CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Hopes to make jump all the way to big leagues in '89 after barely 1 1/2 seasons of minor lg. ball... Had '88 season interrupted by a stress fracture of the vertebrae in his neck, missing nearly 2 months after batting .338 with 11 HR, 42 RBI and 32 stolen bases in 58 games at San Bernardino... Moved up to Vermont after recovering from injury and batted .279 with 2 HR, 10 RBI and 4 stolen bases in 17 games... In 1st pro season, '87, batted .320 with 14 HR and 40 RBI in 53 games at Bellingham... Mariners made him No. 1 player selected in country in '87 June draft... Son of Reds' OF Ken Griffey.

Ken
Griffey Jr.

The son of major league veteran Ken Griffey, who is still active with the Reds, Ken, Jr. is a rising star on the Seattle horizon, possibly the finest young talent the Mariners have ever produced. He will probably begin the '89 campaign at Triple-A Calgary since his projected half-season at Double-A Vermont in 1988 was cut short by a back injury. M's drafted him No. 1 in June '87, out of Cincinnati's famed Moeller HS, and 17-year-old Ken broke in with .320 and 14 HR at Bellingham that season.
