1855, 07.10(?) Havana intern "Y", Scott-No.7

Cover. Description of the CUBAN PHILATELIC SOCIETY of AMERICA (CPSA): "Cover with narrow "Y" stamp. APS certificate, Scott 7..." The APS certificate has the number 166499 (1/31/2006), with the following text: "Cuba, Scott No. 7, used on cover, genuine, light staining". The letter has the handwritten note "Urgente" to the left of the stamp and the small double circle HABANA/10/JU... at the bottom of the front.

Provenance: CPSA auction 11/2015, Lot 107 ($25/550)

1859, 02, 13 Havana – Matanzas, Strip of four Scott-No.12

A folded paper of gigantic dimensions: 41 x 32 cm, folded four times. The text page is missing. Franked on the front with an impeccable strip of four Scott No. 12 stamps, all stamps with complete, partly over-complete margins. The stamps are canceled twice with Parilla (Iglesias-No. 1), to the right a black double circle MATANZAS/13/FE/59/(...). On the reverse a black arrival cancel (double circle) H A B A N A /13/FE/59/(1). There is a sharp crease through the center of the front of the letter, which affects neither stamps nor postmark. An impressive piece of early philatelic Cuba.

Provenance: CPSA auction 7/2014, Lot 74 (85/94)

1860, 04, 04 Santiago - Manzanillo, ANT. 7

Complete, neatly preserved four-page letter on yellowish paper, one page closely written in fine Spanish. Franked with 1/2 r. Muy Señor mío:

Acompañamos copia de lo anterior del 4 y telegrama de azúcar. Le dirigimos esto, no habiendo recibido aun contestación de V. ante, que lo recibimos por no haber podido averiguar tan buena ocasión de saber en que mandar a V. una partida.

Ala vista, en la feria de 1.º pp. nada tenemos que replicar, de lo que por contención no lo es.

El mercado de azúcar, lo tenemos en general bastante inactivo, debido a las noticias desfavorables de fuera, que nos permiten pagar los precios que los ha conculados, pidiéndolos. Si bien, no obstante algunas ventas a tipos, como de, pero como que la oferta no se franca, quedando los precios nominados, sin facilidad de poder comprar, aun pagando 0.5. por los buenos azúcares, a diferencia de 0.25. Claro, suplico pidiendo 0.25.

Quirados sin explicación, bastan. Nos, a fin de por los precios, que van

Muy Sr. nuestro:

Confirmamos nuestra anterior y no
tenemos ninguna de sus estimadas por contestar.

Nuestro mercado azucarero muy poco activo por que las pretensiones de los hacendados contrarian los deseos de los embarcadores, y dificilmente pueden comprarse centijuegas corrientes a menos de 5 7/8 a 5 9/8. Clases superiores valor hasta 6 1/2 r.^o

Purgados no hay, ultimas ventas de n^o 12. 6 1/4 r.^o y
n^o 14. 7 1/4 r.^o

Turbinados segun clase 7 r.^o arriba o se mas barato que los purgados.

Refineria de Matanzas pronto podria embarcar, futo tan bueno por lo menos que el de Cardenas, a precios comodos.

Aguardiente de caña 22: vale f26 y creemos que al
cesar la actual demanda declinan algo mas los precios.

Rare domestic envelope with a 4th class post office stamp - Artemisa. The town in the province of Pinar del Rio had only 7,500 inhabitants in the 1879 census. Franking: 5 c. (1891/1892, Edifil no. 126, good copy), blue postmark ARTEMISA/21/18/NO/1891/ISLA DE CUBA.

Provenance: Schwanke-Auktionen Hamburg (ca. 2005, 75/110)

1893, 01.23 Minas de Principe – Hartford (USA) – Earliest A.R. date!!

Description of expert and auctioneer Brian Moorhouse: "Regd. Cover to Hartford, Conn. With 1891 10c dull rose and 3 x 5c dull green tied by PUERTO PRINCIPE cds's with s/line CERTIFICADO MINAS alongside and fine A.R./HAYANA in violet applied in transit. Small faults but scarce. An early date for this AR marking." This needs to be supplemented. The franking is 3 x Edifil-No. 127, 1 x Edifil-No. 128. The postmark is MIN. DE PRINCIPE/22/ENO/1893/ISLA DE CUBA, one of the rarer ones. Minas takes its name from the proximity of some cooper mines. The A.R./HAYANA seems to be the first one ever cancelled. The CUBA POSTAL HISTORY GUIDE (Iglesias) listed this rare item under No. 141 (Havana II, page 147) with the first known date in 1897. The A.R. postmark on this letter was used four years earlier. A further note: At the auction in Peterborough (GB), 8 (!) bidders fought over this letter before it ended at 260 British pounds.

DEIN BLAUER Brief - Flakheim BLUE SEAL OF THE IMPERIAL GERMAN MINISTERIAL RESIDENCY IN HAVANA

A particularly rare official letter from German authorities during the First World War, with blue and white seal on the envelope, which has the inscription "Seal of the Imperial German Ministerial Residency in Havana"

(Translated to New York) 1912. 05. 16. Havana

Dear Richard! I received your letter of May 12th. It was very interesting to read.

Today is the big thing here, the "Maine", the American battleship that was blown up by the Spanish about 15 years ago and gave rise to the war, will be buried today, i.e. she (will be) towed to the high seas and sunk there. Of course, the whole affair will take place with great pomp...

I am sure you will be interested in this. I will send you a newspaper clipping about it.

With best regards from Havana, I am, my dear Richard, Yours truly, Richard Wagner

Dear Sirs,

We are in receipt of your valued favor 18th inst and enclose duplicate of our last respect-23^d same, contents noted.

Our sugar market is completely paralyzed under the influence of the late decline of sugars in Europe. we do not alter our last nominal quotations, but there is absolutely nothing doing.

Begging reference to our enclosed p^{er}curt, we remain,

Dear Sirs,

yours very truly

June 27. We have just received a letter from our agents at Matanzas which informs us that D^r J. M. Leon Labbe has seen your agent who has agreed to send him the goods ordered,
and that as soon as the said goods are in his (Labbe's) power, he shall accept your draft on him: which our agents think will be in a few days.

yours truly
