Rock in Southern Association in 1922 and made good right away. Became regular shortstop of team in 1924. Five times batted better than .300. Played in two world's series for the Giants.

Born at Waldo, Ark., in 1903, is five feet, 10½ inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. Bats and throws right handed. Played ball at Ouachita College before starting professional career. Last year batted .256 in 52 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 174 —

WARREN (CURLEY) OGDEN

MONTREAL ROYALS

One of the leading pitchers of the International League is Warren (Curley) Ogden a right hander. Last year, pitching for the Royals he won 11 games and lost 13 for a team which finished fourth.

Ogden spent several seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics, going direct from Swarthmore College, where he had starred in the box. Besides starring with Swarthmore, Ogden also pitched for a semi-pro team managed by Frank Baker, former Philadelphia Athletic star.

He is a brother of Jack Ogden of the Baltimore Club; was born in Ogden, Pa. January 24, 1901. 6 feet 1 inch tall, weighs 180 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 226 —

CHARLEY ROOT

CHICAGO CUBS

Altho now a star pitcher, Charley Root was once a shortstop. Playing with a mill team in Hamilton, Ontario, several years ago, Root had the highest fielding average of any player in his position in the league.

He has been a star with the Cubs for the past eight years and in 1929 led the National League with 19 wins and six losses.

He is 34 years old, a right hander, 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs around 180 pounds. Last season he won 15 and lost 10.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

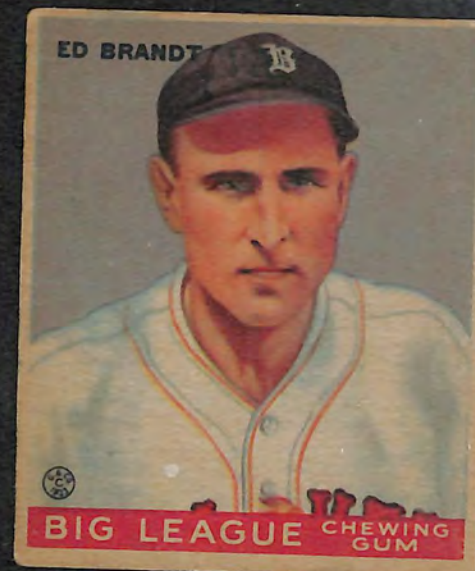

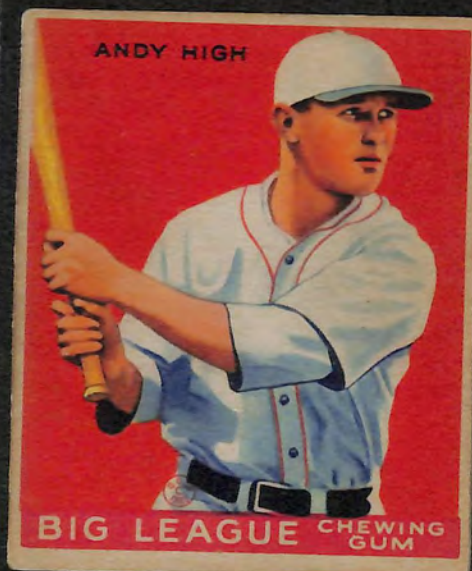

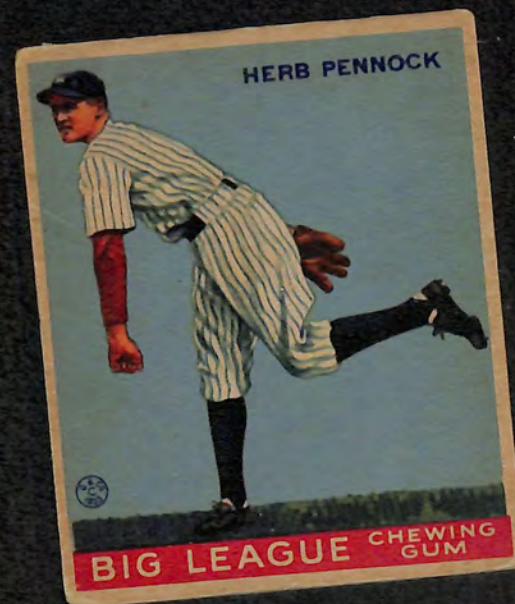

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 26 —

CHALMER CISSELL
CLEVELAND INDIANS

The Chicago White Sox paid the Portland Club of the Pacific Coast League $123,000.00 in cash and players in 1927 for Cissell. Chalmer Cissell made good in the big league right away and he has been up there ever since. Plays any position in the infield and is a good hitter. He was traded to Cleveland last year. Last season he batted .315 in 143 games.

Cissell was born in Marysville, Mo., January 9, 1904. He is 5 feet, 9 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. He bats and throws right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 46 —

ETHAN ALLEN
ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Playing with the University of Cincinnati, Allen hit four home runs in four times at bat in one game in 1924 and in four games he hit seven over the fence. He made 12 hits in 16 times at bat.

Played four years with the Reds and three with Giants. Last winter he was traded to Cardinals.

He generally hits around .300 in the National League, last year batted only .175 in 54 games, fielding .957. He is 29, a six-footer and weighs 175 pounds, batting and throwing right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 138 —
HERB PENNOCK
NEW YORK YANKEES

One of the smartest pitchers in the big leagues. Has exceptional control and knows the weaknesses of the batters. A six-footer, but weighs less than 170 pounds. Has plenty of stuff, though, when he needs it.

Has been a big league regular almost continuously since he joined the Athletics in 1912. Traded to Boston in 1915 and to New York in 1923. Pitched in five world's series. Last year won nine games and lost five.

Lives at Kennett Square, Pa. Married. Loves to hunt. Although a left-handed pitcher, bats from either side of the plate.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 157 —

SAM BYRD
NEW YORK YANKEES

One of the best golfers in professional baseball, as well as a great all around ball player. He is fast, a good hitter, and fine outfielder. Last year batted .297 in 104 games.

He is 25 years old, bats and throws right handed, measures 5 feet, 10½ inches in height and weighs 170 lbs.

He began his professional career with Birmingham in 1926, and next year starred with Knoxville, Tenn., where he attracted the attention of the Yankees. He was sent to Albany for a year for more experience, then came back and stuck.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 182 —

ANDY HIGH
COLUMBUS RED BIRDS

Andy High was one of the handiest all around players in the National League. He played with the Dodgers, Braves, Cardinals and Senators, and on being released this Summer, signed with the Columbus Club in the American Association.

During his major league career he served at second, third and shortstop. Andy High is a timely batter. His best year in hitting was in 1924, when he batted .328, while playing with the Brooklyn Club.

He is one of the smallest players in the National League, standing 5 feet 6 inches in height. He is 35 years old.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 50 —

ED BRANDT
BOSTON BRAVES

Here is one of the left-handed pitching aces of the Boston Braves.

Ed has been pitching for the Braves five years. He went to the big league from the Seattle team of the Pacific Coast League, where he had shown himself to be a star. He is a six-footer and weighs around 185 pounds. Fond of hunting and spends much of his time in the Winter months with a gun. His biggest year with Boston was in 1931, when he won 18 and lost 11 games. Last year he gained 16 victories and was beaten 16 times.

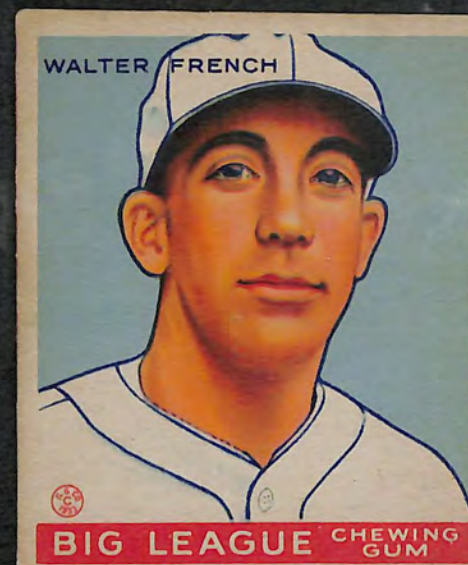

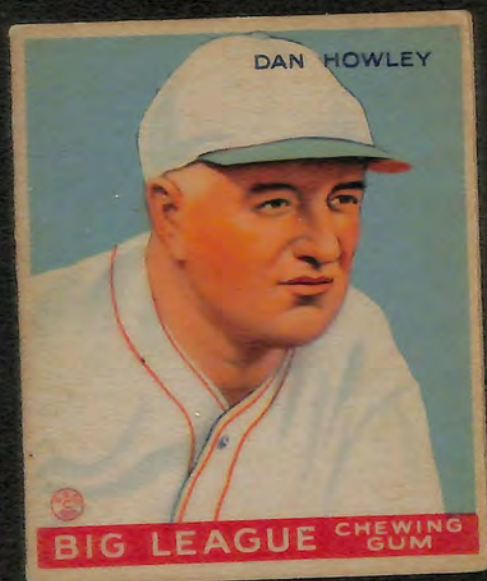

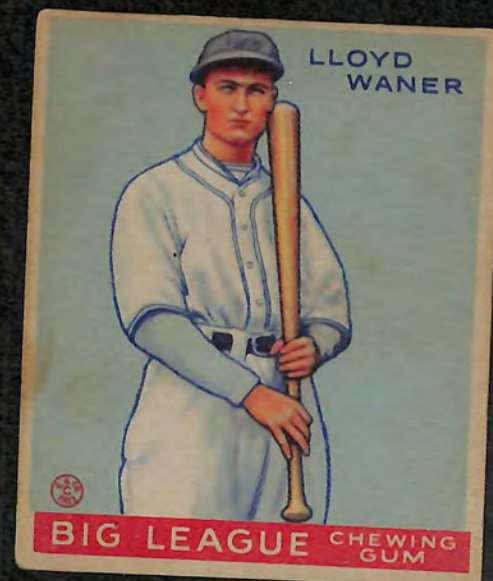

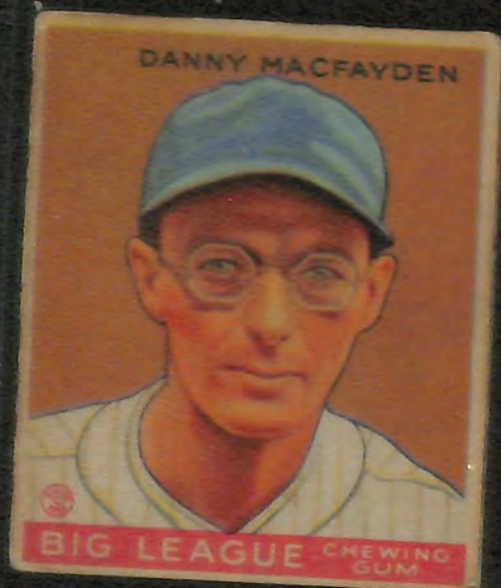

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 156 —

DANNY MACFAYDEN
NEW YORK YANKEES

First pitcher in the American League to wear spectacles. Joined the Boston Red Sox in 1925 from the independent ranks. Won a regular place right away. Traded to New York last Summer. Won 9 games and lost 15 pitching for Boston and New York.

