

Stationery and Flights

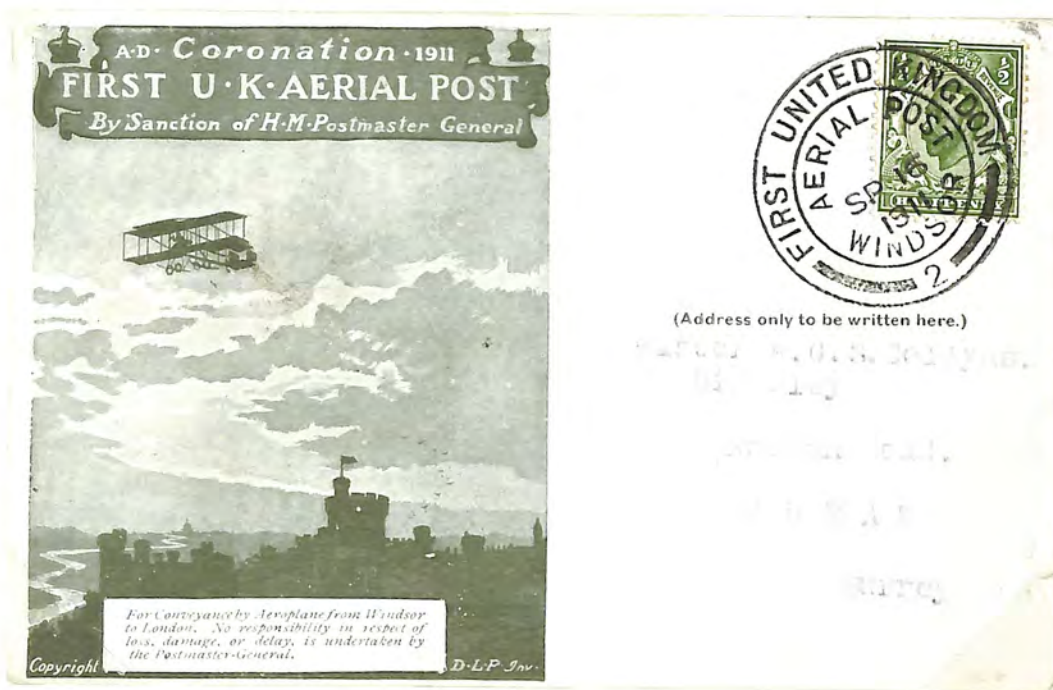

2nd Mail Flight, Sept. 17, 1911

Only olive-green stationery was printed for public mail, and the inscription was changed to read "Windsor to London." Public mail was flown by G. Hamel and datestamped at Cricklewood.

Stationery and Flights

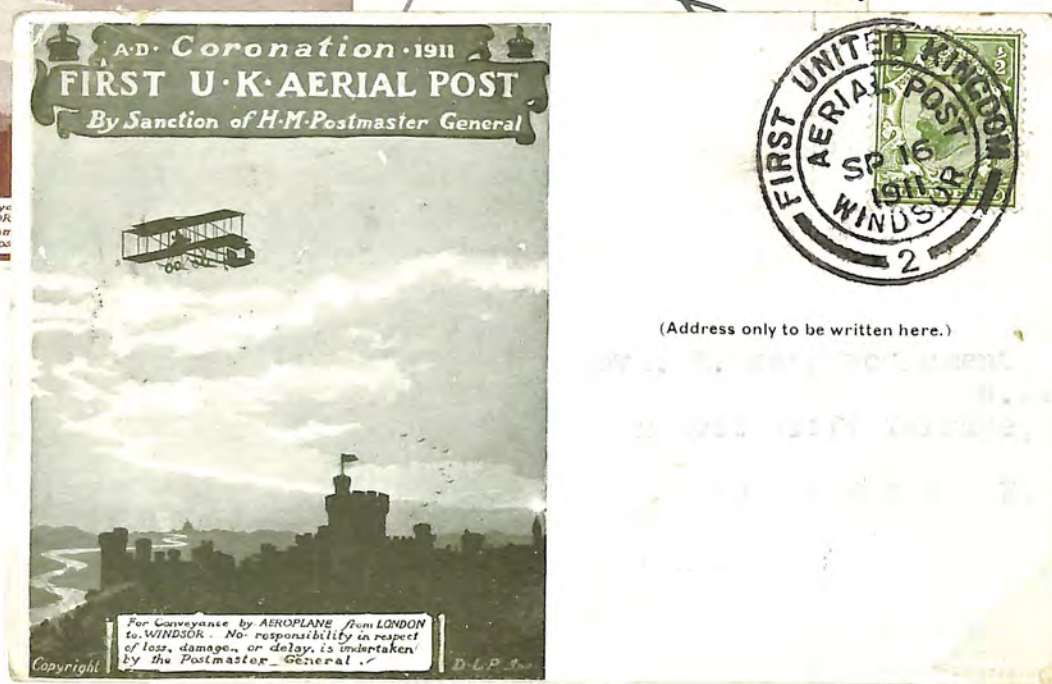

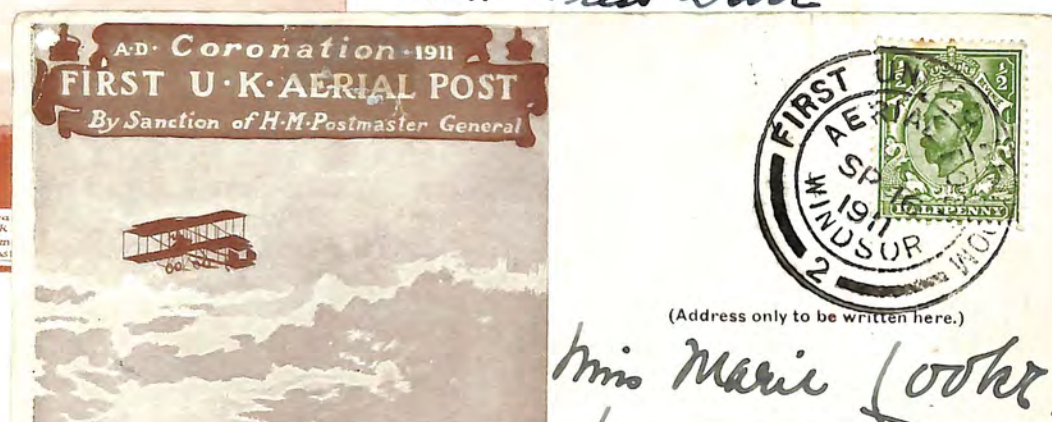

3rd and 4th Mail Flights, Sept. 18, 1911

Hamel made two flights on the 18th with Bag Nos. 3 and 4. The Windsor stationery above was flown that day. It is identified by the absence of a Cricklewood backstamp.

September 15th, 1911.
 Through the use of this unique opportunity of sending you our respectful greeting by Aerial Post, we trust we have proved to you so far, that our claims for your continued support are not based on air, (not solid), but on the substantial foundations of originality, effectiveness and cheapness.
 This is the closing day of the Aerial Mail and we are informed that the Postmaster General will not give his official sanction for a repetition thereof.
