Although Johnny enjoyed his best Major League year in '54 he would have done better if an appendix operation hadn't sidelined him for part of the season. Breaking into Class D ball in '51, he won 21 games, led the League in E.R.A. and Strikeouts. Promoted to Montreal in '52, he showed enough talent to win a berth with the Dodgers. Last year he hurled 3 three-hitters.

Ted was such a terrific prospect in High School, the President of the Phils flew to his home to sign him for a huge bonus in '51. He broke in with Terre Haute and moved to Schenectady in '52 leading the League's shortstops in Fielding with a .947 mark. He split the '53 season between Baltimore (then in the Int. League) and Phillies and saw limited action last season.

One of the big reasons that the Championship Flag flies over the Polo Grounds is Ruben Gomez. The colorful, hustle guy was a strong Giant weapon with his timely victories and rated 4th in E.R.A. He was signed by a Giant scout while pitching in Puerto Rico. In '53, his first year in a New York uniform, Ruben reined strongly on a sharp-breaking screwball and chalked up 13 Wins.

When the Phillies' "General Staff" wanted a heavy hitter to bolster their outfield in '54 they picked Danny. It proved to be a wise choice because his timely hitting and solid play as a fly-chaser last season gave a preview of bigger and better things for both the Club and Schell. He earned his chance at Major League play by hitting .333 at Schenectady in '53.