Before entering independent ball, pitched for Somerville High School and was undefeated for two years. Struck out 33 men in a 12 inning game and allowed only 4 hits.

Born in Somerville, Mass. Is 27 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds. Bats and throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 73 —

JESSE HAINES
ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

A great student of opposing hitters, when not pitching he spends a good deal of time watching the movements of batters. Working his 14th season with St. Louis Cardinals. A great knuckle ball pitcher.

Pitched in 4 world series and in 1926 was credited with 2 of his team's 4 victories over the New York Yankees.

Is 40 years old, 6 ft. tall and weighs 180 lbs. Last year worked in 20 games, won 3 and lost 5.

Born in Clayton, Ohio. For several years conducted a garage business at Phillipsburg, Ohio. Loves to hunt.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 164 —

LLOYD WANER
PITTSBURGH PIRATES

Brother of Paul Waner, plays beside him in the Pittsburgh outfield. Broke in with the Pirates with a bang 6 years ago. Has been a headliner ever since. Last year batted .333 in 134 games.

Had two tryouts with San Francisco, but failed to make the grade. Recommended to Pirates who sent him to Columbia in So. Atlantic League, where he starred and was called back to Pittsburgh club, where he has remained ever since.

Born in Harrah, Okla., 1906. Is 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weighs 150 lbs. Bats left, throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 175 —

DAN HOWLEY
MANAGER, TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS

Dan Howley, who is now managing Toronto in the International League, has seen service as a manager in both major leagues. He piloted the St. Louis Browns in the American League for three years, from 1927 through 1929; then went to the Cincinnati Club, where he managed three years.

Howley was a catcher during his playing career, and a high class one.

He began his managerial career with Montreal in 1914. He also piloted clubs in Hartford and Toronto and served as a coach with the Detroit Tigers. He was born in Weymouth, Mass. in 1885.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 179 —

FRED LEACH
BOSTON BRAVES

Fred Leach spent more than nine years in the National League playing with the Phillies, Giants and Braves. 8 times he batted over the .300 mark.

Leach is not now in organized baseball, as he retired after playing with Boston in 1932.

He is a left hand batter, but throws right handed; 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 183 pounds. He was born in Springfield, Mo., in 1897, and started his professional career with Waterloo in the Mississippi Valley League in 1922, batting for .383. He was bought by Philadelphia at the close of that season.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 177 —

WALTER FRENCH
KNOXVILLE SMOKIES

One of the leading batters of the Southern League is Walter French, Knoxville outfielder. Last year, playing with Little Rock, he swatted .336 in 152 games. French is a left hand batter, but throws right handed. Before going to the Southern League, he spent several seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. His best year at bat with Philadelphia was in 1925, when he hit .370 in 67 games.

French was also a football star as well as a baseball headliner while attending West Point, being named in the All America eleven. He was born in Moorestown, N. J., July 12, 1899, is 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds.

He began his professional career with the Athletics in 1923.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

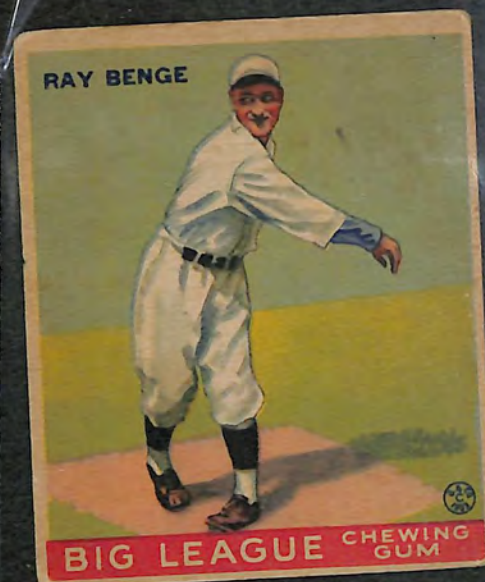

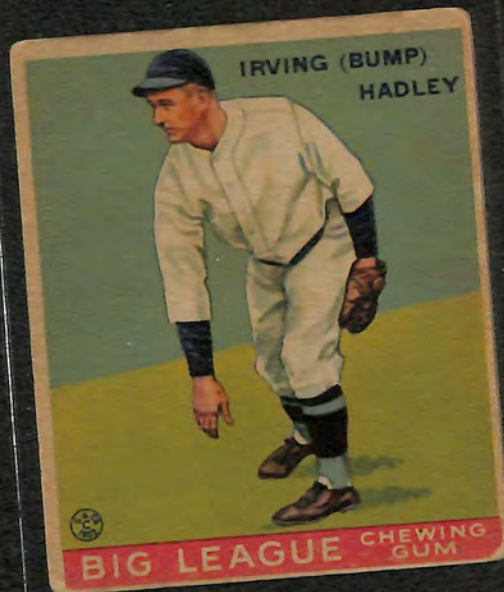

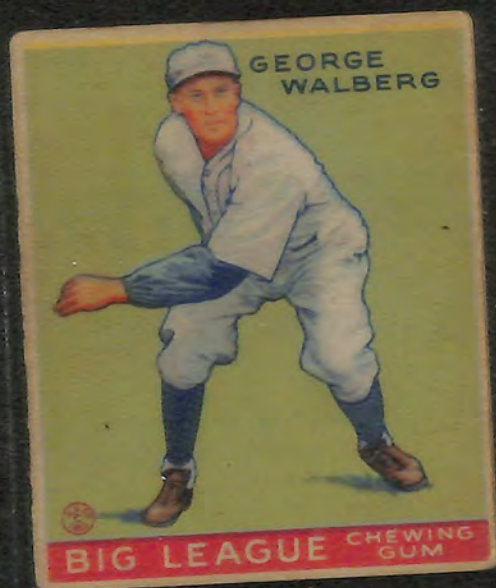

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 135 —

ELWOOD (WOODY) ENGLISH
CHICAGO CUBS

Infielders aren't generally expected to be heavy hitters, but Woody English has twice hit over .300 in the big show. He's been playing with the Cubs more than six years, coming up from Toledo in the American Association.

Last year he hit .272 in 127 games and played at third base and shortstop. He is five feet, 10 inches in height and moves the scales at 155 pounds. He bats right-handed. He was born in Grandville, O., but now lives in Chicago.

The Cubs paid $50,000 for him to the Toledo club in 1926.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 170 —

HARRY McCURDY
PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

Starred in Baseball, football and basketball at the University of Illinois and captained the championship ball nine in 1922. Was signed by the St. Louis Cardinals that year and sent to Houston in the Texas League two years later. Finished 7th among the leading batters of the Texas League with an average of .361 in 124 games, in 1925. Was bought by the Chicago White Sox. Spent three years in Chicago, one in Toledo and went to Phillies in 1930.

Born in Stephens Point, Wisc. Sept. 15, 1900, 5 feet 11 inches tall, 187 pounds. Bats left, throws right handed. 1932 hit .235 in 62 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 167 —

JACK RUSSELL
WASHINGTON SENATORS

One of the slimmest pitchers in the American League, but he's got plenty of good stuff. A right hander, 6 feet, 1 inch tall, and weighs 160 lbs. He was born in Paris, Texas, October 24, 1905. At the age of 19 entered professional ball with the Paris team in the East Texas League. He was grabbed by the Boston Red Sox in 1926 and remained with that club until he was traded to the Cleveland Indians in June, 1932. In December, he was transferred to Washington in another deal.

Last season pitching for Boston and Cleveland won 6 and lost 14.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 145 —

GEORGE WALBERG
PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

New York Giants spent a lot of money for Walberg in 1922, but let him go the next year, and Philadelphia grabbed him. He has been with the Athletics ever since, except for a year in 1924 with Milwaukee where he ranked as strike-out king of the American Assn.

Last year Walberg won 17 games and lost 10, working in 41 contests.

He is a left hander, a six footer and moves the weights at 185 lbs. Born in Seattle, Washington, but now makes his home in Philadelphia. He is 32 years old.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 140 —

IRVING (BUMP) HADLEY
ST. LOUIS BROWNS

Once struck out 26 batters in a nine-inning game, while pitching in schoolboy ranks at Mercersburg Academy. It was a no-hit game.

Also starred in football, track and hockey in prep school, then twirled for Brown freshmen. Signed by Washington in 1926, sent to Birmingham, but recalled.

Traded to Chicago White Sox in 1931 and went to Browns in deal in April, 1932.

Is five feet, 10½ inches tall and scales 180 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed. Last year won 14 games and lost 21. Was born in Lynn, Mass., in 1904.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 141 —

RAY BENGE
BROOKLYN DODGERS

Overhand curve ball pitcher. Cleveland had him once, but let him go. Bet they'd like to get him back now!

Phillies grabbed him from Waco, Tex., in 1928 and he's been a big league star ever since. Traded to Dodgers last winter.

Studied to be a school teacher in college in Texas, but was such a success in pitching ranks that he decided to stick to the hurling hill.

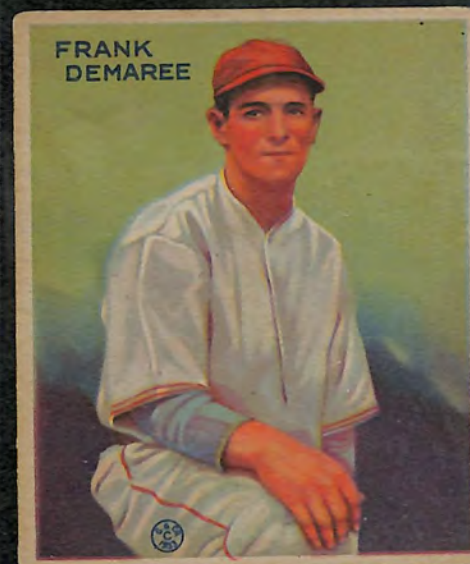

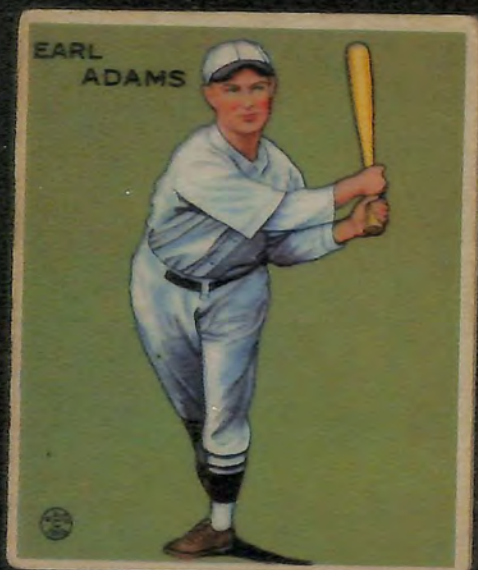

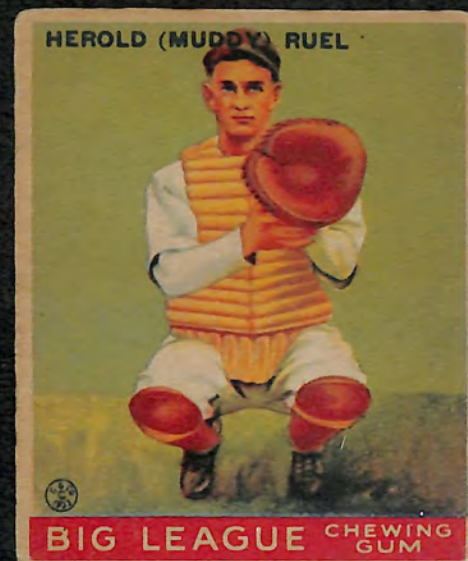

Born in Jacksonville, Tex., in 1902. Is five feet, nine and one-half inches tall and moves the scales at 160 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 201 —

ERNIE ORSATTI

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Ernie Orsatti, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, never decides to give up playing baseball he could make a living in the movies, for he has already played before the flicker lights.

