DEFENSIVE END • LOS ANGELES RAMS

HEIGHT: 6:03 WEIGHT: 230 AGE: 32
COLLEGE: LOYOLA OF LOS ANGELES YEARS PRO: 7

Gene used to act as traffic cop on the Redskin flank before coming to L.A. Enemy ball carriers know they have their work cut out for them when they try to skirt the End that Gene is defending.

Title, a perennially top passer, ranked sixth last season, but he led the league in number of completions and in percentage. He teamed with end Billy Wilson to make one of the deadliest passing combinations in the league.

30 BOB GAIN

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • CLEVE. BROWNS

HEIGHT: 6:03 WEIGHT: 260 AGE: 31
COLLEGE: KENTUCKY YEARS PRO: 8

Bob can play either defensive tackle or end. He makes life miserable for opposing quarterbacks and when he operates on the flank, he's equally rough on scatbacks trying to round the corner for yardage.

LINEBACKER • S. F. 49'ers

HEIGHT: 6:01 WEIGHT: 205 AGE: 27
COLLEGE: CALIFORNIA YEARS PRO: 6

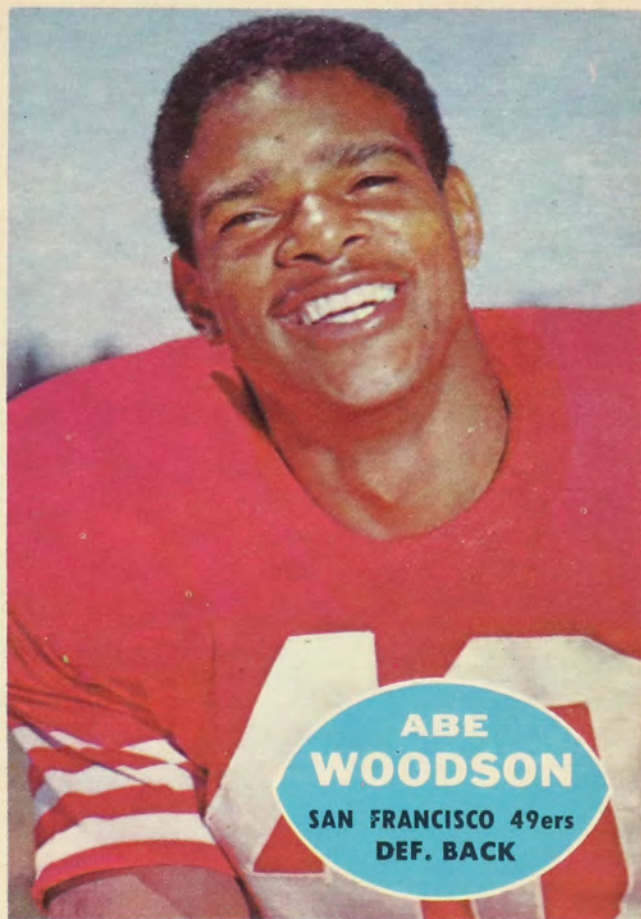

When an enemy end or back goes for a short pass, they usually have Matt to reckon with. He's adept at knocking down the short ones or dealing out bone-crushing tackles that pry the ball loose for incompletions.

If an enemy runner happens to get through the huge Colt line, he comes face to face with Johnny. It's a pretty discouraging sight, since he is one of the deadliest tacklers in the League.
