

BERMUDA 1880(?)

Queen Victoria 1/2d Formula Postal Stationery Post Card, setting A, printed in dark blue on light buff card. Ludington describes this card as probably a proof but also theorises that it could be a provisional issued early in 1885 on account of a shortage of the normal 1/2d cards, although he considers this improbable. This example is addressed to "Hon. Reginald Gray" (the Attorney General) in Hamilton, and strangely bears a printed notice of a special meeting of the Synod, dated the 11th (deleted, changed to the 13th) June 1903. The card bears an unused Queen Victoria 1/2d green of the current issue. It has been suggested that the Printers found a supply of these cards and used them for the above-mentioned notice.