Ernie was born in Los Angeles in 1904 and began his professional career in the Pacific Coast League in 1925. He joined the Cardinals in 1927, batting .315 in 27 games. Last year with the same club, he hit .336 in 101 games.

He is 5 feet 7½ inches tall and weighs 155 pounds. Bats and throws left-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 228 —

TONY PIET

PITTSBURGH PIRATES

Right name, Anthony Pietruszka. Two clubs in Texas League turned him down in one year, but he got a trial with Corsicana, Texas in the Lone Star League, and made good.

Broke in as pitcher, but shifted to second base, and has been an infielder ever since.

Bought by Pittsburgh in 1930 from Waco, Texas, after hitting .319, 26 home runs and stealing 30 bases. Sent to Wichita in 1931, where he swatted .336 and stole 42 bases. Went back to Pirates to stay.

Last year hit .286 in 154 games. 26 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches tall, weighs 180 pounds; bats and throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 18 —

HEROLD (MUDDY) RUEL

ST. LOUIS BROWNS

He's a lawyer, as well as a ball player. Studied in the Winter months and passed the bar.

Has been playing in the American League since 1917. Caught Walter Johnson for five years. Played in two world series.

Now playing in his home city, after serving in New York, Boston, Washington and Detroit. Smart catcher and timely batter.

Muddy Ruel is 37, five feet, eight inches in height and weighs 160 pounds. Bats right-handed. Last year hit .235 in 50 games and fielded .989.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 213 —

EARL ADAMS

CINCINNATI REDS

A handy man to have on any ball club. Has played three different infield positions in the National League. Has twice batted over the 300 mark.

Joined the Chicago Cubs in 1922, coming from Wichita Falls in the Texas League, where he had batted .340, stolen 28 bases, and starred at shortstop. Remained with the Cubs until 1928. Spent two years with Pittsburgh, went to St. Louis in 1930 and early in 1933 shifted to Cincinnati.

He is a right-hander, 5 feet, 1½ inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. Born in Pottsville, Pa., in 1896.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 225 —

BILL JURGES

CHICAGO CUBS

Fine basketball player, as well as a baseball star. Joined the Cubs in 1931 from the Reading Club of the International League. Fine fielder, with a good arm and showing improvement each year in his batting.

Born in Brooklyn, N. Y. in 1908. Started his professional career in 1927. Signed with Newark Club, which sent him to Manchester in the New England League. Went to Reading in 1929, where he hit .288 in 143 games, playing shortstop for the team.

Right handed hitter, 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds. Last year batted .253.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 224 —

FRANK DEMAREE

CHICAGO CUBS

Played in two games in the World Series in his first year in the big league and hit a home run in one of them. This was in 1932. A right hander, 5 feet, 11½ inches in height and weighs 180 pounds.

Born in Winters, Cal. in 1910 and started his professional career with Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League in 1930. Batted .364 for Sacramento in 109 games in 1932, being virtually second best in batting in the league.

He was grabbed by the Cubs and hit .250 in 23 games for Chicago last fall.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

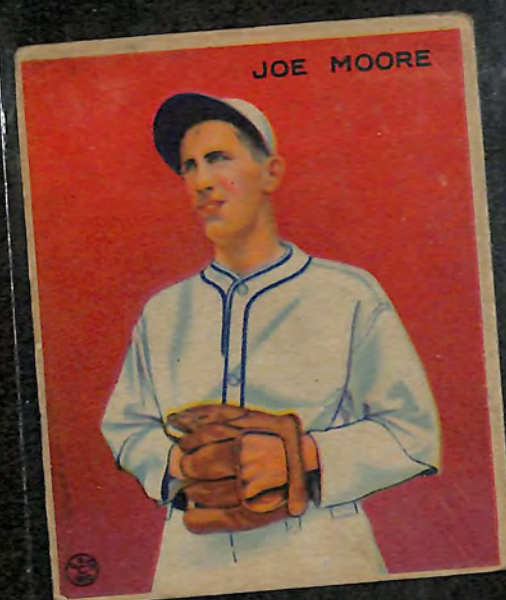

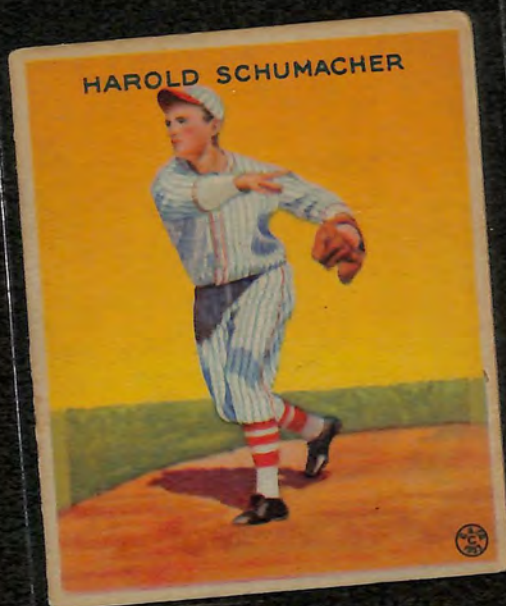

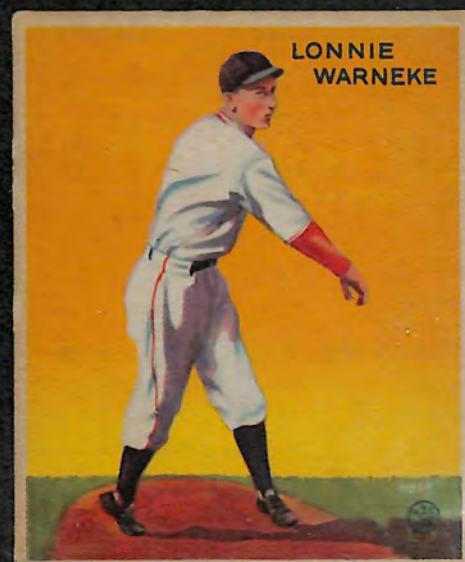

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of

INDIAN GUM

— No. 208 —

BYRNE (BERNIE) JAMES

NEW YORK GIANTS

All around utility man with the New York Giants. Can play practically any infield position.

Was born in Angleton, Texas, in 1905 and began his professional career with Alameda, Okla., at the age of 18. Throws right-handed, but bats either way. Five feet, nine and one-half inches tall, 150 pounds.

First big league tryout with the Braves in 1925. Sent to the minors the next season. The Giants bought him last winter from Dallas, Tex., where he hit .298 in 149 games, stole 42 bases and starred as a second baseman.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 206 —

GUS SUHR

PITTSBURGH PIRATES

Pittsburgh grabbed Suhr from the San Francisco Club of the Pacific Coast League, where in 1929 he had batted .381 in 202 games and walloped 51 home runs. Only four other regulars in the league had a higher average with the bat that season.

Suhr is a native of San Francisco and started his baseball career in independent circles there. He won a regular place with the Frisco club in 1924.

Suhr is a six-footer, 27 years old and weighs 197 pounds; bats left-handed, but throws right-handed. Last year he hit .263 in 154 games and made 5 home runs.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 203 —

LONNIE WARNEKE

CHICAGO CUBS

Although he is one of the foremost pitchers in the National League, Lonnie Warneke was a first baseman when he was in high school. He was born at Mt. Ida, Ark., in 1909. He is 6 feet 1½ inches tall and weighs 180 pounds, batting and throwing right-handed.

Last year he led the National League in effectiveness and won more games than any other pitcher in the League. Won 22 games for the Cubs and was beaten only 6 times.

He has another brother now playing in minor league ball.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 128 —

CHARLES (CHUCK) KLEIN

PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

One of the hardest hitters in the National League. Finished third in batting in the league in 1932 with an average of .348 in 154 games and walloped 38 home runs, being tied with Mel Ott of the Giants for the lead in this respect.

Chuck Klein is 27 years old, 6 feet tall and weighs 185 pounds; bats left handed, but throws right handed. He began his professional career with Evansville in the Three-I League in 1927 and was bought by Fort Wayne in 1928. He went up to the Phillies in midseason. He has finished among the first ten batters in the league every season.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 129 —

HAROLD SCHUMACHER

NEW YORK GIANTS

One of the pitching aces of the New York Giants, a right hander, 6 feet tall and weighing around 180 pounds.

Signed by the New York Giants after leaving St. Lawrence University in 1931; sent to Bridgeport and Rochester for more experience that year.

Won five games and lost six for the Giants in 1932, being used to a large extent as a relief pitcher. One of the Big Four in the Giants' sensational showing in 1933.

Born in Hineckley, N. Y. in 1911.

Has plenty of smoke on his fast ball.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 231 —

JOE MOORE

NEW YORK GIANTS

Good fielder and timely hitter. Secured by Giants from the San Antonio Club in the Texas League in 1930. With San Antonio had batted .329 in 127 games. New York sent him to Bridgeport, Newark and Jersey City for experience, but recalled him in midseason in 1932. He played in 86 games for the Giants before the close of the season, batting .305. He is an outfielder.

