From the Office of the Chairman

THE RT. HON. LORD THOMSON OF FLEET, D.LITT., D.C.L.

7th November 1968

Dear Peter:

I am writing to tell you how very much I enjoyed my visit to New Scotland Yard yesterday. The Commissioner and yourself were very gracious hosts and it was a real privilege to see the Black Museum, to meet you and your colleagues at the excellent lunch, and have a ride in the patrol car in which I learnt some very interesting facts about their operations.

I am enclosing herewith a set of the pictures taken yesterday which perhaps may serve to remind you of what was to me a very pleasant visit.

Kind regards,

Yours truly,
