Dear Sir.

Yes recd. The matter was closed up yesterday by the sale of Store to James B. Sahagan. This was done by arrangement made with Boynton on Wednesday 22nd that if he did not comply by Friday the 24th, I could go ahead and sell to the other party whom he knew was after the Store. I had written to him, Boynton, on either Tuesday the 14th or 15th of July, giving him 'till' Saturday 18th to comply, and had again extended it to Friday 24th, and as Mr. Hemill had made a favorable report, on Saturday 18th, on the title, and his not coming up on yesterday & his writing to me on Thursday 23rd that he had recd no letter from writers, I could not afford to risk the loss of the sale and after the mail came in yesterday I closed up with Sahagan. I am sorry for Mr B - ^{so much} sorry that there was delay, ~~to~~ but it was understood between us, Boynton and myself, that if he was not here on Friday 24th with the money or had heard from writers that he ~~th~~ would pay the money on that day I was to sell to the other party.

Yrs Truly

J. W. Edwards