Is 5 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds; bats and throws left handed. He was born at Gause, Texas in 1908.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE

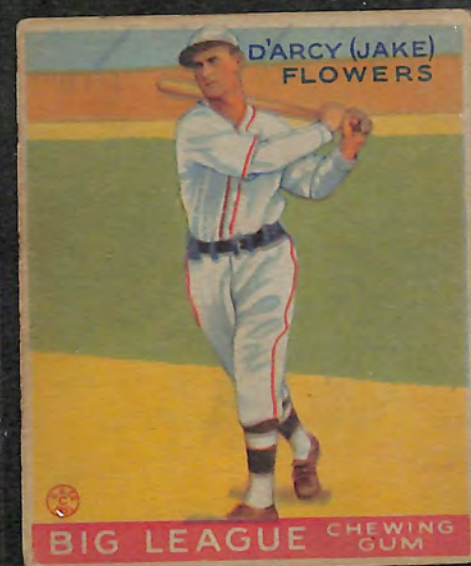

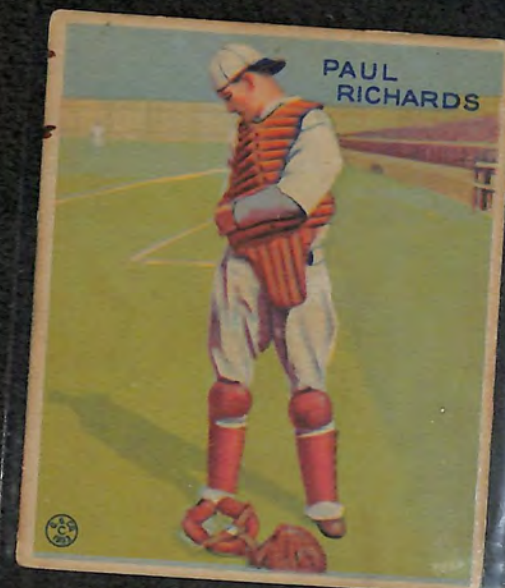

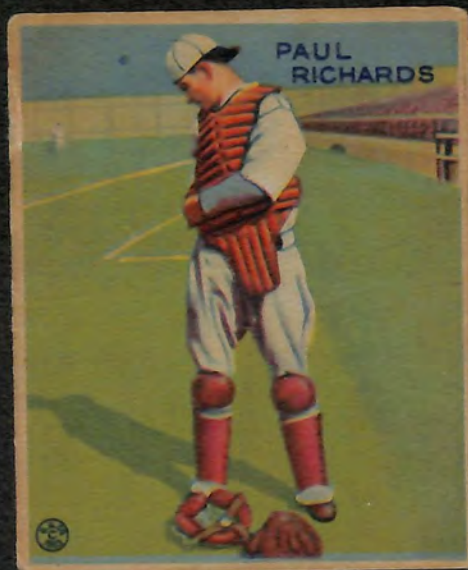

CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 136 —

FLINT RHEM

PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

Pitched no-hit, no-run game for a minor league club in 1924 as Manager Branch Rickey, of the Cardinals, sat in the stand. Had pitched the day before, but Rickey wanted to see him work, so was put in again. Pitched five years for Cardinals. Spent year in the minors, then came back. Sold to Philadelphia in 1932.

A right-hander, 6 feet 2 inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds. Has plenty of smoke. Born in Rhema, S. C., in 1902.

Last year won 15 and lost 9.

Graduate of Clemson A. and M. College, where he starred in pitching.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 142 —

PAUL RICHARDS

NEW YORK GIANTS

Paul Richards, New York catcher, has played practically every position on the diamond since he started in baseball.

He was a pitcher when in high school; later worked in infield and outfield before he started catching. The Giants bought him from Minneapolis, where, in 1932, he swatted .361 in 78 games hitting 16 home runs.

Richards was born in Waxahachie, Texas in 1908; is 6 feet, 1½ inches tall and weighs 180 pounds; bats and throws right handed.

He began his professional career with Crisfield in the Eastern Shore League in 1926.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 142 —

PAUL RICHARDS

NEW YORK GIANTS

Paul Richards, New York catcher, has played practically every position on the diamond since he started in baseball.

He was a pitcher when in high school; later worked in infield and outfield before he started catching. The Giants bought him from Minneapolis, where, in 1932, he swatted .361 in 78 games hitting 16 home runs.

Richards was born in Waxahachie, Texas in 1908; is 6 feet, 1½ inches tall and weighs 180 pounds; bats and throws right handed.

He began his professional career with Crisfield in the Eastern Shore League in 1926.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 48 —

MARTY McMANUS

BOSTON RED SOX

Reporting for his first chance in 1921 with a sore arm, the St. Louis Browns' manager had confidence in him.

Marty played six years with St. Louis, with Detroit four and a half years and has been with the Boston Red Sox two years, managing the team since June, 1932.

He was born in Chicago 33 years ago, but now lives in St. Louis. Has always played in the infield and ranks with the best. He is a timely hitter and an aggressive ball player. Batted .235 in 93 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 75 —

WILLIE KAMM

CLEVELAND INDIANS

Ranks with the best in fielding his position and is a dependable hitter. Led the third basemen of the American League six years in succession.

Came up to the Chicago White Sox in 1923. Chicago paid $100,000 in cash and players to get him. Traded to Cleveland in 1931. Last year he batted .286 in 148 games and fielded .967.

Bats and throws right-handed. Is five feet, 10½ inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. Was born in San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 2, 1900. Is fond of all sports.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 151 —

D'ARCY (JAKE) FLOWERS

BROOKLYN DODGERS

One of the most valuable infielders in the National League, being equally at home in a number of positions. Last year played 67 games with St. Louis Cardinals, 54 of them at 3rd base and batted .255. After close of the season was traded to Brooklyn and has been playing at shortstop.

Broke into National League 1923 with St. Louis Cardinals. Played in minors for a few years and then came back to the big league. Since then has played with St. Louis and Brooklyn.

31 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches tall, weighs 160. Bats and throws right handed.

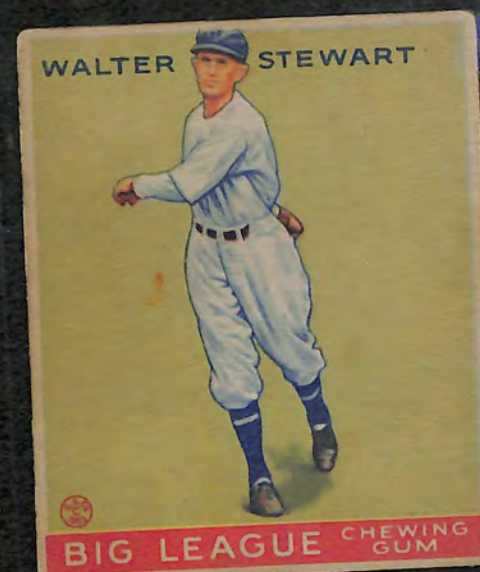

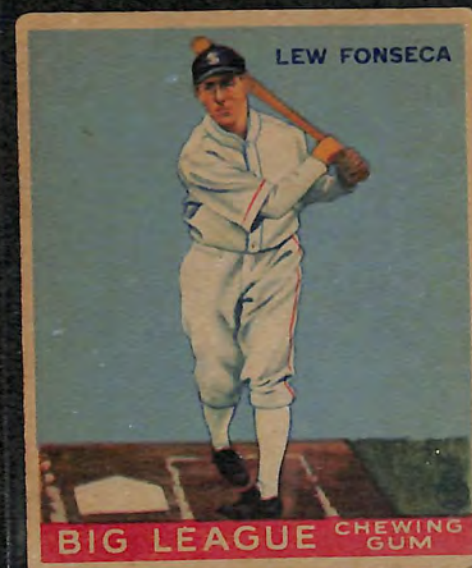

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 148 —

EDDIE FARRELL
NEW YORK YANKEES

Eddie is a registered dentist, besides being a high grade major league baseball player. He was graduated in 1925 from the University of Pennsylvania, where he captained the baseball team for two years.

Eddie is a handy man to have on a ball club, as he can play three different infield positions.

He has served with the Giants, Braves, Cardinals and Cubs in the National League, and is now with the New York Yankees.

Eddie was born in Johnson City, N.Y. 1902, is 5 feet, 8 inches tall and weighs 160 lbs., batting and throwing right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 150 —

RAY KOLP
CINCINNATI REDS

Has pitched in both American and National leagues. First came up with St. Louis Browns in 1921 after starring for Akron in the New York-Pennsylvania League.

Is a right hander, and a six footer, weighs around 175 lbs. Was born in No. Canton, Ohio, October 1, 1897 and started his career with Akron in 1920. Besides pitching that year, he also played as short-stop.

Has pitched for the Cincinnati Reds the past few years and the last season worked in 32 games, winning 6 and losing 10.

Is fond of hunting and fishing during the off season.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 43 —

LEW FONSECA
CHICAGO WHITE SOX

Manager Chicago White Sox. Could earn his living as singer if he weren't in baseball. Has sung in vaudeville in Winter months.

Only player of Portuguese descent in big league. Played in National League with Cincinnati four years, went to Newark for a year, then came to American League with Cleveland. Traded to White Sox in 1931. Appointed manager in 1932.

Plays first base. Is good hitter, although he batted only .135 in 18 games last year. Born in Oakland, Cal., in 1900. Is five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds, batting and throwing right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 70 —

FLOYD (PETE) SCOTT
OAKLAND OAKS

One of the most dangerous batters in the Pacific Coast League. He is now playing with Oakland, but has seen service with Seattle and Mission in the same league. Last year played with Seattle and batted .302 in 103 games, hitting 10 home runs.

Scott is a native of California, as he was born at Stockton, in 1899. He is 5 ft. 11½ in. tall and weighs 175 lbs.

He began playing professional ball with Vancouver, B. C., in 1920 and has played in the National League with the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 57 —

EARL CLARK
ALBANY SENATORS

Used to be a bat boy for the Washington Senators and in 1927 joined the big league as a player when he was bought by the Boston Braves from the Richmond Club in the Va. League. A fast base runner, and a good all around player. The Braves sold him to Albany during the present season.

He was born in Washington, November 6, 1907; is 5 ft. 11 in. tall, and weighs 170 lbs.; bats and throws right-handed.

Last season he hit .250 for the Braves in 50 games.

He is also a fine soccer player.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 146 —

WALTER STEWART
WASHINGTON SENATORS

One of the most consistent pitchers in the American League. Left handed, 6 feet in height and moving the scales at 170 lbs.

First came up to the big league in 1921 with Detroit, but failed to make the grade. Played the next 6 years with various minor league clubs. Joined the Browns in 1927 and remained with that club until traded to Washington last December.

Last year, pitching for the St. Louis Browns won 15 and lost 19 games for a team which finished 6th.

Stewart was born in Sparta, Tenn. in 1900.

