The image displays two identical Finnish postage stamp covers from 1981, arranged one above the other. Each cover is yellow with horizontal lines and features the text "PRO AERO 1981" in a stylized font. The stamps are purple 4F (4 Finnish marks) and depict a winged figure, likely a Paravion, a mythical creature used by the Finnish postal service for airmail. The stamps are arranged in a 4x4 grid. A blue label on the left side of the top cover reads "LUFTHANSA PARAVION VIA AEREA".
