United States Senate,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

April 16, 1898.

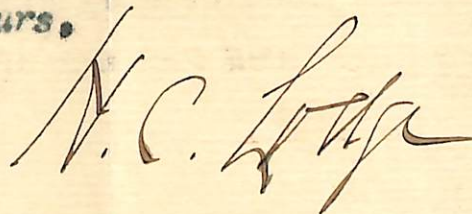

My dear sir:-

I am very much indebted to you for your kind letter. It is very pleasant to me at this trying time to read words of encouragement like yours, and to know that you approve of my speech in the Senate.

Again thanking you for your kindness in writing to me,

I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Norman,

During my stay in Washington for the Dumbarton Oaks Conference I dropped in at the Library of Congress to tell Dolores Martin that I am going to resign from HLAS. I have been working for the Handbook since No. 23 (1961) and it is about time that somebody else take over.

I asked Dolores to contact you and I do not know if she has done so. If you plan to continue, which we all hope you will do, I leave it to you to select your partner for Western Mesoamerica. The next deadline for HLAS 43 is March 1981 but it is advisable to find a successor as soon as possible.

My wife and I spent a fortnight in London and have just returned, surprisingly without jet lag. I found London little changed and much cleaner than Hollywood, of course the tourists had gone by now. I checked through Eric Thompson's library and found his Motul dictionary with all the personal entries and annotations most interesting. The Cook Exhibit in the Museum of Mankind was very well done and I am glad that I saw it just before closing.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

With best wishes,

Hasso