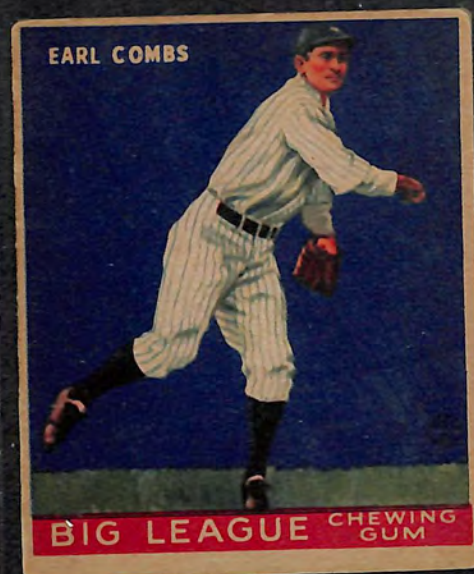

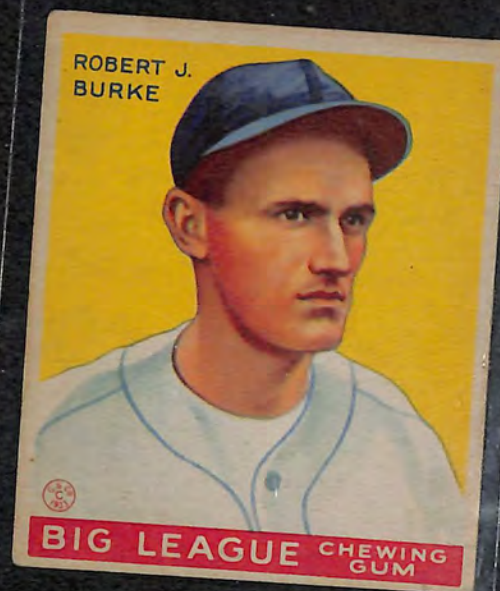

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 176 —

JOHN OGDEN

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Now pitching for the team with which he first won recognition as a pitcher. Ogden is a right hander, 6 feet in height and moves the scales at 180 pounds. Was born in Ogden, Pa. November 5, 1898.

He served in the big leagues with St. Louis Browns, Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals, signing with Baltimore in 1933.

Before going up to the Big League, Ogden pitched 8 years for the Baltimore Club, and won 191 games while losing 80.

He is a graduate of Swarthmore College, where he starred in baseball and basketball.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 104 —

FRED MARBERRY

DETROIT TIGERS

Specializes in saving ball games when other pitchers are getting their bumps. A big fellow, six feet, one inch tall and scales close to 200 pounds.

Pitched in most games of any twirler in American League last year, 54 contests. Won eight and lost four.

Bought by Washington from Little Rock in Southern League in 1923. Traded to Detroit Tigers in 1932.

Born in Streetman, Tex., in 1899 and now lives in Corsicana. Pitches right handed and has a lot of speed. Played important part in success of Washington club in winning pennants in 1924 and 1925.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 71 —

ROBERT J. BURKE

WASHINGTON SENATORS

Many pitchers have served in the major leagues without being able to turn in a no-hit game. Bob Burke, left-hander with the Washington Senators is one of the few to accomplish this. 2 years ago, he held the Boston Red Sox hitless in a game.

Burke spent only one year in the minors before he was grabbed by the Senators from the Little Rock Club in the Southern League.

He was born in Joliet, Ill., in 1907. He is 6 ft. tall and moves the weights at 160 lbs. Last year won 3 and lost 6.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 60 —

WAITE HOYT

PITTSBURGH PIRATES

Was signed by New York Giants and sent to minor league clubs when only 16 years old. This was back in 1916. Played on various minor league teams until 1919, when he joined the Boston Red Sox. Has been a big leaguer ever since.

Traded to New York in 1921. Pitched in 6 world series for the Yankees and won all his games.

Traded to Detroit in 1930. Since then has played with Athletics, Brooklyn and New York Giants. Signed by Pittsburgh last January.

Hoyt is a right-hander, 5 feet, 11½ inches, weighs around 190 pounds. He is now 33 years old.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 165 —

JOE SEWELL

NEW YORK YANKEES

Cleveland Indians signed him hurriedly late in September 1920, to play shortstop after Ray Chapman had died after being hit by a pitched ball. Won the place right away and played in World Series that Fall. Remained with Cleveland until 1931 when he joined the Yankees. Now plays at third base.

Starred in baseball at the University of Alabama before entering professional ball. Born in Titus, Alabama in 1898, 5 feet, 6 inches tall, weighs 155 lbs. Bats left handed, throws right. Last year hit .272 in 124 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 103 —

EARLE COMBS

NEW YORK YANKEES

He used to be the ball maker for his baseball team as a boy, but used to lose most of the balls by hitting home runs. Born on a farm near Pebworth, Ky. Starred in baseball, basket ball and track in college.

New York Yankees bought him in 1923 from Louisville. He has been a big leaguer ever since. Last year he batted .321 in 143 games and hit .375 in the world series.

He is 32 years old, six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds. Bats left handed, but throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

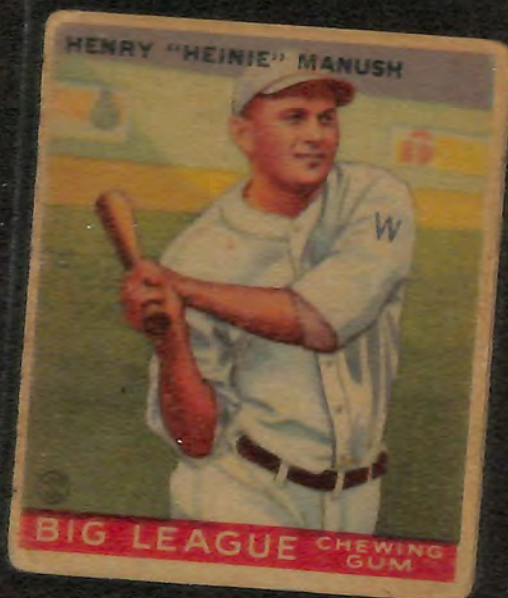

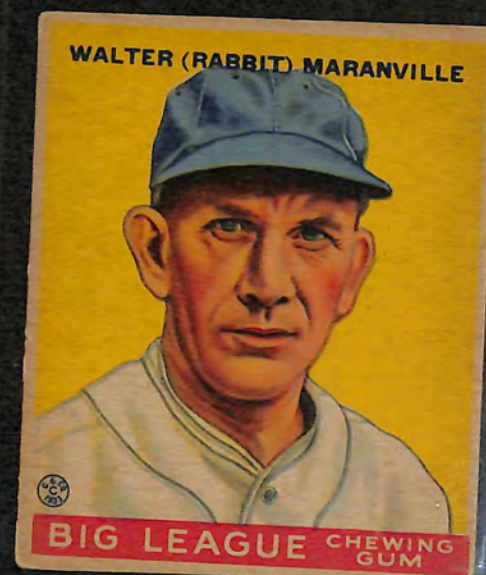

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO.

BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 101 —

DICK COFFMAN

ST. LOUIS BROWNS

Dick Coffman ought to know the routes between Washington and St. Louis pretty well. Started his big league career with Washington in 1927. Traded to St. Louis where he played next four years. Traded back to Washington in June 1932, but returned to St. Louis Browns in deal made last December.

Is elongated young man, towering 6 feet, 1 1/2 inches and weighing 170 pounds. Bats and throws right handed. Born in Veto, Ala., December 18, 1906, and began pro career with Chattanooga, Tenn.

Last year won six games and was beaten nine times.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 82 —

DIBRELL WILLIAMS

PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Spent less than one year in the Southern League in 1929 before he was grabbed by the Philadelphia Athletics, and has been in the big league ever since. Hails from Greenbriar, Arkansas, where he was born in 1911. Is 5 ft. 11 1/2 in. tall, weighs 175 lbs., batting and throwing right-handed.

Attended Oklahoma A. & M. College where he starred in football and basketball. Began professional baseball career with Little Rock, from which club he was purchased by Athletics.

Last year, playing second base, batted .251 in 62 games. This season has been used as short-stop.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 117 —

WALTER (RABBIT) MARANVILLE

BOSTON BRAVES

Forty years old, but still going strong as big leaguer. Considered all through as major leaguer in 1927, and went to Rochester in International League. Came back to St. Louis Cardinals that Fall and helped them win National League championship the next year.

Signed by Boston in 1929. Is one of the spark plugs of the Braves. Delights fans with vest pocket catches. Plays second base. Last year batted .235 in 149 games.

Is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 155 pounds. Bats and throws right handed. Born in Springfield, Mass., but now lives in Rochester, N.Y.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 47 —

HENRY (HEINIE) MANUSH

WASHINGTON SENATORS

"Heinie" broke into the big league in 1921. Won a regular berth as outfielder with Tigers in 1923. Played with them five years, with St. Louis two years and has been with Washington since 1930. He batted .342 last year and his fielding average was .986.

From July 4 to July 23 last year he made at least one hit in 22 consecutive games.

"Heinie" was born in Tusculum, Ala., July 30, 1881. He bats and throws left-handed. He loves to hunt and fish.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 45 —

LARRY BENTON

CINCINNATI REDS

When Larry Benton first tried to win a place with the Boston Braves his control was rather uncertain. He worked hard and since that time has ranked with the best in the National League.

Larry is now pitching for his own home city, as he was born in Cincinnati 35 years ago. He went to Boston from the Southern League in 1923, was traded to New York in 1927 and three years ago went to the Reds.

Last year, with a tailend club, he won six games and lost 13. He is a right-hander, five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 96 —

WILLIS HUDLIN

CLEVELAND INDIANS

He was a pitching sensation in his first full year in big league in 1927. Won 18 and lost 12. Has been a star ever since.

Was born in Wagoner, Okla., May 23, 1906. Starred in track, basketball, football and baseball in high school. Twirled high school team to three state titles and captained each team.

Joined Waco in Texas League and was grabbed by Indians in 1926. Is a fast ball pitcher with a real sinker. Last year won 12 and lost eight.

A six-footer and weighs 190. Pitches right-handed.

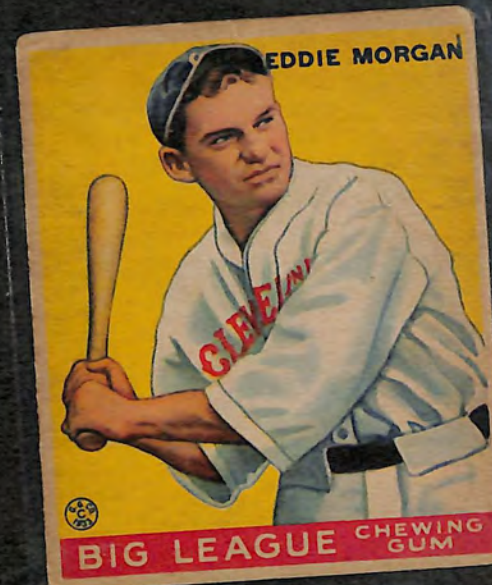

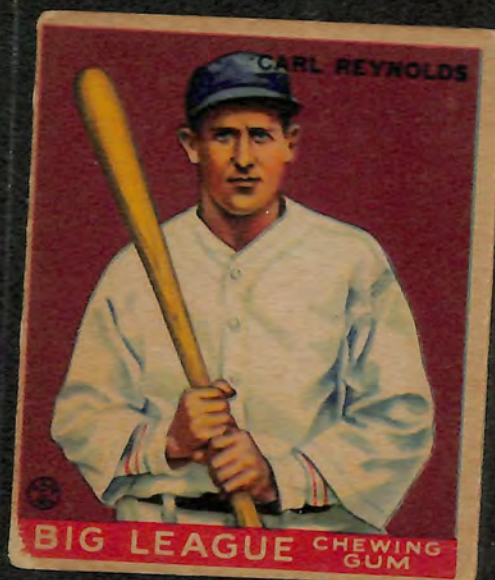

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 115 —

CLIFTON EARL HEATHCOTE
PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

He doesn't break down any fences with his wallop, but he's a pretty dependable fellow to have as a ball club, good enough to have spent more than 14 years in the big league.

