Dear Mrs. Yago:

Thank you for your letter of March 15, which my office has held until my return from abroad a few days ago. Although we do not have a photograph of Mr. Robinson available, we are happy to provide mine along with biographical sketches of both of us for addition to your collection.

We are also enclosing a selection of pamphlets, articles and speeches which describe NASA's international programs.

With all best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Arnold W. Frutkin

Dear Mrs. Yago:

Any information on the Apollo program should be requested either from the Manned Space Flight Center in Houston or from Headquarters, National Aeronautics and Space Administration in Washington, D. C.

I am enclosing a brief history of the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, as well as other information and pictures relating to our particular mission. I am also happy to include an autographed photo.

With every good wish.

Sincerely,

W. H. Pickering
