Service. If the owner desires the item returned by registered mail, sufficient postage must be affixed to the second envelope to cover the valuation desired.

5. The American Philatelic Expertization Service reserves the right at all times to decline to examine or give an opinion on any item. Single stamps will not be accepted for authentication as coil or imperforate varieties. Such items must be submitted in pairs or larger pieces. Requests for the plate position of a stamp or overprint will not be accepted. Stamps without gum and used varieties must be thoroughly cleaned of all hinges.

6. Requests for the market or net value of an item will not be accepted. Catalogue values may be furnished if published and desired.

7. The decisions rendered by The American Philatelic Expertization Service are not guaranteed and are only opinions.

8. Since the meanings of the terms, superb, very fine, etc., are debatable, no opinion as to general condition will be given. Defects and alterations not readily apparent will be noted.

9. All reasonable care will be taken of items submitted for examination, but all items are accepted with the full understanding on the part of the owner that neither the American Philatelic Society, the American Stamp Dealers' Association, nor members of their Expertization Committees are liable for any loss or damage resulting from any cause whatever except for gross or willful negligence.

10. Item will be returned as soon after examination as possible but since they are forwarded to committee members not more than once or twice a month, owners should allow between 60 and 90 days before expecting a reply. No item is accepted if the owner insists upon a deadline date for its return.

11. The American Philatelic Society and the American Stamp Dealers' Association reserve the right to make such changes without notice to the rules and requirements as they deem necessary, but such changes will be announced as soon as possible.

12. The request for an examination constitutes an acceptance by the owner of all rules and requirements of The American Philatelic Expertization Service.