He's a good fielder, fleet of foot and hits generally when the blows are needed.

Heathcote is 34 and hails from York, Penn. Joined the St. Louis Cardinals after leaving Penn State College in 1918. Was traded to Chicago in 1922, went to Cincinnati in 1931 and last year was signed by Philadelphia.

Is a left hander, 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 100 —

GEORGE UHLE
DETROIT TIGERS

Jumped right from the independent ranks in Cleveland to a berth with the Indians in his home city. This was in 1919 and he won 10 games while losing only five.

Has been a big league star ever since. Was traded to Detroit Tigers in 1928. Last year won six games and lost six.

George Uhle is a right hand pitcher, a six-footer and moves the scales at 185 pounds. He was born in Cleveland in 1898, and now lives in Lakewood, O.

Twice won more than 25 games in American League.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 55 —

PERCE (PAT) MALONE
CHICAGO CUBS

One of the star pitchers of the Chicago Cubs, bought from Minneapolis in 1928 where he had won 20 games and lost 18. Last year with Cubs won 15 and lost 17, taking part in 37 games.

Malone is a right-handed pitcher, but bats left-handed.

He is 6 ft. tall and weighs 190 lbs. Was born in Altoona, Pa., Sept. 25, 1902 and started professional career with Knoxville in the Appalachian League in 1921, winning 13 and losing 12.

Played in 2 world series.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 131 —

FRED FRANKHOUSE
BOSTON BRAVES

Shines principally in relieving other pitchers who are getting bumped although he can go full distance himself when called upon. Right-handed pitcher, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds.

Born at Port Royal, Pa., April 9, 1904.

Played independent ball at Marysville, Pa. Was secured by Cardinals in Sept., 1921. After that played with Ottawa of the Eastern Canada League, Syracuse, N. Y., and Houston, Texas.

Returned to St. Louis in 1927. Traded to the Boston Braves in June, 1930. Has been with that club since. In 1932 won 4 and lost 6 in 37 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 120 —

CARL REYNOLDS
ST. LOUIS BROWNS

Chicago White Sox scout saw Carl Reynolds playing shortstop for Southwestern University team in Texas and signed him.

Reynolds was sent to Palestine in Lone Star League in 1927. He led league in batting and base stealing, went up to White Sox that fall.

Four times hit over .300 in American League. Was fourth best hitter in League in 1930, with average of .359.

Last year batted .305 in 102 games. Traded to Washington in 1931 and to St. Louis Browns in December, 1932.

Born LaRue, Tex., in 1904. A right-hander, six feet tall and weighing about 195 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 116 —

EDDIE MORGAN
CLEVELAND INDIANS

Didn't break into pro baseball in any blaze of glory. In fact New Orleans was going to let him out to get experience, but he started to hit the ball so hard he was retained. He's been whacking the ball ever since.

Started professional career with New Orleans in 1927 and went up to Cleveland the next year. Four times batted over .300 since that time. Last year hit .293 in 144 games.

Is a six-footer and a right hander, weighing 180 pounds. Born in Cairo, Ill. Starred in four sports at Tulane University.

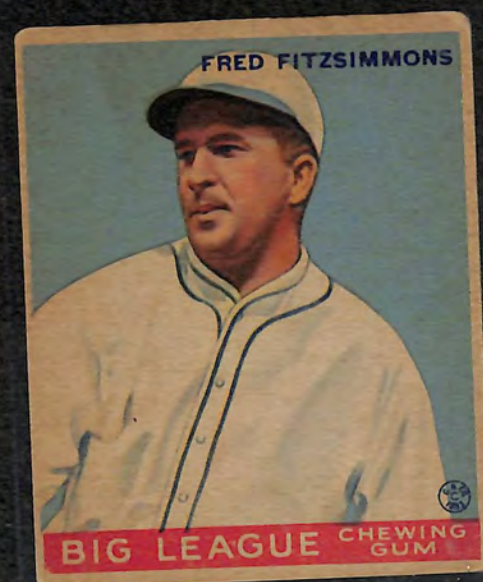

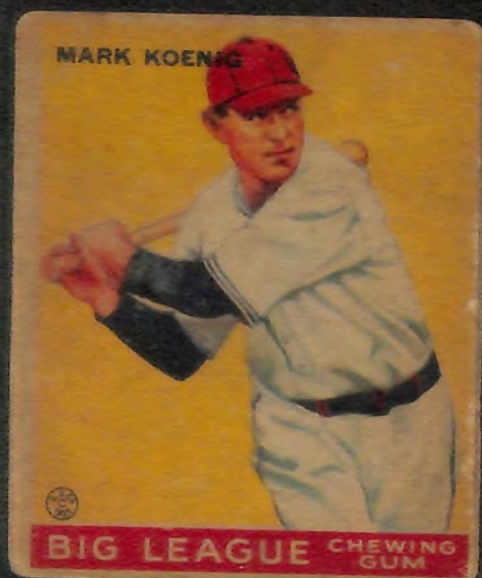

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 39 —

MARK KOENIG
CHICAGO CUBS

He came back to the big league and made good. Joined the Chicago Cubs in 1932, when the team was fighting for a pennant and his hits helped to put it over.

Used to play with the New York Yankees, then served with Detroit for a couple of years, but was sent back to the minors. Played with Mission in the Pacific Coast League and when the Cubs needed a good infielder they bought him. Hit .333 last year.

He is a six-footer, weighs 180 pounds. Born in San Francisco, Cal., July 19, 1904.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 40 —

TAYLOR DOUTHIT
CINCINNATI REDS

Trained right from the University of California in the big league in 1925. Signed by the Cardinals, but went to minors for experience. Won a big league berth in 1926.

Right-hand batter and thrower, 32 yrs. old. Just short of the six-foot mark in height and weighs 175 pounds. Born in Little Rock, Ark., but now lives in California.

Traded to Cincinnati in 1931. Three times batted over .300 in big league. Last year hit .243 in 36 games. Fielded .985 in outfield.

He sells insurance during the winter months.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 130 —

FRED FITZSIMMONS
NEW YORK GIANTS

Knuckle ball pitcher. Last year won 11 games and lost 11.

Came to the giants in 1925 from the Indianapolis club of the American Association where he had won 14 games and lost 6, and has been in the big show ever since.

Raises chickens when not playing ball. Born at Mishawaka, Ind., in 1901 and began his baseball playing career there. Played three years in Muskegon, Mich., then went to Indianapolis in 1922.

Bats and throws right-handed. Is five feet 11½ inches tall and weighs around 190 pounds.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 133 —

FRED LINDSTROM
PITTSBURGH PIRATES

Broke into the National League in 1924 at the age of 18 and he's been up there ever since. Signed a contract with the Giants when only 16, while playing for Loyola University in Chicago, but was sent to Toledo two years for experience.

Six times batted over .300 and always ranked with the best in fielding. Started as a third baseman, but the last few years has been an outfielder. Traded to Pittsburgh last winter.

Born in Chicago and still lives there. Is 27, five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 155. Bats and throws right-handed. Last year hit .271 in 144 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 134 —

EDGAR (SAM) RICE
WASHINGTON SENATORS

Broke into American League as a pitcher, but changed to outfielding in 1916 and he's been a top notcher ever since. Always played with one club in the American League, the Washington Senators.

Batted above .300, 15 years in the big show. For many years ranked with the greatest in base stealing. And, boy, can't he go and get 'em in the outfield!

Born at Morocco, Ind., in 1892. Is five feet, nine and one-half inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. Bats left-handed but throws right-handed. Served in U. S. Navy and saw action at Vera Cruz.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 105 —

BERNIE FRIBERG
BOSTON RED SOX

A valuable player to have on a ball club. Has played every infield position and in outfield in the big league. Four times batted better than .300.

Hails from Swampscott, Mass., and first attracted attention as ball player at Lynn English High School. Grabbed by Chicago Cubs in 1919. Sent to Kansas City in 1921, recalled and has been big leaguer ever since. Went to Phillies in 1925. Bought by Red Sox last winter.

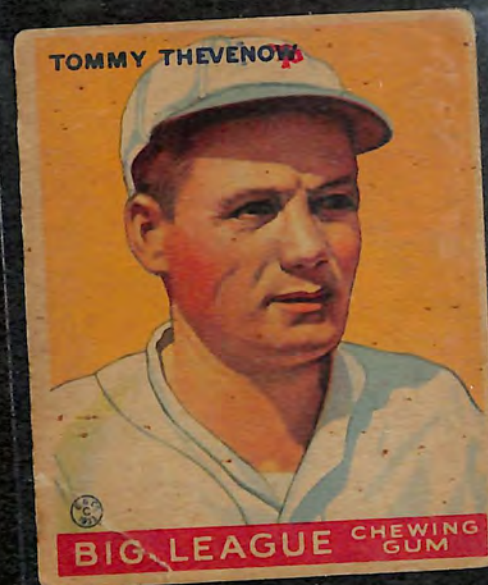

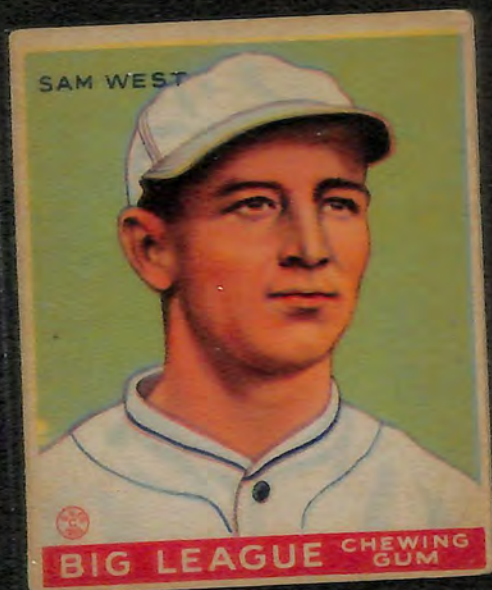

Last year batted .240 in 61 games. Is a right hander, five feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds. Born in 1899.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 165 —
JOE JUDGE

BROOKLYN DODGERS

A big league regular for 18 years. Now spending his first season in the National League.

