February 2nd, 1956.

Dear Mrs. Carnegie

I am writing again concerning the letter which you wrote last year to Jean Rankin about St. John's Church at Forfar.

Her Majesty's programme for receiving the Freedom of the Burgh is now taking shape, and I am afraid that so much is already having to be included that it will not be possible for Queen Elizabeth to visit St. John's Church during that day.

I am very sorry that the final answer concerning this matter must be a disappointing one, but I know you will understand what a busy day it will be.

Yours sincerely
Oliver Lamsay

The Queen Mother.
