

Reverse side of coin shown on 5p. Depicts a slender amphora

Coin minted 132 AD showing a bunch of grapes with inscription

Silver shekel minted 67 AD showing ritual cup used in the Temple with inscription Shekel of Israel, Year 2.

Silver coin, also known as tetradrachme, showing lulav (tied palm branches) and ethrog (citron) used in festival of Succoth.

1948—FIRST COIN ISSUE

#1-9 were printed several weeks before expected termination of the British Mandate over Palestine. Designed before the State's name was chosen, the stamps do not bear the name of Israel. Instead they are merely inscribed DO'AR IVRI (Hebrew Post). They were issued on second day of statehood, May 16, 1948.

Silver shekel struck 68 AD. Obverse side shows ritual cup of the Temple with inscription Shekel of Israel, Year 3. Reverse side with pomegranates reads Jerusalem the Holy.

Silver shekel minted 67 AD depicting ritual cup used in the Temple with inscription reading Shekel of Israel, Year 2. Reverse side shows pomegranates and inscription Jerusalem the Holy.

Silver shekel coined 69 AD. Front shows ritual cup of the Temple with inscription Shekel of Israel, Year 4. Pomegranates shown on reverse side with Jerusalem the Holy.

Israel's first issue pictures coins minted by the last independent Jewish governments during wars against Rome. The coins shown on 15p and 50p are from the Bar Kochba War (132-135 AD), others from the War of 2nd Temple (66-73 AD). The lettering is in the ancient Hebrew script.

הופק על-ידי התאחדות בולאי ישראל

In 1984, the Ardon Windows in the National and University Library at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem were unveiled. Among the largest stained-glass windows in the world, they depict profound religious themes from Isaiah 2, 2-4: "and many people shall go and say, come ye and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord."

It is here, in beautiful stained glass that the story of the Holy City of Jerusalem is told. On the right panel of windows are the plowshares made from broken guns and ammunition, a modern interpretation of Isaiah's prophesy of lasting peace.

In the middle window is the Holy City itself, rising above the city walls, as described in the Isaiah scroll. Above the wall stands the Cabbalistic "Tree of Spheres," represented by blue circles and lines. From the "Book of Zohar" is a circle within a circle to the left of the tree.

Finally, in the richly symbolic left window, twisting, intertwining roads form paths which lead all the world's people to the Holy City, each byway inscribed in a different language with the quotation from Isaiah 2, 2-4.

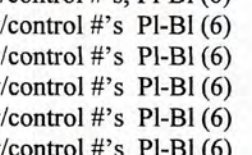

The windows are located in the Hall of the eternal spirit of Jewishness and Humanism at the University.