Guarded first base for the Washington Senators for 17 seasons ranking as one of the cleverest fielders and one of the most dangerous batters on the Senators. For 9 years hit over .300. Was released by Washington last Winter and signed by Brooklyn.

Born in New York City in 1894, and starred in independent ball there before becoming a professional.

Bats and throws left handed. 5 feet, 8½ inches tall, and weighs 155 lbs. Last year hit .258 in 82 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 44 —

JIM BOTTOMLEY

CINCINNATI REDS

Hit ball into right field bleachers in practice in first tryout with St. Louis Cardinals. Always could hit, but needed more experience. Sent to minors for three years, then came back and won regular place.

Named most valuable player in National League in 1928. Is classy first baseman as well as fine batter. Played in four world's series for Cardinals. Last year hit .296 in 91 games.

Was traded to the Cincinnati Reds last Winter. Bats and throws left-handed. Is a six-footer and weighs 175 pounds. Born at Oglesby, Ill., in 1900.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 168 —

LEON (GOOSE) GOSLIN
WASHINGTON SENATORS

One of the best hitters in American League. Started professional career 1920 as pitcher in Columbia, S. C. Was such a hard hitter that he shifted to the outfield. The next year led the league in batting with a .390 average.

Was bought by Washington and starred in 2 World Series for the Senators. Traded to St. Louis Browns in 1930, but went back to Senators in a trade last Winter.

Born 1901 in Salem, N. J. 5 feet, 11 inches tall, weighs 165 lbs. Bats left handed, throws right handed.

Last year hit .299 in 150 games making 17 home runs.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 166 —

SAM WEST

ST. LOUIS BROWNS

One of the newcomers to the St. Louis Browns this season is Sam West, outfielder who had played 6 years with the Washington Senators before being traded last December. West is a left hander, both in batting and throwing. 5 feet, 10 inches tall, and weighs around 170 lbs.

He was born in Longview, Texas, October 5, 1904, and at the age of 19 joined the professional ranks. He was bought by Washington three years later. In 1928 won a regular berth with the club. 3 times he batted over .300 in the American League. Last year batted .286 in 146 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 173 —

ROSCOE HOLM

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

All around athletic star while in prep school, and also at Iowa University. Starred in baseball, football and track. Jumped right to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923. Sent to Syracuse for experience, but was recalled and made good. Is not playing professional ball this year, but in 1932 played 11 games with the St. Louis Cardinals, and 41 games for Rochester in the International League. Batted .311 for Rochester.

Holm is 30 years old, 5 feet 9½ inches tall, and weighs 165 pounds. Is right handed. Has played practically every position on the diamond.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of INDIAN GUM

— No. 36 —

TOMMY THEVENOW
PITTSBURGH PIRATES

He's had enough reverses to discourage most young fellows, but he's still in the big league, giving his best.

First it was a broken leg, while with the Cardinals, which put him out of the game, then, a few years ago he was badly smashed up in an automobile accident.

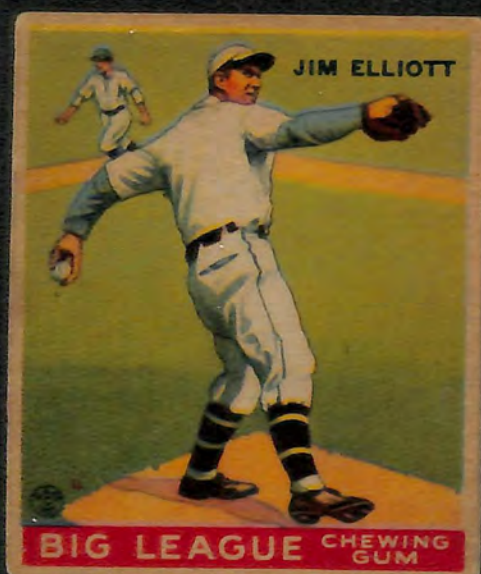

He was bought by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923, after only one year of minor league experience. Traded to the Phils in 1928 and to the Pirates in 1930. Plays shortstop. Batted .237 last year. Is 29, five feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 155. Bats right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 137 —

FRED (RED) LUCAS
CINCINNATI REDS

Great pitcher and timely batter. When he isn't taking his turn in the pitcher's box he's apt to be up swinging a bat for another player in the pinch.

Last year pitched 31 games, winning 13 and losing 17 for a tail end club in Cincinnati. Batted .286 in 76 games. Is a left-handed hitter, but throws right-handed. Is 30 years old, five feet nine and one-half inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. Hails from Nashville, Tenn. Loves to hunt in the winter months.

Has pitched for the Reds for more than seven years.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 161 —

AL SPOHRER
BOSTON BRAVES

He is a dependable catcher, timely hitter and aggressive ball player, playing his fifth season with the Braves.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., December 3, 1903, he began playing professional ball with Wilkes-Barre in 1927, where he hit .333 in 98 games. Was sold to New York and the next year traded to Boston. Last year caught 104 games for the Braves and batted .269.

Spoher is 5 feet, 10½ inches tall, moves the scales at 175 lbs. Bats and throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 163 —

LUKE SEWELL
WASHINGTON SENATORS

Jumped to the Cleveland Indians directly from the University of Alabama in 1921 after turning down an offer to play with Boston Braves. Brother Joe was then starting with the Indians when this influenced his decision. Has been in the big league ever since.

Altho known as Luke, his full name is James Luther Sewell. Born in 1901 at Titus, Ala.

One of the best catchers in the American League. 5 feet, 9¼ inches tall, weighs 170 lbs. batting right handed. Last year hit .253 in 87 games.

Traded to Washington last January.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 132 —

JIM ELLIOTT
PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

He's one of the biggest pitchers in the National League, weighing more than 230 pounds and standing six feet, three inches tall. That's why they call him "Jumbo" Jim Elliott.

Brooklyn bought him in 1925 from the Terre Haute club of the Three-I League, where he had won 25 games and lost eight. He pitched a year at Seattle, but came back to Brooklyn. He was traded to the Phillies in 1930. Last year he won 11 games and lost 10.

Elliott was born in St. Louis in 1900. He throws left-handed, but bats right-handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 118 —

VALENTINE J. (VAL) PICINICH
BROOKLYN DODGERS

When a pitcher twirls a no-hit game he is hailed as great. Most baseball men, however, give the hard-working catcher some credit for the feat.

Val Picinich caught Joe Bush in a no-hit performance in 1916. He also served five years as catcher for the great Walter Johnson.

Picinich jumped from the semi-pros to the big league in 1916. Since then he has played with Athletics, Senators, Red Sox, Reds and Dodgers.

He is 36, a right-handed batter, five feet, nine inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. Last year he hit .257 in 41 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 139 —

BEN CANTWELL
BOSTON BRAVES

One of the box stars of the Boston Braves. Last year won 13 games and lost 11. Used principally as a relief pitcher and ranks with the best. Hails from Sanford, Florida.

Went to the Braves in 1928 in a trade with the New York Giants. Is a right-hander, six feet, one-half inch and moves the scales at 165 pounds.

Born in Milan, Tenn., 31 years ago and started his minor league career in 1923 and went up to the Giants from Jacksonville 4 years later. With Jacksonville had won 25 games and lost 5.

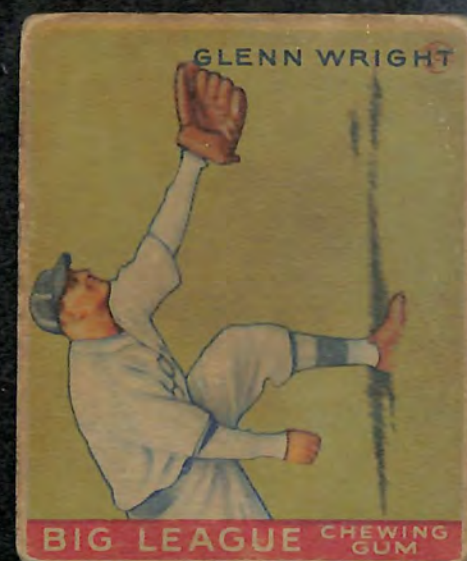

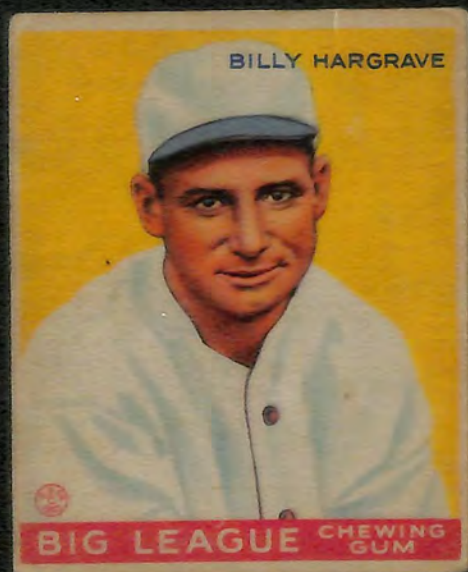

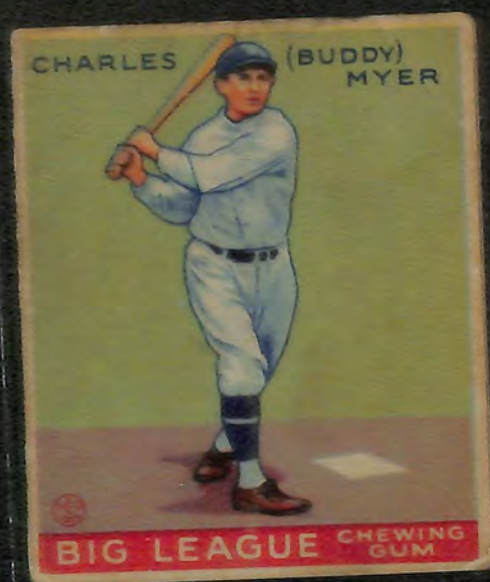

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 153 —

CHARLES (BUDDY) MYER

WASHINGTON SENATORS

Senators gave Red Sox five players in Winter of 1928 to get back Buddy Myer who had been traded to Boston previous year. Has been one of the biggest Senator stars ever since.

Born at Ellisville, Miss. 1904, starred for Mississippi A & M College in baseball, football and basketball. Joined the Senators in 1925 after starring for New Orleans in the Southern League. 4 times batted over .300 in the American League. Last year hit .279 in 143 games. Came to Washington as a shortstop, but now plays second base. 5 feet 10½ inches tall, 162 lbs. Bats left, throws right.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 184 —

CHARLEY BERRY

CHICAGO WHITE SOX

One of the few major league baseball players to earn All-America rating as a football star. He was placed on the mythical eleven in 1924. At Lafayette College, Berry caught on the baseball nine and played end on the football team. Berry came up to the big league after leaving Lafayette in 1925, joining the Philadelphia Athletics. He was placed in the minor leagues a couple of years for experience and came back in 1928 and joined the Boston Red Sox. Traded to Chicago in 1932. Berry had his best year at bat that year, when he hit .291 in 82 games. Is a six footer, 185 pounds; bats and throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 152 —

JAMES (ZACK) TAYLOR

CHICAGO CUBS

Dependable catcher. Has been in the National League 14 years, catcher for Brooklyn, Boston, New York and Chicago.

