Dear Sir,

A considerable time has elapsed since you have had any direct information respecting my situation, or my health. The means of communication between this place and Waterbury, are so uncertain, that I am ready to consider you have not heard from me more than once, since I was at home. If you have not, and your desire to hear is as great as mine to hear from you and the family, these few lines, from my hand, I am sure will be acceptable. —

My situation, in the family of Mr. Backus, has been very agreeable, ever since the first of June. By the blessing of God I have assisted in