Born in Yulu, Florida, July 27, 1898, 5 feet 11½ inches tall, weighs 180 lbs. Bats right handed.

Starred in college ranks. In 1915 broke into professional baseball with Baldosta, Florida State League. Bought by Brooklyn after the 1919 season. Bought by Cubs from Boston July 1929, when the team was in need of a catcher. Aided the club in winning the pennant. Caught in all the world series games that Fall against the Athletics.

1932 batted .200 in 21 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 172 —

BILLY HARGRAVE

BOSTON BRAVES

One of two brothers who starred in the big league, his brother Eugene having played with Cincinnati and the New York Yankees. Billy is a good hitter and a dependable catcher. 33 years old, 5 feet 8½ inches tall, weighs 180 pounds, bats either right or left handed. Hit .263 in 82 games in 1932.

He began his professional career with Waterbury in the Eastern League in 1919. 4 years later went to Washington; traded to St. Louis in 1925; sent to Toronto 2 years later, but came back to the American League with Detroit in 1928. Returned to Washington in 1930, but the next year was sent to Boston.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 162 —

LEO MANGUM

BOSTON BRAVES

Played the outfield on his high school team in Durham, No. Carolina and turned to pitching when his team needed a twirler. Celebrated his entrance into professional baseball in 1920 by pitching a no-hit no-run game for Albany.

Secured by Pittsburgh but was sent to minors for more experience. A few years later came up to White Sox, where he pitched for several years. Now with the Boston Braves.

A right handed pitcher, 32 years old, 6 feet tall, weighs 180 lbs. Last year when playing with Montreal won 10 and lost 7.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 143 —

GLENN WRIGHT

BROOKLYN DODGERS

Fine fielder and timely hitter. Broke into the big league with Pittsburgh in 1924 and has been ranked with the top notchers ever since. Suffered an injury at a gymnasium in the fall of 1928 which kept him out of the game during the greater part of the next year. Came back in 1930 to play 135 games and bat .321, and ranked with the leaders in fielding his position as shortstop. Last year in 127 games batted .274.

Hails from Harrisville, Missouri, is 31 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 170 lbs. Bats and throws right handed.

Traded to Brooklyn, December, 1928.

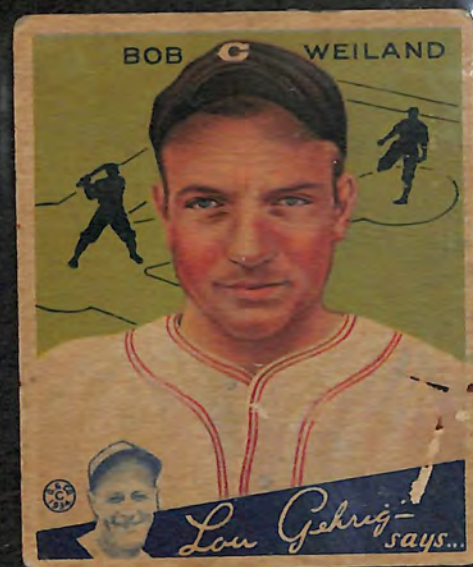

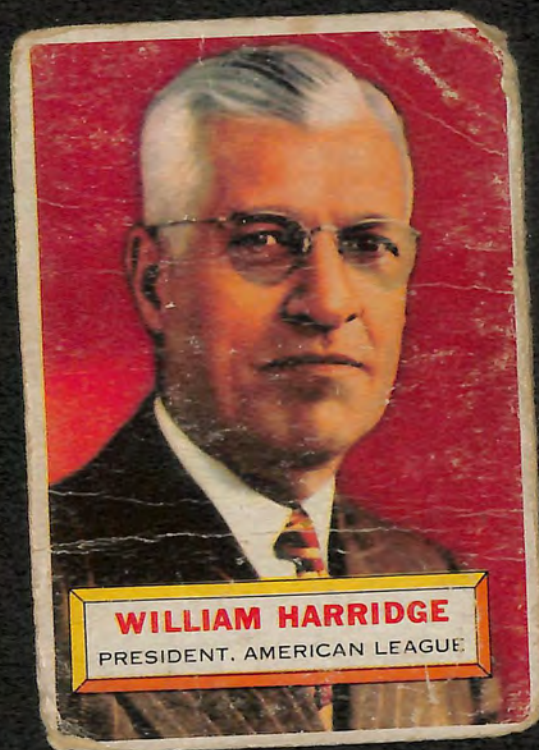

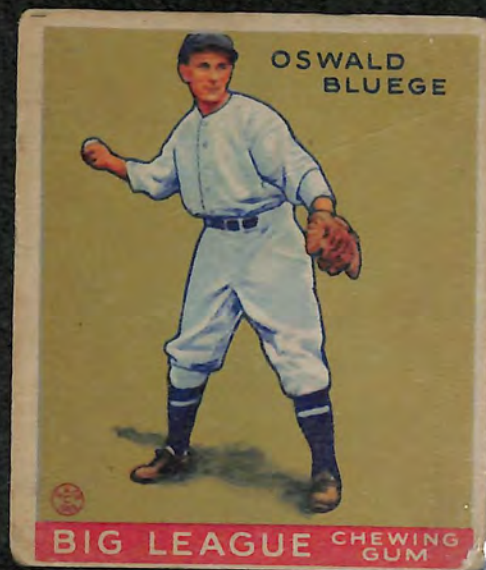

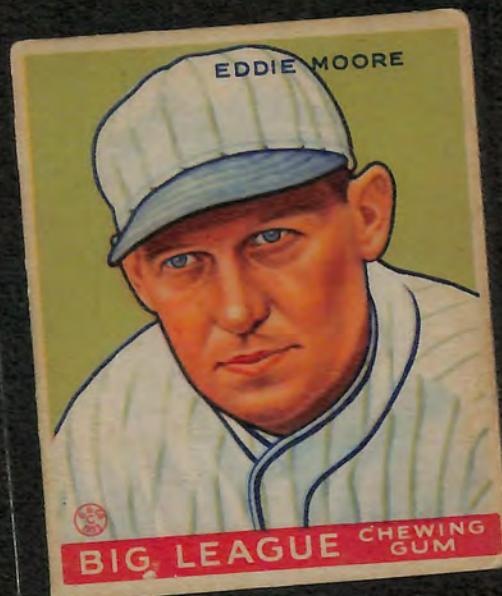

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 183 —

GEORGE WALBERG
PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

One of the pitching aces of Connie Mack's Club. In 1932 won 17 games and lost 10.

First came to Philadelphia in 1923, sent to Milwaukee for a year, then came back and has been with the Athletics ever since. While with Milwaukee ranked as strikeout king of the American Association, fanning 175 batters in 36 games.

Left handed, 6 footer and weighs 185 pounds. Born in Seattle, Wash. Now lives in Philadelphia. 32 years old.

New York Giants paid a lot of money for him in 1932, but let him go; then Philadelphia grabbed him.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 180 —

EDDIE MOORE
NEW ORLEANS PELICANS

He is known as Eddie Moore, but his name isn't Eddie. It is Charley Graham Moore.

He is now playing third base for the New Orleans club, but he spent the greater part of his career in the National League with Pittsburgh, Boston, Brooklyn and the New York Giants. He can play at any infield position and can also go and get them in the outfield. He has plenty of pep and aggressiveness in the field and is rated as a good hitter.

Eddie was born in Barlow, Ky., in 1901, is 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighs 165 pounds; throws right handed.

Last year Eddie played 37 games for the Giants, batting .264. He also saw service with Montreal and hit .293 in 48 games.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

— No. 159 —

OSWALD BLUEGE
WASHINGTON SENATORS

A Chicago boy who earned his first trial in minor league ball because of his showing with the Logan Squares, one of the best semi-pro teams in the country. This was in 1920. After 2 years with Peoria, he was bought by Washington. After another year of minor league seasoning he won a place with the Senators and has been a regular ever since. Last year played 149 games at third base for the Senators, ranked with the best in fielding his position, batted .258.

Is 32 years old, 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighs 160 lbs. Bats and throws right handed.

This is one of a series of 240 Baseball Stars

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO. BOSTON

Made by the originators of
INDIAN GUM

CALVIN COOLIDGE

30TH PRESIDENT, 1923-1929

Born at Plymouth, Vt., July 4, 1872. Pitched hay, sawed wood, and did the other work of a boy brought up on a New England farm. Graduated from Amherst College. Took up law as a profession. Began career in public office as a city councilman in Northampton, Mass. Moved up the ladder in such offices as city solicitor, state senator, lieutenant governor and governor. Elected vice-president of the United States in 1920. Became chief executive upon the death of President Harding in 1923. Sworn in by father, a justice of the peace. Elected in own right in 1924. Might have had still another term, but did not "choose to run." Said to be the first president with Indian blood.

U.S. PRESIDENTS

© 1934

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS KANSAS CITY SENATORS

DETROIT TIGERS CHICAGO WHITE SOX

BOSTON RED SOX CLEVELAND INDIANS

BALTIMORE ORIOLES NEW YORK YANKEES

PRESIDENT, AMERICAN LEAGUE

WILLIAM HARRIDGE

In 1936 Mr. Hartridge celebrated his 45th year of outstanding service to Baseball. He has been one of the sports making Baseball the great game it is today. Mr. Hartridge joined the American League as Secretary to President Ban Johnson in 1911. In 1931, he was elected President and Treasurer of the American League. Through the years his deep love of Baseball has won Mr. Hartridge the well earned respect of players, executives and fans everywhere.

No. 67
1934
Series

BOB WEILAND
CLEVELAND INDIANS

"Bob, a big left-hander was one of the leading pitchers of the revamped Red Sox, and he spent two seasons with that team. Last year, twirling for a seventh place club he won 8 games and lost 14. Weiland is 27 years old, 6 feet, 4 inches tall and tips the scales at 205 pounds.

"The Chicago White Sox bought him in 1928 from the Moline Club of the Mississippi Valley League, where he had won 20 games and lost 10. He was traded to the Boston Red Sox before the start of the 1932 season. In May, 1934, Weiland was transferred to the Cleveland Indians."

Lou Gehrig

By arrangement with Christy Walsh

This is one of the 1934 Series of pictures of Big League Baseball Stars. Collect the entire series.

BIG LEAGUE
CHEWING GUM

GOUDEY GUM CO., BOSTON

Made in U. S. A.